AT A GEN. COURT FOR NEWHAUEN 14TH 7TH MO 1657

The Townsmen informed that they haue seuerall things to propound that they have considered of, as about the Neck bridg; they haue treated wth William Andrewes aboute makeing a new one; he asketh 100^{l}, to be pd 30^{l} in pease and wheat, 10^{l} in rie, 10^{l} in wampom, and 50^{l} in beefe and porke, and y^{t} the old bridg be maintayned till y^{e} new be vp, w^{ch} is to be by the latter end of May next or beginning of June, and he is to be at all charge but a rope and faggotting & gravell. The Towne considered of the propositions, but declared they were not able to performe them at this time; so nothing was done in it, but it was desired that this old bridg may be repaired so as it may be vpheld for the present:/

It was propounded that it was needfull that an Order be made for the paym^{t} of rates, because ther is sundrie payem^{t}s to be quickly made, as y^{e} rates to y^{e} Jurisdiction, halfe of w^{ch} must be pd in corne according to Order, and 100^{l} for y^{e} house M^{r} Winthrop hath, beside other necessarie charges; therfore it is now agreed & concluded that three rates shall be pd, one in October, one in Nouembr, and one in Decembr; one of w^{ch} at least is to be pd in corne, according to Order, the other such paye as the Order alowes.

The Townsmen informed that they had considered of the Order restraining cutting fire wood in y^{e} oxe pasture and cow-pasture, and doe finde it is but litle attended to, and to some men it is a snare, and therfore whether the Towne may not see cause to repeale it, at least for y^{e} present, and give a libertie wth such restrainte as they see cause. The Towne considered of the motion and agreed to repeale it and give libertie for y^{e} planters to cutt fire-wood there, but no man is to fall great quantities of trees before hand, but cut them out as he falls them: if he let them lye, it is at his hazard if another come & cut them out; they are to cleere away topps & bodies, therfore if they medle wth great trees, it was better they lopped them; and it was propounded that the Townsmen would consider of & appointe a place most convenient for cutting wood in for y^{e} Elders, or other men of publique vse who haue neede:/ This Order is for y^{e} present, & till y^{e} Towne sees cause to alter it:/

[223] AT A COURT HELD AT NEWHAUEN YE 6TH 8TH MO 1657

Isack Hall, Thomas Weede,* Edward Neale, Mary Hitchcock an[d] John Brookes were called before the Court, and the said Isac[k] was charged wth writing, and the said Thomas wth setting vp a writing vpon the meetinghouse, publishing a contract of marriag betwixt the said Edward Neale and y^{e} said Mary Hitchcock, when as there is no such matter, as the father of the said Mary (who complained of this wrong) declared; w^{ch} thing is the publishing of a lye, and the abuse of that wholesome Order made by the Court, and may be looked vpon as don in contempt of y^{e} authoritie here setled. Isack confessed he did write such a pap^{r}, but not wth any such intent, and said that Mary Hitchcocke was by when hee wrote it, at John Brookes his house, w^{ch} Mary denyed not but said she witnessed against it, and Thomas Weede confessed he did set it vp, but not in contempt of authoritie. Jn^{o} Brookes was asked why he would suffer such a writeing to be written in his house, and that in the night, as Isack & Mary said it was: he said they came accidentally to his house, and he would not haue had him done it, and therfore tooke

This is a copy of the court action involving Thomas Wheadon (in 1658). I'm sure you can interpret the vocabulary of that period. I'll look for the baptism you want. M.E.L.

The Court having heard the case, propounded to y^e planteife what dam̃ages he expected from John Tompson for the wronge he had done him, to w^{ch} he answered that y^e charge was in itself of a high nature, & in respect to y^e place wherein God had set him, it was greatly p^{r}judiciall to him, for if he be a theife, who will put anything into his hand, besides y^e hinderance of him in his occasions with his boat, so y^t he looked ō himself wronged a 100^{li}.

The Court haveing heard & considered y^e case, by way of sentence declared, that in refference to the p^{r}misses, y^t John Tompson pay to M^r. Mills 20^{li} for y^e wrong done to him in his name, & 5^{li} in refference to dam̃age sustained in his occasions with his boat; the court further told John Tompson that his stiffnes which had appeared at this time had hurt him, & would hurt him if hee goe on in it.

Tho. Wheadon, planteife, } John Meigs, defendt. } Tho. Wheadon declared to y^e court y^t hee conceived y^t he had received wronge from goodman Meiggs. For to make it appeare, he p^{r}sented an indenture to y^e consideration of y^e court, w^{ch} [165] being read || John Meiggs desired to know wherein lay the wronge, w^{ch} part of the couenant was not pformed; to w^{ch} Tho: Wheadon answered, in y^t he was not taught the trade of a currier. Willm Potter in y^e behalf of Thomas Wheadon declared y^t he conceived y^e man had great wronge in y^t he was not taught y^e trade. The gouernor demanded of Jō. Meiggs what he had to say why Tho. Wheadon was not taught y^e trade according to y^e couen^t; to w^{ch} he y^e sd Jō Meiggs answered, y^t he was to serve him 7 yeares frō y^e time he came ashore, & y^t when they were in y^e shipp he did voluntarily engage to teach him y^e trade; afterwards, when he came to New Engł, M^r. Gilbert desired one of his servants, at last he came to this, y^t if Tho Wheadon were willing, he should have him for 5 yeares, vnto w^{ch} Thomas Wheadon consented. Now two things he had to say, first y^t the engagem^t to teach him y^e trade was on his part voluntary, & y^e 5 yeares to M^r. Gilbert was by his owne consent. The defendt p^{r}sented an indenture whereby y^e said Tho: Wheadon stood bound vnto a m^r in England, w^{ch} he affirmed was delivered him by his said m^r, & his whole time was assigned vnto him, wch Tho Wheadon denied & said yt one Jō Rabbins who then came ouer could take his oath yt he himself had yt indenture in his keeping in the shipp, who being asleepe in ye boat, the mr of ye shipp tooke this indenture out of his pockett & kept it 2 or 3 dayes, & afterwards calling him into ye great cabbin ye master & mate reade it. John Meiggs was told that if this be true, then yt wch he said was not, & yt it was irrationall yt he should have an indenture frō his mr in England without ā assignement; to wch Jō Meiggs answered yt he conceived yt he had ye indenture of his mr, wch ye court takeing notice off, minded him of his too much confidence, first in saying positively yt he had ye indenture of his mr, & now yt he only conceiv'd so.

Tho Wheadon produced ye testimony of Jō Rabbins as followeth,

That John Meiggs bound Tho Wheadon, when he was at sea from his freinds, to be his servant 7 yeares, pmising to teach him ye trade of a currier or cause him to be taught so yt he might be a pfect workeman in his trade, yet Tho Wheadon being much troubled & not willing to serve so longe nor yet willing to set his hand to ye indenture for any longer time then 5 yeares & gave this reasō in these words, Why should I be bound for 7 yeares & Jō Rabbins but for 4, & wept very much; his mr answered him hastily in these words, Thou foole you, thou wilt have a better trade then Jō Rabbins, thou maist get 10ss in a day. This I shall testify vpon oath if ^ require.

I, John Rabins.

Which being read, ye court told him yt this had a shew of circomvention of Tho: Wheadon. It was demanded ye reason of ye 3 yeares disproportion in time betweene Rabbins & Wheadon, to wch Jō Meiggs answered, 1. Jō Rabbins had a trade before, 2. Wheadon voluntaryly engaged 5 yeares to Mr. Gilbert, & if any question be about his earning 10s a day, he himself had curried 3 hides in a day. Christopher Todd [166] propounded to ye ‖ court yt he conceived yt this was worthy of consideration what Jō Meiggs had said yt he could earne 10s a day; ye court told him yt this looked too like flapp them on, wch was an offensive passage in John Meiggs formerly witnessed against by ye court.

John Meiggs further sđ yt he conceived yt had ye whole 7 yeares beene to Mr. Gilbert by his consent, he had done him no wrong; to wch ye gouernor replied yt Wheadon was not of capacity to dispose of himself, & that John Meiggs should not have supplied his engagemts to Mr. Gilbert by makeing new aggreements wth such a one as Wheadon was, though by arguments he gaine his consent.

John Meiggs further pleaded that there were yet 2 yeares to come, in wch he intended to teach him ye trade, & he would vndertake in two moneths to teach a man ye essence of currying. It was told him yt its knowne yt there is so much mistery in ye trade yt some after longer time then 2 yeares have beene found altogether insufficient. A letter frō Rich: Church of Harfford was prsented by Wm Potter and read, wherein he declared yt he aprhended yt Wheadon had wrong, being witheld so longe from ye trade.

John Meiggs sđ yt he vnderstood from Murwin of Milford yt he would vndertake to teach him ye trade within 2 yeares. Jonathan Rudd of Seabrooke was also ꝑpounded; the court told him yt one of them failed him, for he was a tanner, & the other we heare not what hee sayes.

Edward Church declared yt his father had a man at ye trade 4 yeares in England, who was insufficient for the trade, though he had constant imployment, & yt he hath heard his father say that there are but few yt can dress leather for ye good of ye country.

John Meiggs desired yt 2 yeares might be tried, & if in yt time he do not answere his couenant, he would answere ye dam̄age; to wch ye court answered they must not run so great a hazzard.

John Meiggs desired yt a mistake in ye indenture, concerning ye date of it, may be rectified; he was told yt if there be a mistake, it may be considered, but for the business itself, though he prsent a writeing referring to a mr in England, yet it doth not appeare that he had any right to him, either from his mr or parents, but yt he was a free man, he was told yt he was placed there by authority, therefore an alteration, especially such as this, to transplant a man from England hither, in reason should be by the same power, wch doth not appeare, but only an agreement with an orphan, wthout consent of master or magistrate, (for ought appeares,) is prsented as ye ground of ye claime, & yt agreement drawne on vpon a delusive speech or argument vsed to him, of earning 10s a day.

To which Jō Meiggs replied yt he had no neede to vse such an argument, if he did, wch possibly he might, for he had sufficient right in him before; he further said yt yt passage, of earning 10s a day, was not proued, to wch ye court replied, letting yt pass there are prcedent things wch will be sufficient ground for the court to pceed vpon. It was therefore declared by way of sentence, that they see not cause to binde him ye sd Tho: Wheadon any longer vnto Jō Meiggs, only ye engagemt to Mr. Gilbert he must pforme. Ye indentures concerning Tho. Wheadon are to be kept by ye secretary, yt if hereafter John Meiggs shall make any thing appeare, ye law may be open for his releife.

[167] Benjamine Wright of Guilford being bound ouer to ye court of magistrates to answere to sundry miscarriages & misdemeanours, for wch had been formerly questioned by ye court at Guilford, being called now made his appearance. The pticulers charged against him being read, ye gouernor demanded of Wright what he had to say to these things yt were here declared against him, to wch Wright answered that he had alwayes acknowledged ye sinfulnes of his carriage in ye manner of it.

It was demanded of him whether the things charged vpon him were true or not, to which Wright answered he could not tell, he had desired a coppy of ye court pceedings & what they had against him, but could not obtaine it, therefore was not prpared to give his answere at this time, he therefore desired yt ye court would forbeare him till some other time, wherevpon goodman Hubbard affirmed & said that he had pffered him to reade ouer to him the charges against him & yt he might himself take them in writeing, & besides it was further declared that he had ye heads of all given him.

Benjamine Wright now falling into a fainting fit, the gou-

John Plum was appointed in 1646 to keep the town records, so that we are indebted to him for much of our information concerning the earliest years.

The first great undertaking of the new settlement was the building of a fence completely around the town, as a protection against raiding Indians from outside the district. We have no record of such a defense inclosing any other town in New England.

The record reads: "The 16 of the 9 mo. 1646. This daie it is ordered That ther shall a fence be made from the sea beginning neere the neck wher Tho. Mulliner sometymes dwelt to run abought five miles to the sea neare a plaine wher The Indians now dwell & fower miles of this fence is to be don according as it shale fale to men by lott & the first that shalbe drawne is to begin wth in one quarter of a mile next that pt of the sea first mentioned and soe evie one shall doe his pte according as he shalbe drawne as he that is drawne first shall make first soe evie one sucksessinelie shall doe it according as ther names shalbe sett down her following & the rest that remaine shalbe don in genall. This fence is to be finished by the first of Maie next and noe man is to take any Tymber but right against his fence & theron defalte of not doing by the tyme prefizsed evie shall forfitt to the towne two shilling sixpence a rod or gap or hole & also for evie daie after yf it shall not be done evie one that is defective shall paie sixpence adaie for evie rod or gap or hole untill it be made & also paie the damages that shall come theron defalte of not making: and this fence is to be 4 foot 2 inches high."

In the early sixties a new influx of settlers took place, largely from the neighborhood of Wethersfield. Among these newcomers were Francis Bradley, Leonard Dix, Mica Fowler, Nathaniel Gunn, Gabriel Linco, George Page, John Potter, Robert ffoote, Thomas Wheedon, John Plant, John Wilford, William Fowler, Samuel Elwell, William Maltby and Samuel Pond.

A valuation of the estates and the houses of the town made by the assessors in 1676, shows that the average settler was not doing so badly, money values of the times considered.

The values, as given below, are in pounds and shillings.

There is no official record as to just when the name Totoket was dropped and that of Branford adopted. Probably no official action was ever taken on the matter, the new name coming to be adopted gradually, to the exclusion of the old Indian term.

It is presumed that the name Branford was taken from that of Brentford on the Thames, not far from London. It was the common custom for the English settlers to name their new communities after their old home towns in the mother country, and we know that some of the Branford pioneers came from the vicinity of Brentford. Further evidence is given by the fact that Brentford was sometimes called Brainford, a spelling found in many early references to our own town.

FRANCIS HARVY, A FRENCHMAN, UPON SUMMONS APPEARING WAS TOLD THAT HE WAS TO GIVE ANSWER CONCERNING A TREATY OF MARRIAGE WITH A MAID, CARRIED ON AS ITS UNDERSTOOD & AS THEY BOTH HAVE CONFESSED, TO THE ENGAGING OF THEMSELVES TO ONE ANOTHER, & WITHOUT CONSENT OF PARENTS OR GOVERNOR, CONTRARY TO A LAW HERE PUBLISHED, WHICH WAS READ, & THEY BOTH WERE TOLD THAT THEY HAD DIRECTLY BROKE THE LAW. TO WHICH HE ANSWERED THAT THERE WAS NO SUCH LAW IN THE PLACES WHERE HE HATH BEEN, NOR DID HE KNOW THAT THERE WAS ANY SUCH LAW HERE; HE WAS TOLD THAT EXCUSES HIM NOT, AND THAT HE MUST(IF HE LIVE HERE) ACQUAINT HIMSELF WITH THE LAWS ESTABLISHED AND SUBMIT TO THEM. ANN SMALL WAS ASKED WHAT SHE SAID TO IT THAT HAVING HIRED HERSELF A SERVANT FOR A YEAR, SHE SHOULD WITHIN A MONTH ENTER A TREATY OF MARRIAGE WITH A MAN, WITHOUT CONSENTS OF MASTER, CONTRARY TO THE LAW. ANN SMALL PLEADED THAT SHE WAS BOTH IGNORANT OF THE LAW & THE BREACH OF IT, & THAT SHE INTENDED TO SERVE OUT HER TIME WITH HER MASTER; BUT MR. YALE, HER MASTER, SAID THAT SHE HAD WITHIN A SHORT TIME AFTER SHE CAME TO HIM, MOVED TO BE FREE; TO WHICH IT WAS SAID THAT WAS THE FRUIT OF SUCH TREATIES, THAT HAVING GOT A SUIT OF CLOTHES OF HER MASTER, BY AND BY SHE WOULD BE GONE FROM HIM & ENGAGE HERSELF TO A MAN, WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF HER MOTHER, WHO SHE CONFESSED WAS LIVING, FOR OUGHT SHE KNEW, TO WHOM IT WOULD BE A GREAT GRIEF TO HEAR OF HER IRREGULAR PROCEEDINGS. MR. YALE INFORMED THAT THE CARRIAGE OF ANN SMALL WASVERY BURDENSOME TO THEM, NOT ONLY IN RESPECT OF THAT PARTICULAR BEFORE SPOKEN OF, BUT ALSO SHE WAS A NOTORIOUS LIAR & UNFAITHFUL, CONCERNING WHICH HE DECLARED THAT THERE LDOGING A WOMAN OF CONNECTICUT AT HIS HOUSE, SHE LEFT A SCARF BEHIND HER, WHICH SOMETIME AFTER WAS INQUIRED FOR BY JOHN BENHAM; TO WHICH ANN SMALL PRESENTLY ANSWERED THAT THEE WAS NONE LEFT THERE; BUT UPON THAT OCCASION HE ASKED HIS MAID WHERE SHE HAD THAT SCARF WHICH SHE WORE; TO WHICH SHE ANSWERED THAT SHE HAD IT WHEN SHE LIVED WITH HER MASTER TOMPSON BUT SHE DID NOT WEAR IT BECAUSE SHE THOUGHT IT WOULD BE TROUBLE TO HER DAME & THAT SHE LEFT IT WITH GOODWIFE MALLERY, WHO SINCE SENT IT TO HER BY JOHN WAKEFIELD'S DAUGHTER; WHEREUPON HE INQUIRED OF GOODWIFE WAKEFIELD & GOODWIFE MALLERY GROWING SUSPICIOUS OF ANN SMALL, ASKED HIM IF HE BROUGHT ANY CHILDREN'S GLOVES OUT OF ENGLAND; HE TOLD HER, YEAS; SHE TOLD HIM THAT HIS MAID HAD GIVEN HER A PAIR OF CHILDREN'S GLOVES, WHICH GLOVES UPON INQUIRY AT HOME HE FOUND THAT SHE HAD STOLEN FROM HIM; BESIDES WHICH OTHER THINGS ARE GONE, BUT HOW HE KNOWS NOT. ANN SMALL WAS ASKED IF THIS THAT WAS SPOKEN BY HER MASTER WAS TRUE; SHE SAID YES; SHE WAS TOLD THAT SHE HAD THE MORE CAUSE TO BE ASHAMED; SHE WAS ASKED WHAT ELSE SHE HAD TAKEN FROM HER MASTER, BEING OTHER THINGS ARE WANTING; SHE SAID THERE WAS NOTHING ELSE BUT THE GLOVES.

PAGE 428...FRANCIS HARVY WAS TOLD THAT HE HAD BROKEN THE LAW BY HIS IRREGULAR PROCEEDING IN THIS TREATY OF MARRIAGE WITH ANN SMALL, & THEREBY HE FALLS UNDER THE FINE OF 40, THAT MUST BE FORTHWITH PAID & THAT THE COURT HAD LITTLE ENCOURAGEMENT TO GIVE LIBERTY FOR HIM TO SETTLE HERE. ANN SMALL WAS ALSO REPROVED FOR HER IMPUDENCY AND INSENSIBILITY UNDER SUCH MISCARRIAGES, & WAS SENTENCED TO PAY 10 AS FINE FOR HER LYING; AS FOR HER STEALING THE SCARF, SHE IS TO PAY 2, AND 12, FOR THE GLOVES; FOR HER OTHER MISCARRIAGES, IT WAS DECLARED THAT SHE DESERVES CORPORAL PUNISHMENT, WHICH THE COURT WILL TAKE THEIR TIME TO CONSIDER OF, WHICH SHE MUST EXPECT UNLESS HER BETTER CARRIAGE PREVENT IT. MR. YALE DESIRED THAT HE MIGHT BE FREED OF ANN SMALL, WHO HAS CARRIED IT SO UNSATISFYINGLY IN HIS FAMILY; BUT NO PLACE BEING PROPOUNDED TO THE SATISFACTION OF THE COURT, SHE WAS LEFT WITH MR. YALE UNTIL FURTHER ORDER.

GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY OF THE FIRST SETTLERS OF NEW ENGLAND SHOWING THOSE WHO CAME BEFORE MAY 1692 (P. 496)

WHEDON, Thomas, New Haven,had been bound apprentice in England to John Meigs, just before coming to learn his art of tanner, took oath of fidelity 1657, married 24 May 1661 to Ann Harvey, had Thomas, b. 31 May 1663; Sarah 23 Apr. 1666; Esther 26 Jan. 1668; removed to Branford where he had been propr. before 1667, there had John 1671, and Hannah 1675; joined the new compact of settlement in lieu of that which by those who went to New Jersey had govern. until then; and died 1691, leaving widow and five children.

SOURCE OF THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION NOT KNOWN:

Thomas Wheadon, who died in 1691, was another early Colonial Settler of the general era of Henry Burt and Edward Lacy. This family name of Wheadon was changed to Wheaton later, about 1755. As Connecticut was first settled in 1631-1635, and had a population of only 3,000 as late as 1643, it is apparent that he was one of the early settlers.

He settled in Branford, Conn., shortly after it was founded in 1644. Branford was, and is closely associated with the town of New Haven. Despite ambitions of its founders, the towns of New Haven jurisdiction were never more than small agricultural communities in a region not well adapted for agricultural purposes. There were tanneries and one iron works, but most manufacturing was done in the barns of the workmen. A man named Davenport remarked at a town meeting in 1662 that unless the town could do something to increase shipping " and so rayse manafacture" its inhabitants couls not long subsist. We can see they worried about the balance of trade even in 1662.

[300] AT A COURT HELD AT NEWHAVEN YE 3D OF JANUARY, 1659

John Won being warned to the Court, the Gouernour told him that he vnderstood that he had without leave received a sojourner into his house, & had thereby broke the law, w^{ch} being read John Won s^d that he knew not the law; he was told that the law was printed, w^{ch} although he could not read himself, yet it had beene his duty to have vsed meanes to have informed himself, w^{ch} he now promising to doe, & that hee would conforme to the Lawes for y^e time to come, the offence for w^{ch} he was warned to the Court (it being y^e first time) was past by.

Francis Harvy, a Frenchman, vpon summons appearing was told that he was to give answere concerning a treaty of marriage wth a maid, carried on as its vnderstood & as they have both confest, to the engaging themselues one to another, & y^t without consent of parents or gouerno^{rs}, contrary to a Law here published, w^{ch} was read, & they both were told that they had directly broke y^e law.

To w^{ch} he answered that there was no such Law in y^e places where he hath beene, nor did he know that there was any such law here; he was told that y^t excuses him not, & y^t he must

(if he live heare) acquaint himself with y^e Lawes established, & submitt to them.

Ann Small was asked what she said to it that having hired herself a servant for a yeare, she should within a moneth enter a treaty of marriage wth a man, without consent of parents or m^r, contrary to the Law. An Small pleaded that she was both ignorant of the Law & the breach of it, & that shee intended to serve out her time wth her Master: but M^r Yale, her m^r said that she had wthin a short time after shee came to him, moued to be free; to w^{ch} it was said y^t y^t was the fruit of such treaties, y^t having gott a sute of cloathes of her m^r, by & by she would be gone from him & engage herself to a man, without the consent of her mother, who she confest was liveing, for ought shee knew, to whom it would be a great greif to heare of her irregular proceedings.

M^r Yale informed that the carriage of Ann Small was very burthensome to them, not only in respect of that particuler before spoken of, but also as she was a notorious liar, & vnfaithfull, concerning w^{ch} he declared that there lodging a woman of Conecticote at his house, shee left a scarfe behinde her, w^{ch} sometime after was enquired for by John Benham; to which Ann Small p^{r}sently answered that there was non left there; but vpon that occasion he asked his maid where she had y^e scarfe w^{ch} shee wore; to w^{ch} she answered that shee had it when shee lived with her master Tompson but shee did not were it because shee thought it would be a trouble to her dame & that she left it with Goodwife Mallery, who since sent it to her by John Wakefeilds daughter; wherevpon he enquired of Goodwife Wakefeild & Goodwife Mallery, but they knew nothing of it; at w^{ch} time Goodwife Mallery growing suspitious of Ann Small, asked him if he brought any childrens gloues out of England; he told her, yea; she told him that his maid had given her a paire of childrens gloues, w^{ch} gloues vpon enquiry at home he found y^t she had stolne from him; besides which other things are gon, but how he knowes not.

[301] Ann Small was asked if this that was spoken by her m^r was true; shee s^d yea; shee was told that she had y^e more cause to be ashamed; shee was asked what els shee had taken from her m^r, being other things are wanting; she said that shee had nothing els but y^e gloues.

Francis Harvy was told that he hath broken y^{e} law by his irreguler proceeding in this treaty of marriage wth Ann Small & that thereby he falls vnder the fine of 40^{s}, that must be forthwith paid, & that y^{e} Court had little encouragm^{t} to give liberty for him to settle here.

Ann Small was also reproued for her impudency & insensibillity vnder such miscarriages, & sentenced to pay 10^{s} as a fine for her lying; as for her stealing the scarfe, shee is to pay 2^{s}, & 12^{d} for the gloues; for her other miscarriages, it was declared that she deserves corporall punishm^{t}, w^{ch} the Court will take their time to consider of, w^{ch} shee must expect vnles her better carriage p^{r}uent it.

M^{r} Yale desired that he might be freed of Ann Small, who hath carried it so vnsatisfyingly in his family; but no place being propounded to the satisfaction of the Court, she was left wth M^{r} Yale vntill further order.

Widdow Wilmott passeth ouer for ever vnto her sonne James Heaton 5 acres & half of meadow on y^{e} Island, & her whole proportion of vpland in the Neck.

John Lambert, servant to M^{r} Kitchell, being warned to y^{e} Court appeared, against whom his m^{r} declared by way of complaint that y^{e} said Jo. Lambert had been very execising to him sundry wayes, especially by his lying, of w^{ch} he said he could give many instances, but spake onely of two: first, y^{t} about September last he being sent to looke an ox on the West side when he came home he reported that hee seeing a beare climeing vp a tree, hee shott her that shee could not goe; soone after there came some men of Milford, & they together killed her, & y^{t} he sould his part for 2 bushell of wheat, to be paid when his time is out, or sooner if he desired it; w^{ch} he hearing off, he enquired of John about it, & he told him y^{t} they kild a beare, but he sould it not, but had onely his powther & shott againe; afterwards Joseph Pecke told him that Jo. was growne a great hunter, he heard that hee wth some of Milford had kild a beare, & y^{t} he sould his part for 2 bushell of wheat, but Joseph Pecke enquireing of those men of Milford, they s^{d} they saw him not nor knew him not. M^{r} Kitchell said that he spake wth John againe about it, & he then said that they kild a beare & that he sould his part for 7^{s} in wampom; but he speaking with him further about it, he then confest that all that he had spoken about the beare was falce, wherevpon he endeavoured to convince him of his sin, & he spake as if he were sorry for it, & as if he desired to give satisfaction, which he waited to see the fruit of. But not long after, he fell into the same againe; they going downe to y^{e} water side to fech vp some goods from a vessell, Jer. Osburne was there before them, taking out corne, at w^{ch} time John Lambert did help him to carry some sacks, w^{ch} he disliked not, for it was a furtherance to him, being they could not come both to the vessell together; but since that time John Lambert hath reported that he was vnwilling y^{t} [302] he should help Jer. Osburne, & y^{t} Jer. Osburne should say y^{t} he was not fitt to liue in a Commonwealth. John Lambert being asked confessed that both the passages were soe as his m^{r} had related. He was told that he had cause to be the more affected, for his sin was greatly aggravated, to go on in such a notorious way of lying, wthout provocation telling such strange stories, as if he would put people in a muse,* & that when his m^{r} was laboureing to bring him to repentance for y^{e} former, y^{t} he should fall into the like a second time & that in a mallicious way against his master.

John Lambert said that he had considered it & desired to see his sinne & to be humbled vnder it & y^{t} God would give him help against it; he confessed that he was iustly brought to y^{e} Court, & y^{t} if his m^{r} & y^{e} Court shall shew him favour, it was more then he deserved. He was told that he hath sinned against cleare light & many good instructions from his m^{r}, m^{r} Hooke, & those y^{t} he hath dwelt with since, & that he seemes to be hardened against light, w^{ch} is a heavy judgm^{t} of God vpon him. For these miscarriages of John Lambert, so greatly aggravated, by way of sentence it was declared that he shall be corporally punished by whipping.

Will. Fowler doth alienate for euer vnto the towne of Newhaven his part & all his interest in the Mills at Newhaven.

An inventory of the estate of John Vinson, late of Newhaven, deceased, taken the 10th of Nouember, 1659, amounting to 9^{l}, 12^{s}, 4^{d}, was p^{r}sented. Rebeckah, the widdow of the deceased, witnessed vpon oath that it was a full inventory (to the vallew of

Weather Report at Valley Forge 1775-1782

The winter at Valley Forge was a rough one. But, a winter encampment at Morristown, New Jersey was worse. The Valley Forge Encampment was difficult because the soldiers lacked proper clothing and proper meals. There were seven winters during the Revolutionary War.

The winters could be rated on the following scale: severe, moderate and mild.

1775-1776	Moderate
1776-1777	Moderate
1777-1778	Moderate
1778-1779	Mild
1779-1780	Severe
1780-1781	Mild
1781-1782	Severe

There are two excellent resources providing an account of the weather situation in the Philadelphia region during the winter of 1777-1778. One is that of Thomas Coombe, from his residence "two miles west of Philadelphia" (which would be in the city today) and that of Rev. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg, from Providence (now Trappe, approximately 10-12 miles from Valley Forge), near the Perkiomen River in Montgomery County.

The Encampment saw basically two periods of severe cold. The end of December with a low of 6 Degrees and the end of March with a low of 8 Degrees. The low in January reached 12 Degrees and February was 16 Degrees. The troops arrived at Valley Forge on the 19th of December and eight days later, the deepest single snow of the season fell, which was followed by the severest cold. They were plagued by boughts of cold, which would thaw and then refreeze. You can imagine what a muddy mess it would have been working on drills.

There were three continued snowstorms, but not of a blizzard-like quality. More moderate to heavy covering. "There was heavy snowfall" according to Dr. Muhlenberg on the 8th of February, "deeper now than we have had the whole winter," but was washed away by a heavy rainfall within the next 2 to 3 days. The heavy snowfall of the 8th, compounded by the heavy rainfall brought some flooding conditions...which made roads impassable.

Between the cold and freezing temperatures, there were even some above average warm temperatures during the encampment when some thaws set in. These included some days around Christmas and then approximately three periods in January lasting for several days at a time.

With a lack of proper clothing, and the inadequacies of the temporary military housing in the log huts, built during some foul weather, it was not a pleasant winter for the Continental Army. But through it all, they persevered, and we can thank them for our freedom.

THE ENCAMPMENT

Washington's Headquarters at Valley Forge

On September 11, 1777 British, and American troops met and fought at the Battle of Brandwine. It was a defeat for the Revolutionary Army enabling the British to occupy Philadelphia, the American capitol. Congress had fled to York where the seat of government was established. Valley Forge was chosen as the location for the winter encampment of 1777 - 1778 because it was located near the main road between Philadelphia and York. The area had natural defense barriers of Mount Joy, Mount Misery and the Schuylkill River. On December 19, 1777 the army marched in and began to set up the encampment. Between December and June the army would undergo reorganization and re-supply. General von Steuben arrived during the encampment and volunteered his services to train the soldiers. Recruits arrived to join the army as replacements for those lost due to end of enlistment, sickness, or desertion. They also increased the ranks of the army. By the end of the encampment a new army emerged from Valley Forge and successfully met the highly trained and professional British Army on the field of battle at Monmouth, New Jersey.

Dear Lucy,

I'm writing to you about your query in the Genealogical Helper in the Jan'/Feb '97 issue on Jonathan Wheaton & Penelope Lacey. (I know, I know that was a long time ago.)

I'm looking for the parents of:

Mary Wheaton
born 20 Oct 1821 Coshocton Co, OH married 14 May 1850 Holmes Co, OH to Henry Husted died 26 Apr 1910 Mansfield, OH

I haven't been able to find any record of her in either Holmes County or Coshocton County before 1850 when she married and was on the census with her husband, Henry Husted. None of the Wheaton researchers in these two counties know of my Mary.

I'm writing to you thinking maybe you have the line of Jonathan's son David? He seems to be the only possibility I can see to be Mary's father and the other Wheaton researchers I've written to didn't seem to know what happened to David or what children he had.

The 1828 will of Jonathan Wheaton in Holmes Co, OH, mentions his son David of Orleans, IN. Holmes County to 1985, page 168, on Jonathan Wheaton says he had a son David who married Sarah Nowles and went to Orleans, Indiana. I don't find David on the 1830 census in Orange Co or in IN at all. I found in the Coshocton County records that David Wheaton married Sarah Nowles 2 Mar 1820.

Could this David & Sarah Wheaton be the parents of my Mary?

A Louisa Wheaton, daughter of David & Sarah Wheaton, married Arlington Foster in Holmes Co, OH, she died in 1866.

Is this the same David & Sarah? Are Mary and Louisa sisters?

Would appreciate any help you can give me and I'm happy to reimburse you for any costs, copying, postage, etc.

Sincerely,

Margaret James

Dear Margaret,

Received your letter today re: Mary Wheaton. Glad you took a chance & wrote even though the query was in over a yr. ago. That happens a lot. I am wondering which Wheaton researchers you contacted previously. I had contacted Mary Leppla re: David's family, but she had been in an accident & wasn't living at her home, so didn't have her records. She promised to get back with me later. Please read the biographical text on the second page of the Fmaily Group Sheets I have enclosed. That will explain how the elusive David moved about. Chester Dart, who is now deceased, was an airline pilot and traveled extensively on his pass later (in retirement) to many areas to do geneal. research. He is the one that found David & his family. I believe your Mary was the oldest child of David. He had one female in 1840 in the 15-20 range. In 1850 Mary isn't mentioned in the census with David, but the census may have been taken after Mary was married. Thanks for telling me that Louisa was the daughter of David & Sarah. I had her marriage data, but no parents. This David is a brother to my William Anson Wheaton born in 1798. My Wm. was married in Coshocton Co. in Jan. 1820. Can you tell me more about your Mary & your line of descent? Perhaps there is more that I can help you with. I have much data on the ancestors of Penelope Lacy Wheaton back in New Eng.& Jonathan. If you send me your tree, perhaps can fill in some blanks.

My line: Jonathan Wheaton

Hope to hear from you soon.

Seen him sick I have seen him many times when he was not able to do any Labor on account of Chronic Diarrhoea and piles at least that is what he complained of. I have seen him when he appeared to be dizzy and walked with a cane and I think if he had not been supported by the cane he would have fell on account of his Dizzyness and weakness and he complained of his heart paing (sic) him and a fluttering of his heart and I should think that he was not able to do more than one third of a days work compared with an able bodied man"

[Henry must have been very ill at this time as he signed with his mark and on previous documents he signed his name, Mary also signed with her mark but she has done this on all previous documents which I have found]

and has to depend on charity for her support, she knows of no previous marriage and knows that Mary and Henry had lived together as husband and wife until Henry's death which occurred on the 10th day of June 1903 at her residence in Mansfield and that Mary has not remarried
[I find the wording on this strange as I believe Sadie Newlon is the daughter of Henry and Mary, but doesn't state that in the affidavit]

1903 "General Affidavit" not dated but stamped Dec 22, signed by Josiah Newlon who states his age as 75 years, residence Mansfield, from the text, it is apparent that Sadie and Josiah live in the same house: he states the same information that Sadie did with the diffenence that he knew Henry for the last twenty odd years
[is Josiah Newlon the father of Sadie's husband ???]

1903 "General Affidavit" not dated but stamped Dec 22, of FM Husted aged 63 years, resident of Wright Tp, Wayne Co, Iowa, Post Office Promise City, Iowa and Clarrenda Carpenter aged 68 years, resident of Wright Tp,, Wayne Co, Iowa, Post Office Melrose, Iowa: they were well acquainted with Henry Husted and Mary, his wife, as far back as they can remember, neither were ever married before their marriage to each other and FM Husted was Henry's brother and Clarrenda Carpenter was his sister, Henry and Mary were never divorced and they lived together until the death of Henry.

MRS MARY HUSTED DIES AT RIPE AGE: Mrs Mary Husted, widow of Henry Husted, died Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of her daughter Mrs Harmon Newlon of 42 Blanche street. She was born in this state and had she lived until October, she would have been 89 years old. Mrs Husted formerly lived in Michigan but of late years made her home in this city.

She is survived by three daughters and one son, Mrs Harmon Newlon with whom she made her home, Mrs Anna Adams and Mrs Jennie Smith of Eaton Rapids Mich and Edward Husted of Ottawa.

The funeral will be Friday at 2 o'clock at the home, conducted by Rev SP Long. (copy in file)

Mansfield News Wed 27 April 1910, p 4:
OBITUARY - Husted: this is the same information with the addition of her birth 20 October 1821 in Coshocton and the funeral being from the Newlon home.
(copy in file)

CONFLICT: from mom's old address book: "Mary Wheaton was the mother of Annie, the Wheatons were born in Scotland" - this information conflicts with the census records where Annie's parents are listed in 1880 born OH & NY and in 1900 born in MA & OH and these two census records conflict with each other - perhaps the note means older generations of Wheatons and not Mary's parents

BIRTH: based on the census of 1860 age 8 born OH and 1870 age 17

MARRIAGE: (1a) on the marriage record for her marriage in 1897 to Andrew Wise, which is stated below as marriage 2, she is unfortunately listed twice as Alwilda J Husted, one of those entries should have listed her previous married name;
(1b) she is not listed on the marriage indexs for Eaton Co, MI, or for Holmes Co, OH
(1c) there is a record in Richland County Marriages for Jennie Husted and Ross A Glessuer, married 22 Feb 1874, roll SL #388731, vol 2, p 266 and I am using this as her first marriage as she is called Jennie in the 1900 census

BIRTH: based on 1860 census age 6 born OH

MARRIAGE-DEATH: Eaton County has no marriage or death record for Andrew

DEATH: I place his death between 1860 and 1865 for these reasons: there were only 2 boys, James born 1850/51 and Andrew born about 1854, on the 1860 census James was 10 and Andrew was 6 years old, on the 1865 census James would be 15 and Andrew 11 but there is only one male listed between 10-20, then on the 1870 census James is listed as 19 and Andrew, who would now be 16, is not listed; the family was living in Schuyler Co, Illinois in 1860 and 1865 and Schuyler Co didn't begin keeping records until late 1877 so I haven't been able to verify his death; not mentioned as a surviving child in the obits of either of his parents (1903 & 1910)

1870 census - he does not appear on the census with the family and I haven't found any further record of him

Josiah Newlon with his son Willard is living on E 3rd St, I think Josiah is Harmon/Carmon's father

[why doesn't she say in the affidavit that Henry and Mary were her parents ??]

CHILD 5 - Annie Maria HUSTED-1628

1850 census Killbuck, Holmes Co, Ohio: Henry Husted 25, farmer and Mary 27 (Annie has not been born yet)

1860 census Birmingham Twp, Schuyler Co, IL: Annie has not been born yet, the family is living here so this is probably where she was born but I haven't been able to get a record of her birth as Schuyler County didn't begin keeping records until late 1877; the family at this time consists of: Henry 33, farmer, Mary 36, children: James E 10, Alwilda 8, Andrew J 6, all born Ohio and Sarah C 2 born Illinois

1870 census Town of Holmesville, Prairie Twp, Holmes Co, OH: surname recorded as HUSTON on census: age 9, born IL, living with parents Henry 43, Mary 48, brother James 19, sisters Alwilda 17, Sarah 12, Bell 5

1880 census Mansfield, Richland Co, OH, surname recorded as HUSTON on census: age 18, living with parents Henry 53, panter (sic), Mary 58 and sister Clara 14 born Illinois, Mary Smith 27 domestic servant, 18, Mary Schoeder 37 boarder, Florence Schoeder 2; they live on Main Street next door to a large saloon and boarding house [I think Clara age 14 is the same person as Bell age 5 on the 1870 census]

1881 December 20 Annie married Jesse Adams in Richland Co, Ohio

1889 May 27 - son Frank died, age 3 1/2

1893 January 9 - son Sammie died, age 13 months

1900 census Hamlin Twp, Eaton Co, MI:

1910 census Brookfield Twp, Eaton Co, MI:

1920 census Brookfield Twp, Eaton Co, MI:
age 58, living with Jesse, their son Harry, wife and daughter

1933 June 27 - her husband died

1948 obituary from Mary Jane: "Mrs Annie Maria Adams, 87, passed away Saturday morning at the home of her daughter Mrs Ray Kilmer [Idola] at Pleasant Lake, Jackson. Funeral services were conducted from the Day Funeral home Tuesday afternoon with the Reverend Robert Chaney officiating with burial in Rose Hill Cemetery. Mrs Adams has lived around Charlotte and Eaton Rapids for many years. She was a member of the Brookfield Chapter of OES. She is survived by two sons, Milo of Sacramento, California and Harry of Holt; four daughters, Mrs Florence Krumm, Mrs JB Hicks [Marie], Mrs William Hicks [Sadie] all of Eaton Rapids and Mrs Ray Kilmer [Idola] of Pleasant Lake, Jackson; twenty six grand children, fifteen great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren and two nephews."

 Who are the two nephews?  (copy in file)

CHILD 6 - Clara Belle HUSTED-4465

BIRTH: based on (1) the 1865 census in Birmingham Twp, Schuyler Co, Illinois for Henry lists 3 females under 5, one of them would be Belle; (2) the census of 1870 for Henry in Holmes Co, Ohio lists Belle age 5 born Illinois; (3) the census of 1880 for Henry in Mansfield, lists a Clara age 14 born IL which would have to be Belle

MARRIAGE: (1) Smith - neither Richland Co or Eaton Co has a marriage record for her & _____ Smith

MARRIAGE: (2) Eaton County Marriage Records, vol 6, pg 314: married 30 April 1902 Charlotte - Belle Husted, Belle Smith age 30, white, residence Eaton Rapids, born Ohio, occupation housework, father Henry Husted, mother Mary Wheaton, one previous marriage and Isaac Shaul age 28, white, residence Eaton Rapids, born Ohio, occupation farmer, one previous marriage, father George Shaul, mother Susan Crawford, performed by Rex A Spafford, Justice of Peace, witnesses AW Strool of Windsor & George Decke of Charlotte (copy in file)

MARRIAGE: (3) her obit states she was the wife of Percy Walters so she must have had a third marriage

CONFLICT: Belle was listed on the 1870 census as 5 years old so she couldn't have been 30 when she married in 1902. An age of 30 means she would have been born in 1872 which can't be right as she was already 5 in 1870. She was about 37 when she married in 1902. As Isaac was only 28 she probably didn't want him to know how old she was

DEATH: (1) before the 1910 census when Isaac is listed as widowed:
Eaton Rapids Twp, Eaton Co, MI: Isaac is listed as head of household, widowed, his mother, father, sister with her two children and a niece are also living with him
(2) Eaton Co has no record of her death as Belle Husted, Smith or Shaul
(3) not listed in her mother's obit of 27 April 1910

BIRTH-DEATH-BURIAL: Mansfield Cemetery records: Clara Belle Walters age 41, died 25 Jul 1906 St Louis, married, heart disease, buried lot 60 [calculating birth from age at death her birth could be in 1864 or 1865]

OBITUARY: The Mansfield News, issue Thursday 26 Jul 1906, p3: Mrs Clara Walters, aged 41 years, wife of Percy Walters, died Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs Harlan Newlon, 42 Blanch street. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, one brother, Edward Husted, and three sisters, Mrs Newlon, Mrs Wise and Mrs Adams. Funeral Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev Bruce Brown.

Dear Lucy,

I just started to answer you letter when I noticed you have an e-mail address, I just got my hookup yesterday and am still struggling with it a lot. Hope you get this ok.

Since I first wrote to you, I went back and looked at the census records again and did find David on the census:
1830 in Lawrence Co IN, David 40-50
1840 in Washington Co IN, Brown Twp, David 50-60
1850 in Wayne Co OH, Franklin Twp, David 65, Sarah 49
1860 in Holmes Co OH, Prairie Twp, David 75, Sarah 58
1870 in Holmes Co OH, Prairie Twp, Sarah 69 living with her dau Anna Horner

I have extracts of all the census records for most of the Wheatons if you want copies of any of them.

In your notes for David you say David appeared with his wife Elizabeth in the 1870,1880,1900 census - do you mean Russell?

That's rather discouraging that the records have been searched so much and no birth records found for David's children. I wrote to the Orange Co Genealogical Society and a Wilma Davis sent me a copy of the deed you mention for David in 1824, the lot was #191. If you want a copy of it I'll be glad to send it to you. She also sent a long list of records which have been searched, some Wheaton bible records which seem to be a different Wheaton though probably related to Jonathan as they belonged to Charles Zalmon Wheaton of Vermont. Also three David Wheatons were in the Revolutionary War but my David was born too late to be one of them.

I recently wrote to Chester Dart, not yet knowing that he was deceased, and received an answer from his son Jim. He sent more Husted material than Wheaton so I'll write to him again and see if he has anything more on David than what Chester sent to you. Jim said he moved to his father's Florida home and has all his records.

What genealogy program are you using, I like the looks of it, especially how you are able to put in a rundown of the husband's locations right there at the beginning.

Do you know exactly where Chester got the information on all of these children of David's? It certainly looks as though the first child could be my Mary. Is there anything else you know that leads you to believe it is her?

The Wheaton researchers I've corresponded with are:

Chester Dart - already discussed
Holmes Co OGS - sent me the researchers names and addresses, had no material to send me Bette Cameron - descended from Anson, no info on my Mary Charles R White - descended from Russell, no info on my Mary
Mary Leppla - descended from Anson, doubts that Mary is David's daughter, she sent the names of two other Wheaton researchers, I haven't written to them yet, will do next Homer Foster - not a Wheaton but his Husted ancestor, Lucinda, married Arlington Foster who had first married Sarah (Wheaton) Hum and he is the one who first suggested to me that my Mary and his Louisa were sisters and children of David and Sarah Wheaton. He also has no proof.

I don't know yet how to send an attachment and don't know if I could get a FGR out of PAF anyway so I'll send the material I have on my Mary by regular mail.

I also don't know how much of an address an e-mail gives you so am including mine:

Margaret: Rec'd your packet. Will try to answer your questions from your 6-10-98 e-mail first. I'll have to check my notes about David in the census..I didn't actually have the census. Chet Dart had mentioned about David moving back to Holmes Co. (2) I am using Roots V, which has a lot of positive points, but some neg.also. The manual is very difficult to understand(for me, anyway) and the support from the company takes several days for them to get back to you..and then they don't always have the solution. I find a lot of people use Family Treemaker. What are you using? (3) In looking over the material you sent there are several reasons that I think your Mary belongs to David...first of all, Your Mary named a daughter Sarah...possibly after her mother Sarah Knowles..secondly she named a daughter Annie Maria ...and if she is David's daughter, she had a sister Anna Maria..In 1900 census Mary says her father was born in Mass. David was born in Mass. In your copy of the 1850 census for David, what month was the census taken? If it was taken after 14 May 1850(date of Mary's marr.) that would explain why Mary is not on the census with David and Sarah. I will look through my correspondence form Chet Dart and see if I can find out where he obtained the names of David's chn. I wonder why Mary Leppla doubts that Mary is the dtr. of David? Do you have data on Jonathan Wheaton, David's father? I have never heard of Charles Zalmon Wheaton of Vermont. Jonathan Wheaton was in the Rev. War. and is buried there. Mary has to be a descendant of Jonathan since she was married in Holmes Co. I am sure that all the Wheatons there were descended from Jonathan. Lucy Weaver north@defnet.com

Subject: Chet Dart's letter re: David Wheaton

Margaret, Found Chet Dart's letter: 23 Jan. 1984 "I also believe I have found what happened to Jonathan's son David after his marriage to Sarah Nowles on 2 Mar. 1820. By 1825 David moved to Indiana and was living in Lawrence Co. in 1830. The 1830 census listed a David Wheaton age 40-50(actual 45), his wife age 30-40(actual about 29), 2 male children(1 under 5 and 1 5-10). In the 1840 census of Washington Co., In. David's age is 50-60, his wife's 30-40, 2 males 15-20, and 4 females (1 under 5, 2 5-10, 1 10-15, and 1 15-20) for a total of 7 children. sometime before 1850, David moved his family back to Wayne Co., OH. and was shown in the 1850 census with 4 children at home: Russel age 25, Anna M. age 20, Rebecca age 16, and Louisa age 10. David appeared in the 1860 Holmes Co. Oh. census but may have died before 1870, as he has not been found in that census. His son Russell appeared with his wife Elizabeth, in the 1870-80-1900 census. It looks like Russell had at least 5 children." Unquote: Margaret, Your Mary could be the female age 15-20 in the 1840 census, but what puzzles me is that the 1830 census doesn't show any female chn. and the 15-20 yr. old in the 1840 would have been born by then. Either Chet left it off or the census taker did. In the 1850 census were your Mary and Henry living close to David and Sarah? Have you sent to Holmes Co. for MARRIAGE APPLICATION Record for Mary and Henry? That might give Mary's parents. Have placed a query on HolmesCo. Page and have queries elsewhere. Hope we come up with something. Was there a will for David in Holmes Co., that might list his children. Good possibility.

Lucy,
Arlington Foster and Louisa Wheaton Foster had one son, James Franklin Foster (1861-1938). Louisa died in 1866 and Arlington married Lucinda Huston of Holmes County in 1869.

The parents of Arlington, James and Anna Foster, moved to Holmes county in 1845 (Prairie Township). The oldest sons of James and Anna were in the Civil War -Arlington in the 65th Ohio Infantry and Lexington Foster in the 60th Ohio Infantry.

I do not have much on Wheatons -just the names of the parents of Louisa but you are welcome to the data I have (including the GEDCOM).

I just noted that you have a Hustead on your Holmes Co. names. I had said that the second marriage of Arlington Foster (in Homes Co.) was to a Lucinda Huston in 1869. In checking the handwritten (about 50 years ago) notes on this family, the Huston could Husted. Are the marriage records for Holmes Co. available?

Do you have your data in a computer program (and can read a GEDCOM)?

These seem like all the right people. Homer Foster is a third cousin -

I found him on the Internet at the same address his parents had in Woodstock, NY. His father, Holland Foster, helped my father with the family history for many years. I will try an E-mail to Homer.

Today I also set a message to Verna M. Trayer who is listed under
Husted name in the Holmes Co. Website. Her message is attached -she may have more on the Husted family.

Your Roots V should be new enough to be compatible with the latest GEDCOM (Version 5.5).

Husted. They were in Killbuck twp, Holmes Co., OH in 1830 & 1850 so assume she was born there. I don't have much except the names of Leonard & Calista's children. Don't have their marriages. The children were Henry,
Ruth Ann, Leonard, Clarinda, Calista Jane, Joseph E., Marion, Lucinda, John
& Huldah. I can take Leonard Husted back to the original immigrant, Robert

Let me know if this is the correct one and I will put her marriage in.
Do
you have her children?

Thank you for the information.
Couple of other things:
Sarah Wheaton & John Hum were married in Coschocton Co., OH - the marriage is #384 in the Marriage Book.
The correct name for Ruee Babcock is Ruann Babcock. Ruee must have been a nickname. She and Bartholomew had a dau. Mary Ann Husted b. Ca 1822.
Bartholomew may have been married before: There is a marr bet. Bartholomew Hughsted & Lucinda Dusthammer on 23 Oct 1817 in Coschocton Co., OH.

Hi Lucy,
I have never done any research on the Wheaton line but have some items. Mary Wheaton [parents ?] marr Henry Husted [son of Leonard & Calista (Babcock) Husted] on 13 May 1850 and they were living in Killbuck twp per US Census p.120.

Sarah Wheaton [dau of Jonathan & ?? Wheaton] gets a little stickier. She was b 1793/94 in NY and 1st marr John Hum on 16 Jan 1823 in Coschocton Co., OH. He divorced her in 1825 - the 1st divorce recorded in Holmes Co., OH. In Sep 1824 she had Ransom Husted [don't know if father was Hum or Husted, but he went by Husted.] Ransom marr Susan Howze on 16 Apr 1850 in Holmes Co.

On 26 November 1826 in Holmes Co. Sarah marr Bartholomew [NOT Benjamin] Husted [son of Henry A & Hannah (Purdy) Husted]. This was either Bartholomew's 2nd or 3rd marriage. They had dau Hulda Husted b 1829 who marr 29 Aug 1847 Edward S Day.

Bartholomew died 11 Aug 1839 in Holmes Co and Russell Wheaton was appointed administrator of estate. [Have no idea what the relationship was.] Sarah was living with Ransom Husted on the 1850 Census and with Edwin Day on the 1860 Census. She died 6 January 1864 in Holmes Co. Both Bartholomew & Sarah are buried in the Oakhill Cemetery in Killbuck twp, Holmes Co., OH.

You probably already knew a lot of this but this is basically what I have. Do you have more information on any of these people? If so, I would appreciate receiving it.

Subject: Re; Husted Documents

Hi, Margaret,
Don't know if you are back from England yet or not. Just finished reading the documents you sent me in a more thorough fashion. Have to commend you on your documentation. I still feel that Mary is the daughter of David. On your 1850 census notes for Henry & Mary Husted.. You mention that Ransom Husted and his wife are living next to Leonard Husted , etc. The Sarah Husted age 57 is Sarah WHEATON , sister of David WHEATON! Ransom Husted is her son. There has to be a connection! I still don't know why Mary Leppla doesn't think Mary could be David's dtr. I think I mentioned in my earlier message that a check of David Wheaton's will, if he has one, might give the names of his daughters. You probably already have done that. Let me know. In looking over your records, I figured out that you must be the daughter of Milo Adams, since he was listed as living in Sacramento, am I right? I entered Mary's data into my computer and hopefully at some point in time can "attach' her to David and Sarah Wheaton. If we can do that, I can send you lots of Wheaton data. ARLINGTON FOSTER was born in Muskingum County, Ohio, April 21, 1841, son of James and Anna (Burgess) Foster. He was the eldest of six children. When he was four years old his parents removed to Holmesville, Holmes County, Ohio where he was reared and educated. He was married October 3, 1859, to Miss Louisa Wheaton, a native of Holmes County, and daughter of David and Sarah Wheaton, who died in 1866, leaving one child -- James Franklin Foster.

October 1, 1861, Mr. Foster enlisted in Company F, Sixty-Fifth Ohio Infantry, and was in several of the most noted battles of the late war. He was in the engagement at Shiloh, Chickamauga, Franklin, Mission Ridge, Stone River, Nashville, Kenesaw Mountain, Big Shanty and Peach Tree Creek. He was honorably discharged in November 1865.

He resided in Holmes County, Ohio until 1870, when he came to Ringgold County, Iowa, locating in Caledonia, where he was engaged in buying and shipping stock until 1872, and then engaged in the mercantile business. Starting in a small way he gradually increased his stock as his trade increased, until he carried a large stock of general merchandise, and by fair dealing secured the confidence of his patrons.

October 3, 1869, he was married to Miss Lucinda Husted, of Holmes County, Ohio, and their children are -- Homer, Granville, Byron, Lyndell, Bessie and Bertha. Mr. Foster was a member of Lodge No. 293, I.O.O.F., and was a member of the Christian Church.

AGE 70 YEARS, 10 MONTHS, 7 DAYS

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully requested to attend the funeral which will take place from the Christian Church Sunday, March 3rd, at 2:00 p. m.

Funeral services will be conducted under the auspices of the Ukiah Lodge No. 174, I. O. O. F.

Odd Fellows are requested to meet at I. O. O. F. Hall at 1:30 sharp.

LEXINGTON FOSTER, proprietor of the Foster House, and also of a harness shop, Caledonia, Iowa, was born in Muskingum County, Ohio, October 16, 1842, son of James and Anna (Burgess) Foster. He was the second of a family of six children. When two years of age his parents removed to Holmes County, Ohio, where he was reared and educated.

At fourteen he commenced work at harness-making, serving an apprenticeship of three years. He then learned ornamental painting, and afterward, boot and shoe-making.

February 29, 1864, he enlisted in Company B, Sixtieth Ohio Infantry. His regiment was attached to the Army of the Potomac. In the engagement before Petersburg, August 17, he was wounded and taken prisoner, and was held the greater part of the time at Andersonville. He was paroled November 26, 1864, and held at Parole Camp until honorably discharged May 8, 1865, at Camp Chase, Ohio, then returned to Holmes County.

In 1872 he removed to Ringgold County, IA, locating at Caledonia in the manufacturing of harnesses. He kept a good assortment and sold at reasonable rates. He also manufactured boots and shoes. The Foster House was truly a place where the weary traveler could find food and rest.

He was married February 7, 1864, to Miss Sarah Ellen McKain, and they had five children -- Deanna, George William, Margaret Emma, Etta Elmina and Orpha Adella.
Mrs. Sarah Foster died June 5, 1880, and August 1, 1881, Mr. Foster was married to Loretta Small of Harrison County, Missouri. Their three children are -- Florence Edith, Rachel Ellen and Randolph Avery.

Hi Lucy

I got back last night about 11:30 pm. I'll never take another international flight, 21 hours from the time we had to have our luggage ready till the time we got home - it's just too horrible on my poor old body. If I ever get another crazy notion to go across the ocean, I'll take a ship. Anyway we had a good time and found old coins, my oldest was a Roman Barbarous Radias (sp?) 280ad, they're little tiny coins. The last two days we spent in London - what an incredible city! well now back to the Wheatons:

First of all evidently Chet left off the girls in the 1830 census because I have taken an extract of it and it shows 1 under 5 and 1 5-10 which would be my Mary.

The quote you just sent on the 24th is just what you have on the FGR you sent me back in May, the only thing is that you put "David appeared with his wife Elizabeth in the 1870-80-1900 census" but Chet's copy you sent says "His son Russell appeared with his wife Elizabeth in the 1870-80-1900 census" (that's the part I mentioned to you earlier that I was questioning David's wife being Elizabeth instead of Sarah - think you just left out a few words there)

In the 1850 census my Mary & Henry were living in Killbuck Twp, Holmes Co, OH, David & Sarah were in Franklin Twp, Wayne Co, OH. I don't know where Franklin Twp is located in Wayne Co but even though Wayne Co adjoins Holmes Co on the north side, they wouldn't be too near each other as Killbuck Twp is near the bottom of Holmes Co.

In 1860 David & Sarah were in Prairie Twp, Holmes Co but by then Henry & Mary had moved to Birmingham Twp, Schuyler Co, IL.

On the 1850 census with Sarah Husted living with Ransom - I don't think I had realized that Sarah was David's sister. Actually, I'm quite confused, I have to make out some charts to get this straight in my head. Earlier I thought Henry and Ransom were brothers as they were about the same age and both living next door to Leonard, Henry's father, then when I got the wills for Leonard and his wife and Ransom wasn't mentioned I found that he was Bartholomew's son, not Leonard's son. Bartholomew and Leonard were brothers but Bartholomew had died in 1839.

I have no idea what Mary Leppla is thinking, I think Mary has to be David's daughter.

I sent for Mary (Wheaton) Husted's death cert and the whole part where the parents are to be listed was left blank. I was so disgusted. I even wrote to the funeral home to see if they had any additional information but they didn't. Her obit also doesn't list them. Her marriage record doesn't list her parents, but at that time in Holmes Co, none of them did.

I checked the index for the Probate Court, Holmes Co, OH, 1852-1957 and there is no David or Sarah Wheaton listed. I suppose he could have moved again and be in ?? what county ?? what state ?? I was just assuming because he was in Holmes in 1860, gone in 1870 and Sarah was in Holmes in 1870 that that would be where he died, but maybe not as he did tend to move around a lot. They could have moved somewhere else, then when David died, Sarah went back to Holmes Co to live with her daughter. ARGH!!!!

Now you really have me confused, I don't remember sending you my Adams data, where did you get Milo from? I'm descended from his brother James Edward (Ed) Adams, we were all from Michigan since the 1880's and I only moved to CA in 1973. Milo had two sons, Howard and Arthur Wayne. Arthur died at about age 3, Howard came unglued when Milo divorced Olga. Howard never married and had to be in a home most of his adult life. Sounds like he went into a deep depression and never came out of it.

Now this is what I really want to know and since you apparently didn't get the information from Chet, can you try and find out where you did get it, it may shed some light on David, a new avenue of research. Where did you get the information on the first four children you have listed on the FGR for David & Sarah Wheaton, not that there were four but where did you get the information on the sex and born ca dates?? I haven't seen this info anywhere else.

1..female Wheaton #6693 b ca 1821
2..Russell Wheaton #1307 b Jun 1823 IN, m Elizabeth #6697
3..male Wheaton #6694 b ca 1828
4..female Wheaton #6695 b ca 1828

I did get one tiny bit of new information, I was checking the census for 1910 for Mary, earlier I had assumed she died too soon so wouldn't be on but I'm researching her son Ed, trying to locate a living descendant, anyway, I found her on the 1910 census living with her daughter Sarah. Mary says her father was born in Vermont and her mother in Indiana. In 1900 she said father MA, mother OH. 1880 she says father NY, mother OH. So even though she is pretty mixed up about her parents and Sarah always says she was born in Ohio, I was encouraged by the Indiana in there - like it is a tiny touch with Indiana maybe in her clouded brain there at the end, she remembered living in Indiana.

Hope you can make some sense of this.

Lucy,
If you will give me an address, I will mail you a Gedcom of the Arlington Foster data. This data starts with Arlington's father (James Foster) and has about 500 individuals with !05,917 bytes.

I would like to get a copy of your Wheaton data to add to the Arlington Foster data.

Thank you

Lucy,
A Gedcom of the James Foster (Arlington's Father) family with a printout was mailed Wednesday (8/26/98). I will mail some notes about Arlington.
I think that I would like to get Wheaton data starting with Jonathan and Lacy Wheaton.

Hi, Don,
I have printed out an ancestor chart for Louisa Wheaton Foster and a tree chart, which helps put the ancestros in proper perspective. There are quite a few background notes on the ancestor chart, which you may find helpful. I will place it in the mail tomorrow morning. Thanks for mailing the gedcom. I will look for it . Lucy

Subject: the Jonathan Wheaton Family

Hi, Margaret, Sorry I didn't get back to you sooner. I was interrupted the last time I sent a message. Was thinking about your Mary Wheaton stating the different birthplaces of her father on the census. If you take a look at the birthplaces of Jonathan Wheaton's children, you can see how she was confused: Anna-1781 Washington, Litchfield, CT.
David 1784 Edgermont, Berkshire Co., MA.
Anson Melvin 1786 Vershire, Orange Co., VT.
Jonathan Schuyler 1788 Vershire, Orange Co., VT.
Sarah 1793 Thetford, Orange Co., VT.
Russel 1796 Scoharie Co. NY
William Anson 1798 Schoharie Co. NY(my ancestor)
Almira 1801 Bridgewater, Luzerne Co., PA.
I have placed several queries on Internet about the David Wheaton family..hopefully we'll have someone out there with the answers. How about Wayne Co. or Knox Co. OH. for David's will..they are adjacent to Holmes Co. I did hear from some Wheatons out in Nebraska who sent me a lot of data, but no help on David's line. Lucy Weaver north@defnet.com

Dear Lucy and Jerry,

Thank you for sending me information about your mother's death. What a nice person she was! I'm sure you miss her.

The enclosed information about my father's sister may be of interest to you. I can't recall whether you ever met her. Her death was quite unexpected, although she had been in a care center, confined to a wheelchair because of osteoporosis. Her final illness developed suddenly, resulting in emergency surgery for a strangulated hernia. At age 94 her body simply couldn't withstand the shock of surgery, it seems. She appeared to be recovering and had been off the IV's, when she was suddenly gone.

Uncle Ralph Wheaton, whom you visited in Millersburg, is quite well and attended her services. He still maintains his own home, cooking, cleaning, clearing sidewalks, and doing laundry on a regular basis. He has enjoyed our open Fall with lots of opportunities for walking in his neighborhood and uptown. At 96, he attends church every Sunday and recently renewed his driver's license for four more years. (Actually, he doesn't drive much and never at night.)

I keep busy doing genealogy. In December another retired school librarian and I went to Salt Lake City for two weeks, including an Elderhostel devoted to an intensive study of Scottish research. Our rooms and classes were in a hotel next door to the Mormon library. Love, Mary E.

The lady who helped me with my sale discovered that a mini-cornstick cast iron pan I have is listed at $150.– in her Antique Book. I've taken pictures of the front & back & plan to put an ad in the paper she subscribes to to try to find a buyer. Of course, I know I won't get $150. but maybe a good amount.

My kids plan to finish moving me this week in the evenings. My house sale is "pending" & looks good - closing May 1.

Looking back 'over there'

65 years after his war, a doughboy remembers

By ED DeGRAW
T-R Staff Writer

Changes in a life, changes in a nation — these are the things 89-year-old Ralph Wheaton of 210 N. Washington St., Millersburg, thinks about almost 65 years after the close of World War I, a war that was supposed to make the world safe for democracy.

Americans will mark the end of War War I with Veterans Day activities Friday. As it was in 1917, young men are signing up to serve in a wave of patriotism following an atrocity — the sinking of the Lusitania back then and in 1983, the deaths of at least 230 Marines in Beruit.

While World War I was not the war to end all wars, as crusading dough boys thought, it was a war that led to many changes for the American people, according to Wheaton.

"I was raised in a pretty strict home," Wheaton recalled. "There were no playing cards in the house, and my sisters did not even go to dances. Oh, we might have played games like 'Flinch,' but playing cards were forbidden.

"Well, I came back from overseas — just 19 months after I had left home — and there were not only playing cards, but my sister was going to dances. That was the amazing thing."

WHEATON, born Oct.9, 1894, was the second youngest in a family of three boys and three girls. After graduation from Millersburg High in 1913, he attended business college, obtained a teaching certificate and taught two years in a one room school in Monroe Township for $43 a month. He quit to work in the animal husbandry office of the Ohio Experiment Station in Wooster, at a salary of 45 cents an hour.

He wanted a raise in pay, didn't get one, and came home to work on his family's farm south of Millersburg. Soon he received a draft notice in the mail.

"We had read and talked a lot about trench warfare," said Wheaton, who served with the 331st Field Hospital Battalion of the 83rd Army Division. "We expected it and were prepared for it. I was disappointed to be behind the lines in France."

Wheaton, a hospital records sergeant, was billeted in French homes, sleeping on the floor at night. "Then, for some reason, one regiment of infantry and one regiment of field hospital personnel were transferred out of the 83rd Division and into Italy," he recalled.

He laughed easily in describing his "war experiences" in Italy. "We were on one side of the Piave River with the British supporting the Italians, and the Austrians were on the other side," he said. "We would lob a few shells over the river, and the Austrians would lob a few back. I don't think the Italians or the Austrians wanted to fight very much. They were content to have things remain quiet."

"THE WORST incident we had was when we were trying to show Italians how to use a trench mortar. The shell exploded at the muzzle and we had 30 wounded Italians and an American officer lost his foot," he added.

Flu was the biggest enemy. At one time, most of the 250 victims in the hospital were down with it.

Wheaton would only smile when asked if he ever feared for his life, especially after undergoing his share of air raids. "You get to the point where you say that you will only get it if a shell has your name on it," he said.

While fighting stopped in Italy Nov. 4, the week between Nov. 4 and Nov. 11 was probably the worst week he endured, because of the uncertainty, Wheaton said. "There were plenty of what were called latrine rumors of where we were headed next and what we would do," he said. "It was a big relief when word came that it was truly all over."

Wheaton who had saved some of his pay, visited Venice, Padua, Rome, Naples and Mt. Vesuvius. "But I didn't buy many souvenirs," he said. "My thoughts were mainly on coming home."

Wheaton had taken a civil service test to become a rural mail carrier before he was drafted. On his return there was an opening and he started a 30-year career as a rural mail carrier, "first with horse and buggy, and then I think I wore out four Model-T Fords."

Wheaton, a former commander of Millersburg American Legion, said he knows of only seven surviving veterans of World War I in Holmes County, out of about 400 residents who served.

The veterans are former Judge W.W. Badger, Chester Zents, Max Butler, Lloyd Uhl, Don Gensemer and John Jones, all of Millersburg, and Delmar Alderman of Killbuck.

Wheaton's son, Harold, followed in his father's footsteps in more ways than one. He fought in the South Pacific in World War II and is current adjutant of the Millersburg post.

By ED DeGRAW

Changes in a life, changes in a nation — these are the things 89-year-old Ralph Wheaton of 210 N. Washington St., Millersburg, thinks about almost 65 years after the close of World War I, a war that was supposed to make the world safe for democracy.

Americans will mark the end of War War I with Veterans Day activities Friday. As it was in 1917, young men are signing up to serve in a wave of patriotism following an atrocity — the sinking of the Lusitania back then and in 1983, the deaths of at least 230 Marin

Wheaton, a former commander of Millersburg American Legion, said he knows of only seven surviving veterans of World War I in Holmes County, out of about 400 residents who served.

The veterans are former Judge W.W. Badger, Chester Zents, Max Butler, Lloyd Uhl, Don Gensemer and John Jones, all of Millersburg, and Delmar Alderman of Killbuck.

Wheaton's son, Harold, followed in his father's footsteps in more ways than one. He fought in the South Pacific in World War II and is current adjutant of the Millersburg post.

black suit, an extremely dark shade of gray is used. If a woman's skintone is too dark, it can be lightened with white or light gray paint.

Boley is the keeper of color keys — but she knows she must not go too far. Customers like their friends, relatives and favorite pets to come back with the same features they remember them having.

Many customers like to have black and white photos converted to color prints. No problem for Boley, has a stash of colored pencils and a wide assortment of paints she uses for the switchover.

In working to change black and white to color, "eyes are extremely critical," she said. "If you're off by a little bit, it will ruin a picture." To combat the potential problem, Boley uses a handy color guide to gauge eye and hair color. The tint is matched as closely as possible to the guide and, with a little luck, the shade will come close to the subject's true eye color.

The photo-artist recently learned to take coloring photos a step farther with an intricate two-step process in which she brushes paint onto the surface of the photograph. It is a tedious process that takes much patience, but the results are unmistakably professional.

Before becoming a photo-artist, Boley worked as a bookkeeper. She went from office to office, never particularly satisfied with her job but always grateful to see a paycheck at the end of the week.

"But I never felt fulfilled doing that," she said. "I always wanted to do something artistic."

She trained as a photographer for a studio in Illinois, then happened to see a woman using an airbrush at a convention. She fell in love with the art form in an instant. "I decided right then and there that's what I wanted to do."

Harold Wheaton, left, and his father, Ralph Wheaton. Each served his country in a World War.

Two Vets Remember

For Harold and Ralph Wheaton, Memorial Day is not just another holiday. Ralph, 90, is a veteran of World War I and Harold, his son, is a veteran of the second world war.

Both men are members of the Millersburg American Legion.

The elder Wheaton served in France and Italy while his son was stationed in the South Pacific.

Ralph still prefers to live on his own, where he does his own cooking and cleaning.

"He sweeps his carpet more than me," said Harold with a laugh.

Harold said that, to his knowledge, they are the only father-son combination of this type in Ohio.

On this particular Veterans Day, Harold picked up his father by 8:30 a.m. and proceeded to the American Legion, where they met another World War I veteran, Max Butler.

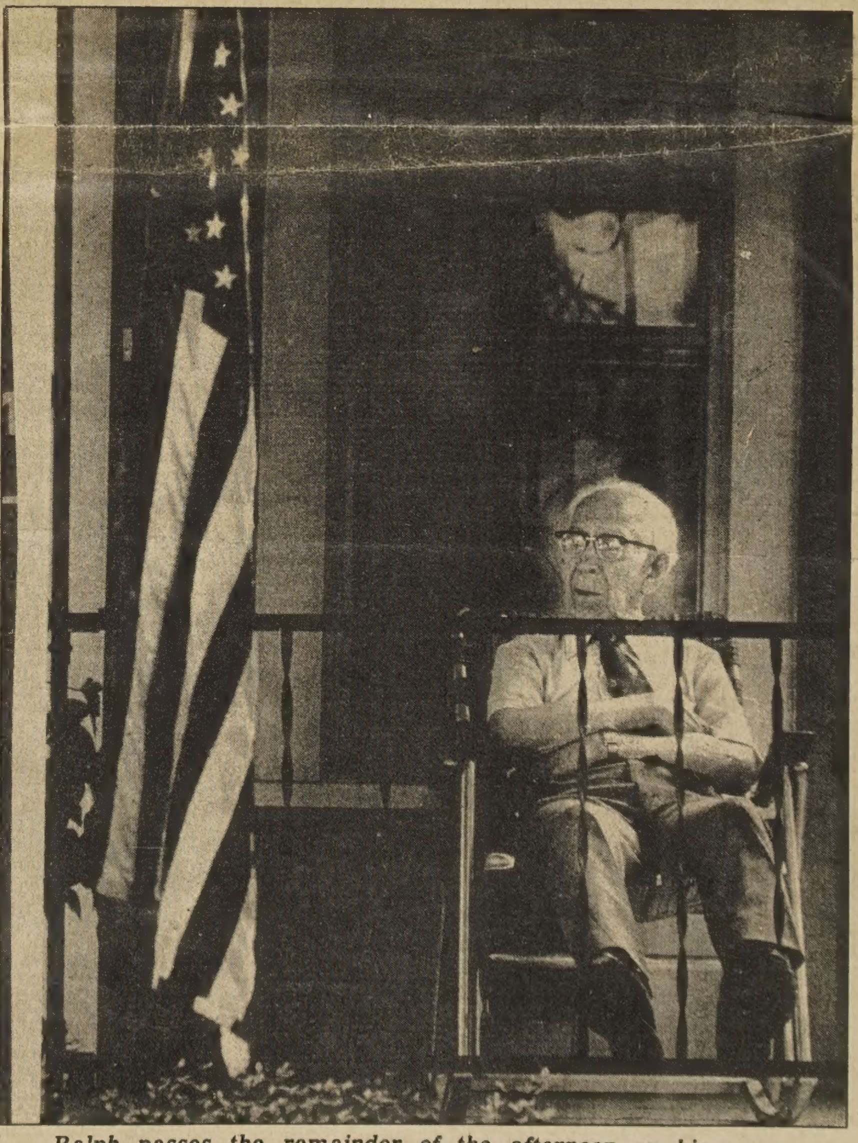
After a short wait, the group began the parade to the cemetery.

Once there, several short speeches and prayers were given, three rounds were fired, which were followed by taps.

Another Memorial Day ceremony in Millersburg was over.

Of course this is what the casual observer witnessed.

For the veteran of any war this is a special day. For Ralph and Harold Wheaton it indeed was a special day.



Ralph passes the remainder of the afternoon on his porch.

Patio Gardens Are Growing In Popularity

By Darla Welles
Copley News Service

When Tom Champlin and his wife, Marian, moved into a condominium a few years ago, they left behind a home with a lushly planted yard.

So it was understandable that he would not long tolerate the bleakness of the condominium's small patio, which consisted of a patch of concrete bordered by dirt.

"I didn't like to sit out here with the sun glaring on the concrete and nothing green or pretty," Champlin said.

He covered the concrete with green outdoor carpeting, filled the dirt border with hearty creeping charlie and filled containers with green and blooming plants.

Champlin selected plants that are easy to grow and take little care. He chose shade-loving Boston ferns for hanging planters in the sheltered area of the patio, and sun-loving annuals and perennials for planter boxes that he put on the open ledge of the patio wall. He added night-blooming jasmine for fragrance and easy-care flowering cactus plants for winter bloom.

Champlin's easy-care approach is but one way to beautify the small patio and deck areas found in condominium and apartment complexes.

Gardening in these small spaces can be as simple or as elaborate as the individual gardener's patience allows. The finished product can vary as widely as the gardeners themselves.

Patio plantings can be inexpensive, relying on common flowers that can be grown from seed or from small plants that can be bought in pony packs of six each, usually for no more than a dollar a pack.

The least expensive containers are simple clay pots, said Bruce Asakawa, owner of a garden center. The most durable, but more costly, are redwood tubs or boxes.

Also good for larger plantings are oak barrels split in half to form tubs.

"You can really do a lot in a small patio area," Asakawa said. "You can successfully plant almost anything except really large or fast-growing plants in containers. So the appearance of a patio garden is really only limited by the imagination and patience of the person doing it.

"Some people don't have the patience to start plants from seed. For them the pony packs of plants or small plants in 4- or 6-inch pots are perfect. Colorful annual flowers will bloom all through summer and into the autumn if you keep pinching off the dead blooms.

"Perennial plants like marguerite daisies usually need to be pruned back during the cool season to keep them from getting leggy and woody, but they're very good container plants for plentiful bloom and color."

Geraniums are available in many varieties. Some varieties grow upright and are good for planter boxes; others trail and are good for hanging baskets. Their blooms and leaves take many forms and they are tolerant plants that thrive even when occasionally neglected, Asakawa said.

For shaded areas and hanging baskets, Asakawa recommends impatiens, begonias and ferns.

Also good for color are plants grown from bulbs or tubers — crocus, hyacinths, daffodils, iris and ranunculas.

Cactus and succulents, like jade plant and aloe, require little care and can offer interesting shapes and unusual blooms.

Many shrubs — flowering varieties like azaleas, camellias and lantana — adapt well to container growing, as do some slow-growing trees like star pine or ficus.

Vining plants, like morning glories or sweet peas, can be trained on trellises, firmly anchored in pots or in the ground if your patio is not completely paved.

For the practical minded, many vegetables, herbs, spices, and fruits such as strawberries and dwarf fruit trees, can be raised in a patio garden.

Plants in containers often require more frequent watering than those planted in the ground, and good drainage is a must, Asakawa said. Never plant in containers that do not have drainage holes. Most businesses that sell pots can drill drainage holes in pots that don't have them.

Container plants should be fed with a weak fertilizer solution once or twice a month, Asakawa said. Use plant food appropriate for the type of plant, flowering or foliage.

life has been marked with acts of hospitality, charity and philanthropy, being always ready for every good word and work. She has been not only a blessing in her own home, but greatly so to others, "and many shall rise up and call her blessed."

MAYERS FAMILY. The history of every county is made up of a multiplicity of lives, all more or less prominent for the part they have played in the drama of its development. But here and there we find individuals or families who impart to the scene an especial brilliancy by the earnestness and zeal which they have displayed in its early founding. Such, indeed, is the Mayers family, of Millersburgh.

No man in his day was more prominently identified with the business interests of Holmes County during its early days of prosperity, or was of a more progressive spirit, than Lewis Mayers. He was born on the River Rhine, in the kingdom of Bavaria, Germany, in October, 1811. His early life was spent in his native country, and, his parents being poor, his advantages were indeed limited. But he had heard of the "land of the free," where the poorest might live in abundance, and in 1836 he emigrated to America, landing at New Orleans, wl he remained a short time, working whatever employment he could fi From there he went to Illinois, where worked at farm labor, and in 1837 cam Millersburgh, where he began his busin career in a grocery store, and later on, 1844, embarked in the dry goods bu ness, which gradually grew until it l came the largest and most promine business establishment in the town. M Mayers was a man of sound busine judgment, great energy, strict integrit and no man in the place had greater infl ence or was more universally esteeme than he. In 1875 he was succeeded i the business by his sons, Samuel E. an Horace C. In 1874 the Mayers Exchang Bank was organized, although for year previous to this Mr. Mayers had done a private banking business, and to-day although the original founder has passe to the great beyond, the bank still exists as part of the estate, and is recognized as it has always been, as one of the soundest business institutions in the town. Mr. Mayers was sole proprietor until his death, his son, Charles, being cashier.

Mr. Mayers was married, in 1838, to Miss Sarah, daughter of Anson Wheaton, whose ancestors for several generations were natives of Massachusetts. The Wheatons were a prominent family, and were among the pioneers of Holmes County. They have been patriots from an early day, the great-grandfather, grandfather and father of Mrs. Mayers having been soldiers in the Wars of the Revolution, of 1812 and of the Rebellion, respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Mayers had born to them a family of eleven children, viz.: Rachel (wife of Robert Cameron), Anson M., H. L. (a minister of the Presbyterian Church), Samuel E., Horace C., W. J., Mrs. Mary L. Loos, Mrs. Lucy E. McClerken, Charles R., A. W. and Bessie. The father died August 1, 1883, and in his death Millersburgh lost one of its most energetic, enterprising citizens. Commencing life's journey at the foot of the ladder, Mr. Mayers, unaided, and by his own perseverance and ability, worked his way up, until he stood at the top, in point of wealth, influence and prominence in the county. Mrs. Mayers still resides at the homestead, her son, A. W., and daughter Bessie constituting her family. Of the sons, who are prominent business men of Millersburgh, something more should be said.

Anson M., the eldest son, was born in 1844, and was married in 1886 to Miss Louisa, daughter of Samuel Lamberson, of Coshocton County, and they have one child, Julia M. He is one of the most extensively engaged men in the town, being interested in various enterprises.

Samuel E. was born December 30, 1847, and was married in 1878 to Miss Lula M., a daughter of Thomas Magee, of Tuscarawas County, Ohio. They have had four children, three of whom are living: Mildred M., Irene H. and Lawrence H.

Horace C. was born in 1851, and was married in 1875 to Miss H. E., daughter of Henry Wolgamot, and they have three children: Karl Lewis, Mary Louisa and Horace C. Jr.

W. J. was born in 1855, and was married in 1878, to Geneva L. Mulvane, daughter of Jenkin Mulvane, and they have two children: Kenneth (deceased) and Margery.

Charles R. was born in 1860, and was married in 1883 to Libbie L., daughter of A. A. Taylor. They have one daughter, Urania B. Charles R. is cashier of the Mayers Exchange Bank, and is one of the prominent young men of Millersburgh.

S. E., H. C. and W. J. Mayers compose the present firm of Mayers Brothers, dry-goods merchants of Millersburgh. These brothers have shown by their remarkable business successes that they have inherited all the push, enterprise and tact of their deceased parent, and under their most efficient management, the business which formerly was large, has grown to what may well be called colossal proportions, considering the size of the town and the population of the county. Where some years ago stood the old business house, now towers a handsome and commodious brick, elaborately finished inside, both for beauty and convenience. Their sales undoubtedly exceed $100,000 per year, which of itself is an evidence that their stock in trade is kept fresh and fully abreast of the requirements of fashion. The business is conducted in a most systematic manner, and with its various departments of general dry goods, carpets, cloaks, millinery, and one of the best groceries in the city, all fitted out with cash-railways and attended by numerous clerks, gives to their store an air decidedly metropolitan and quite in advance of those usually seen in our small cities.

This family of children were all born in Millersburgh, and all stand high in both business and social circles. They are members of the Disciples Church; in politics the sons have affiliated with the Democratic party, as did their father.

JOHN DUNCAN (deceased) was born March 7, 1804, in Washington County, Penn., where he remained until 1824, when he came to Steubenville, Jefferson Co., Ohio, and engaged with a Mr. Plumer as a laborer. About 1826 he was entrusted by Mr. Plumer with a flatboat of flour shipped from Steubenville for New Orleans. When he arrived at the latter city he found an unfavorable market, and, although having no business experience, he engaged transportation and forwarded the consignment to Mexico, where he sold it at a greatly advanced price from any he had been offered at New Orleans. On returning to Steubenville, he walked a great portion of the distance. The trip to Mexico delayed his return, and caused some misgivings, but on informing his employer of his successful adventure, the latter took young Duncan as an apprentice to learn the fulling and carding industry, in which occupation he was engaged until 1830, having accumulated and saved up $100.

He then set out for Holmes County, and, in partnership with his brother, William, who had preceded him, purchased a farm in Mechanic Township, upon which he built the first fulling and carding mill in the county, operating the same by horse- and ox-power. This mill he operated until 1835, when he sold his interest in it to his brother William, and purchased a farm and mill-site in Coshocton County, on "Doughty's Fork," upon which he built a saw-mill, a carding- and fulling-mill and a flouring-mill, all of which were operated by water-power. He successfully carried on these, together with farming and general warehouse business, hauling flour, grain, etc., to Massillon,

LOUIS MAYERS was born in the City of Worms, Germany, on Dec. 11, 1811. He came to this country in 1826, and settled at Millersburg. He began his business career in a very small way, by engaging in a general grocery store, and shortly afterwards growing into the dry goods, hardware, boots and shoes, queensware, and such goods as are usually kept in a country store. REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND FAMILIES

Mayers was a successful merchant, and his place of business became known all over the country. He was especially noted for his honest and upright methods of dealing. This, coupled with energy and strict attention to business, soon brought him to the front of the business men of this section of Ohio. About the year 1850 he removed his place of business to the location now occupied by Mayers Brothers. About the year 1875 he retired from the dry goods business and, with several friends, organized "The Exchange Bank." He was made president of this company, and continued in this office until the time of his death.

Shortly after he came to Millersburg, Mr. Mayers was united in marriage with Sarah, eldest daughter of Anson Melvin and Rebecca Wheaton. Within a year after their marriage they removed to the corner of Washington and Jackson Sts., the present residence of Mr. S. E. Mayers. Here they resided the rest of their lives, and here was born and reared their entire family; seven sons and four daughters blessed their union, of whom nine are still living. Beginning with the oldest, the family is as follows: Rachael Rebecca Cameron, Anson Melvin, Mary Louise, Samuel E., Horace Cushing, Mary Louise Loos, William Jacob, Lucy Eva Burns, Charles Russel, Albert Wheaton, and Bessie Anna Buehl, all of whom are still living with the exception of Anson Melvin and Albert Wheaton. Albert W. was, at the time of his death, a successful attorney at Cleveland, O. Samuel E. and William J. are members of the Mayers Bros. Co., Millersburg's leading dry goods merchants.

LIVES WITH HIS MOTHER ON THE FARM IN HARDY TOWNSHIP, HOLMES COUNTY. THE FATHER OF THESE CHILDREN DIED IN MARCH, 1859. HE WAS ONE OF THE ENERGETIC YOUNG MEN OF THE TOWNSHIP, AND TAKEN FROM HIS FAMILY IN THE PRIME OF EARLY MANHOOD. MRS. WHEATON IS A MEBER OF THE DISCIPLES CHURCH, AN EARNEST CHRISTIAN WOMAN, WHO HAS LIVED FOR HER CHILDREN, AND HAS BEEN REWARDED BY SEEING HER SONS GROWN TO BE YOUNG MEN OF INTEGRITY, AND NUMBERED AMONG THE LEADING CITIZENS.

SARAH, DAUGHTER OF ANSON WHEATON, MARRIED LEWIS MAYERS, IN 1838. NO MAN IN HIS DAY WAS MORE PROMINENTLY IDENTIFIED WITH THE BUSINESS INTERESTS OF HOLMES COUNTY DURING ITS EARLY DAYS OF PROSPERITY, OR WAS MORE OF A PROGRESSIVE SPIRIT, THAN LEWIS MAYERS. HE WAS BORN ON THE RIVER RHINE, IN THE KINGDOM OF BAVARIA, GERMANY, IN OCTOBER 1811. HIS EARLY LIFE WAS SPENT IN HIS NATIVE COUNTRY AND HIS PARENTS BEING POOR, HIS ADVANTAGES WERE INDEED LIMITED. BUT HE HAD HEARD OF THE "LAND OF THE FREE" WHERE THE POOREST MIGHT LIVE IN ABUNDANCE, AND IN 1836 HE EMIGRATED TO AMERICA, LANDING AT NEW ORLEANS, WHERE HE REMAINED A SHORT TIME, WORKING AT WHATEVER EMPLOYMENT HE COULD FIND. FROM THERE HE WENT TO ILLINOIS WHERE HE WORKED AT FARM LABOR, AND IN 1837 CAME TO MILLERSBURGH WHERE HE BEGAN HIS CAREER IN A GROCERY STORE AND LATER ON IN 1844, EMBARKED IN THE DRY GOODS BUSINESS WHICH GRADUALLY GREW UNTIL IT BECAME THE LARGEST AND MOST PROMINENT BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENT IN THE TOWN. MR. MAYERS WAS A MAN OF SOUND BUSINESS JUDGMENT, GREAT ENERGY, STRICT INTEGRITY, AND NO MAN IN THE PLACE HAD GREATER INFLUENCE OR WAS MORE UNIVERSALLY ESTEEMED THAN HE. IN 1875, HE WAS SUCCEEDED IN BUSINESS BY HIS SONS, SAMUEL E. AND HORACE C. IN 1874 THE MAYERS EXCHANGE BANK WAS ORGANIZED ALTHOUGH FOR YEARS PREVIOUS TO THIS MR. MAYERS HAD DONE A PRIVATE BANKING BUSINESS AND TODAY, ALTHOUGH THE ORIGINAL FOUNDER HAS PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND, THE BANK STILL EXISTS AS ONE OF THE SOUNDEST BUSINESS INSTITUTIONS IN THE TOWN. MR. MAYERS WAS

SOLE PROPRIETOR UNTIL HIS DEATH, HIS SON, CHARLES, BEING CASHIER.

ANSON WHEATON'S DAUGHTER SARAH, WHOSE ANCESTORS FOR SEVERAL GENERATIONS WERE NATIVES OF MASSACHUSETTS. THE WHEATONS WERE A PROMINENT FAMILY, AND WERE AMONG THE PIONEERS OF HOLMES COUNTY. THEY HAVE BEEN PATRIOTS FROM AN EARLY DAY, THE GREAT-GRANDFATHER, GRANDFATHER, AND FATHER OF MRS. SARAH MAYERS HAVING BEEN SOLDIERS IN THE WARS OF REBELLION, OF 1812, AND OF THE REBELLION, RESPECTIVELY.

SARAH WHEATON WAS THE FIRST WHITE GIRL BABY BORN IN HARDY TWP. HOLMES CO., OH. SHE WAS BORN IN A TWO STORY LOG HOUSE ON THE GROUNDS NEAR THE H.E. MAST GREENHOUSE OF TODAY.

Ralph Uhl Wheaton

October 9, 1894 - May 20, 1996

Today we remember and celebrate the life of a man who was highly respected in our community. Ralph was a lifetime member of the Lutheran Church in Millersburg, having been presented for baptism by his parents, William and Elizabeth Wheaton, when he was six years old.

On May 18, 1921, in Killbuck, Ohio, Ralph was married to Glaydis Corinne Smith. On the first anniversary of their marriage, the Wheatons welcomed the arrival of their son, Harold Smith Wheaton, at their rural home near Millersburg.

Ralph graduated from Millersburg High School in 1913. With the advent of World War I, he enlisted in the U.S. Army, serving with a medical unity in France and Italy. As a veteran of that war, Ralph has been recognized as a 77 year member of the American Legion, Post #192. His son, Harold, having served in the Pacific theater in World War II, is now an officer of the same post. Both father and son also belong to the Masonic Spartan Lodge #126, which has noted Ralph's 62 years of continuous membership.

In 1920 Ralph became affiliated with the postal service as a letter carrier, retiring in 1954. In his lengthy retirement, he has been happy to enjoy relatively good health. Since the death of his wife in 1980, Ralph has been able to maintain his own home and enjoy a close relationship with his son, Harold.

DAILY RECORD

THE OLD LOUIS MAYERS HOMESTEAD, MILLERSBURG

LOUIS MAYERS was born in the City of Worms, Germany, on Dec. 11, 1811. He came to this country in 1826, and settled at Millersburg. He began his business career in a very small way, by engaging in a general grocery store, and shortly afterwards growing into the dry goods, hardware, boots and shoes, queensware, and such goods as are usually kept in a country store. From the beginning Louis

REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND FAMILIES

Mayers was a successful merchant, and his place of business became known all over the country. He was especially noted for his honest and upright methods of dealing. This, coupled with energy and strict attention to business, soon brought him to the front of the business men of this section of Ohio. About the year 1850 he removed his place of business to the location now occupied by Mayers Brothers. About the year 1875 he retired from the dry goods business and, with several friends, organized "The Exchange Bank." He was made president of this company, and continued in this office until the time of his death.

Shortly after he came to Millersburg, Mr. Mayers was united in marriage with Sarah, eldest daughter of Anson Melvin and Rebecca Wheaton. Within a year after their marriage they removed to the corner of Washington and Jackson Sts., the present residence of Mr. S. E. Mayers. Here they resided the rest of their lives, and here was born and reared their entire family; seven sons and four daughters blessed their union, of whom nine are still living. Beginning with the oldest, the family is as follows: Rachael Rebecca Cameron, Anson Melvin, Mary Louise, Samuel E., Horace Cushing, Mary Louise Loos, William Jacob, Lucy Eva Burns, Charles Russel, Albert Wheaton, and Bessie Anna Buehl, all of whom are still living with the exception of Anson Melvin and Albert Wheaton. Albert W. was, at the time of his death, a successful attorney at Cleveland, O. Samuel E. and William J. are members of the Mayers Bros. Co., Millersburg's leading dry goods merchants.

Hi Lucy, This evening I printed a report for you and will put it in the mail tomarrow. As I said, until I ran this report, my main interest is those lines that I have a connection to. I found that in addition to Charles Miller Wheaton, I have his sister Sarah. Sarah's daughter Rachel Rebecca Mayers married Robert Matthews Cameron. Robert is another of my collateral lines.

Should be there Monday or so.

See where I have blanks in these two lines.

Subject: Wheaton connection?

I've just discovered a Wheaton connection in my family tree. I noticed that you had a Sarah Hall Wheaton b. Aug 31, 1823 in Millersburg, OH. Wondering if your Sarah might be connected to mine -- Sarah Wheaton who was supposed to have been born in Vermont, married Louis Mayers and lived in Millersburg where they had a dry goods store from at least 1850-80s. He died in 1881 and she in 1891. They had a son in 1859 named Charles R. who was my grandfather. Thanks.

Lucy,

Wow, what a fantastic connection!! Thanks so much for all of that great info. We only had about 15% of that. I can't believe the number of siblings my great grandfather had. We had no idea. There have to be more descendants floating around out there? Have you tracked them?

Also, we weren't sure whether our grandfather, Lewis, had had a first wife. I guess that's her. He did have a second, our grandmother who was an Adams from Boston
-- a distant cousin of the president Adams bunch. We can't figure how they might have met being from Ohio and Mass. Any ideas? That side goes back to New England, too, to 1638 and guess where they were from? Somersetshire in England! I visited there this summer to the ancestral town, Barton St. David. Any idea what town the Wheaton ancestors were from?

I don't have your past postings in front of me -- I'm at the office -- but hadn't Sarah Wheaton married someone else before? One more question...does the word "twp" stand for something? Thanks again cousin!

Dan

Dear Lucy,

Enclosed are some materials I've gathered on several of the Mayers clan that I thought you might be interested in. They are the following:

1. A cartoon of my grandfather, Charles R., from a book on prominent "club" men in Columbus (c. 1914).

2. One of his newspaper death notices that included a photo.

3. A photo, that was among my father's things and that we believe to be the Mayers house in Columbus at 1354 E. Broad. It was torn down sometime after to make way for the synagogue that is now on the sight.

4. A photo of the nine-story office building in which Charles R.s bank was the first floor tenant at 33 N. High St. in Columbus. Amazingly, the building is still there looking much the same today as it did then.

5. My grandfather's death cert.

6. His cemetery site plot map. He's buried next to his first wife Libba Taylor Mayers, who was also from Millersburg, but there are no other family members buried there. For the life of me, I can't figure why they weren't both buried back in Millersburg where they had such strong family connections and, at least on the Mayers side, such an expansive cemetery plot. Nor do I understand why my grandmother, his second wife, would have buried him next to his first wife.

7. You've probably got copies of these, but here are Louis' and Sarah's death notices from the Millersburg paper.

8. Here's an advertisement for Louis' store from 1867. Every issue of the paper we could find seemed to have ads for the store (first as Louis', later as Mayers Bros. and then as W.J. Mayers). He was quite the copy writer, too!

9. The last is a copy of the four pages of family history from my grandmother's (Alice Adams Mayers) family. I've researched both the Adams and Tenney families back to immigration in the 1630s and before in England. Of course, I've now got all of the Wheaton info. — including, it seems, a witch burned at the stake and some royalty going back to William the Conqueror. Really, the only ancestral piece that's missing is on Louis Mayers' side back in Germany. Any ideas?

Hope you enjoy these. Thanks again for all of the wonderful information. Take care.

DEATHS.

DEPARTED.—LOUIS MAYERS, after an illness of several months, departed this life at his residence in Millersburg, August 1st, 1883, in the 72d year of his age.

Deceased leaves behind him a beloved wife, seven sons and four daughters to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father. Deceased was born in Darmstadt, Germany, in 1811. He came to the United States in 1837, landing at the city of New Orleans on the 25th of December. In the following spring he came to Holmes county for the purpose of making Millersburg his permanent home. He immediately commenced the sale of goods, which business he continued until a few years ago when he gave the store over to his sons and commenced the business of banking. Taking with him one of his sons in the banking business he continued that business until a few months before his death. As a merchant and business man he was the most successful of any ever living in Millersburg. Coming here 45 years ago comparatively poor, by strict attention to business, economy and honorable dealing he accumulated a fortune which he leaves to his widow and children. ⁂

DIED—At Millersburg, August 2d, 1883, Eva, daughter of Capt. J. C. and N. J. McNulty, aged 16 years and 4 months.

Our beautiful is taken from us—one of the bright flowers that blossomed in the wreath of our heart's joys hath dropped its fragile leaves. At death's cold touch the sweet young voice is hushed, the bright eyes closed beneath the coffin lid, and our heart fainteth wearily beneath it's weight of loneliness. We'll miss her, O, we'll miss her when radiant morning comes with its songs of merry birds. We'll sit and think how her light footsteps o'er the floor made our hearts leap; and how our Eva's voice, like the low laughter of the forest brooks, was richer music than the sound of stringed instruments. She was to us almost an idol, and we had stored away in our soul's treasure-house such hopes of time that when the Master called her we did start with wild surprise to find she was not ours but Gods'.

She hath joined the angels, and we will rejoice that the glad warbling voice that thrilled our breast is singing with the cherubins in

Death of Mrs. Sarah Mayers.

At her residence on South Washington street, Millersburg, O., Saturday, Dec. 26th, 1891, Mrs. Sarah Mayers, wife of Louis Mayers, deceased, departed this life, aged 69 years, 2 months and 20 days.

Deceased was a daughter of Anson and Rebecca Wheaton and was born in Millersburg (old town) October 6, 1822. She was the first female child born in the town and was at the time of her death the oldest resident of Millersburg. She was joined in marriage with Louis Mayers, September 26th, 1841, and eleven children—seven sons and four daughters, were born to them, all of whom are living and comfortably situated. Death has separated them from a dear and loving mother, and their loss will be irreparable, but it will be her eternal gain. She was not only the oldest inhabitant of Millersburg but occupied the same house longer than any woman in the place. Soon after marriage she moved into the house in which she died, which has been remodeled from time to time, extending over a period of fifty years. In 1838 she was immersed by Elder Lucy and became a member of the Christian Church since which time she has been a shining star in the christian constellation.

Lucy,

Glad you received the packet of info. Yes, Charles was my grandfather. He had three children by his second wife, Alice, two girls and a son, Charles, Jr., was my father. My father was born in 1911. Gfather died in 1918 when he was only 7 years old. Urania married Thomas H. Sheldon and they lived in Columbus around the time of gfather's death. Apparently, there may have been some wrangling between Urania and my gmother for the family house on E. Broad St. upon my gfather's passing. I have yet to know how that turned out, but I do know that my gmother eventually moved back east to New York/Mass. where she was from. I've started doing a little research on Sheldons in Columbus and, while I haven't come up with anything on Thomas and Urania yet, there seems to have been a prominent family named Sheldon around the turn of the century who's patriarch was an officer in another bank in town. It seems likely that Thomas could be from that family. That family, be the way, is related to Pres. Bush. We'll see. Yet another fascinating genealogical road to go down! The Orsborn Company is a public relations and artist management firm. I've had this firm here in Nashville for the last five years. My wife and I had a similar firm in San Francisco for 20 years. Carol Orsborn, my wife, still works around the agency part time, but most of her efforts nowadays are devoted to her career as an author. She had two books out this fall. If you're interested, you can check her name on amazon.com to see what she writes about.

Several questions for you. In the ancestors overview you sent along, it mentioned Goodie Bassatt who was convicted and executed for witchcraft. Was she our ancestor, or just married to one? Also, it mentions that John Baldwin's wife, Mary Breun, was descended from royal lines and related to William the Conqueror. Is she our ancestor and is there anymore info. on her ancestors, which royal line, etc.? Also, were the Crowfoots Indian? It sure sounds like an Indian name.

By the way, thank you for the fun Thanksgiving card. Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family. Take care.

Dan

Subject: Orsborn/Mayers?

Lucy,

My father had been separated from his wife and family for sometime when he met my mother, who was divorced. They had a relationship for several years during which time I was conceived. I was adopted at birth by a doctor and his wife in Calif., and didn't really start looking into my birth family until my son was born 20 years ago. I had no idea who my birth parents were, if I had siblings, etc. It took me ten years to find my birth mother who lived here in Nashville. It was a fantastic reunion! She was 78 at the time -- I was 41 -- and she had never told a soul about me (she died earlier this year at 88). She had two children, my older half brother and sister who both had grown children with families. Several months later, I found out the identity of my birth father, Charles Mayers, who, unfortunately, had passed away ten years earlier. He did however have a daughter (Sue) and a son (Charles R. III) who survived him, who also knew nothing about me. Needless to say, it was a big surprise for everyone! But they've all been wonderfully welcoming to their younger brother. My sister Sue (Mayers) Stein and I are particularly close though she's ten years older than I. She was the one that shared family stories about our grandparents and the family legend that we were related to pres. Adams somehow though no one had ever checked it out.

Well, you can imagine that after ten years of searching for my birth family, I was a pretty finally tuned machine when it came to searching. Plus I love tackling a mystery. So, I started in on it and, a year and a half ago, I found the connection to Adams (my grandmother Alice Adams Mayers was descended from the brother of John Adams' gggfather) and traced our ancestors back to England in the 1400s. Since then, I've had numerous breakthroughs including the latest through you, Bette and others in Ohio. Once you get started, it's hard to stop because it seems like there is always another line to follow. And, of course, it is so much fun! So far, I've got five lines traced back to American emigration to New England in the 1630s and before. Your Wheaton line is the earliest yet! Well that's about it. It's been quite an adventure.

Take care. Dan

In Coshocton County, Ohio, there is a record of the marriage of Sarah Wheaton and John Hum on January 16, 1823. In Jonathan Wheaton's will, written in September 1828, he refers to his daughter as Sarah Hustead.

There is nothing in the marriage record to identify this Sarah Wheaton as the daughter of Jonathan and Penelope Wheaton. The Coshocton County marriage records include the marriage of her brother William, sister Almira, and possibly that of her older brother David.

On 15 May 1826 Sarah Hum filed for divorce from John Hum on the grounds of " wilful absence for 3 Years." On 26 Nov. 1826 Sarah Hum married Bartholomew Husted (Holmes Co. Marr. Record) (This was discovered by Chet Dart, Wheaton Descendant.

They were divorced 5 May 1826 Holmes Co., OH. due to John's 3 yr. absence. On 26 Nov. 1826 in Holmes Co., OH. Sarah remarried to Bartholomew Husted(previous wife that he married 31 Aug. 1820 Coshocton Co., OH. was Ruee B abcock) The Russell Wheaton (administrator) was her nephew, son of her brother Anson Wheaton. I had in my notes that Sarah also had a dtr. so that must be the Hulda Husted, you mentioned. Thanks again. Lucy north@defnet.com

Bernard Patton was born July 11, 1931 in Henry County, Ohio. He married Nancy Murphy of Colton, Ohio. Nancy was killed in a car accident. Bernard then married Evelyn Ludeman of Napoleon, Ohio. Evelyn had two children, Delbert and Dawn Ludeman from her first marriage. Bernard and Evelyn live in Napoleon, Ohio.

James and Lura Stocker moved to Henry County in the spring of 1914. They bought a ten acre farm on township road D in the northeast corner of Henry County in 1920. All their children were married and gone, and only Ollie and Bertha remained in Henry County.

Grandfather painted his house and barn a bright red. He always spoke of it as his "Little Red Onion". He raised fru[illegible]d vegetables to sell, and with a cow, and some chickens, made a fair living. They always had lots of onions and melons to sell. It was on this farm that James and Lura spent their last twenty-six years.

The little red house would about burst at the seams when all the children and grandchildren came home. As a child, I can remember Grandfather saying, "He was happy to see us all come, but a darn sight happier to see us go".

Since I am a grandmother myself, I can understand what Grandfather was talking about. But the next time the family returned to Grandfather's house, they were just as happy as always to see the whole family. There were lots of family dinners, and they never missed a holiday.

There are lots of good memories when I look back today. Submitted By: Mary Ellen Thrane

HENRY

HEINRICH STOCKMANN FAMILY

Heinrich E. Stockmann was born on August 10, 1836 in Vethem, Germany, and came to Henry County, Ohio, when he was eight years old, with his father, stepmother, three half brothers and a half sister. The family came in 1844, and located on a farm west of Napoleon, Ohio.

Heinrich, at the age of fourteen years, worked on the Wabash and Erie Canal, walking a tow path and driving a team of mules that towed a boat in the canal. The boats hauled agricultural products, freight and passengers. There must have been colorful stories of hunting, trapping and wilderness adventures to excite the imagination of a fourteen year old boy. During the Civil War, Heinrich worked for an uncle, Henry Ehlfers, on Kelley's Island, in Lake Erie, in a grape orchard.

Heinrich purchased forty acres of land on the Defiance-Henry County Line Road a few miles north of Okolona, Ohio, on March 23, 1857, and paid $440 for the land. In 1865, he bought an adjoining forty acres with buildings.

On June 2, 1865, Heinrich and Sophia Louise Helberg were married. Sophia was born on October 8, 1847 in Westenbolz, Hanover, Germany. She came to America with her parents in 1857 when she was ten years old.

In 1884, Heinrich built a frame house. He became a member of the Henry County Infirmary Board, and took on other civic responsibilities.

Heinrich began a plan to set up his four sons in farming. He would buy eighty acres of land, deed forty acres to the son, and kept title to the other forty acres for a time and collected $1 per year rent for each acre of the forty acres. This farm plan was activated with Frederich Stockmann. Frederich, born 1866, died 1930, settled in Marion Township in 1893 after his marriage to Marie Rohrs. Marie was born in Nordcampton, Germany in 1870 and died on February 9, 1954.

Frederick and Marie lived in a primitive house at first but soon built a frame house. In 1912, they built a large brick house, One child, Henry, was stillborn in 1895. William was born prematurely in 1895 and lived four hours. Their daughter, Emma, was born in 1899 and died in 1949, and married Ernest Rohrs, and was killed in an automobile accident near her home. Emma was survived by her husband and daughter, Laura Crampton of Monroe Township.

A fourth child, Clara, was born November 1, 1902, and married Fred Bockelman. Fred died in 1930. Clara Stockmann Bockelman married William Schwiebert in 1934. William died in 1973. Clara still lives on the home place. They have a son, John, who married Darlene Kruse. Darlene is deceased, and John lives near his mother with his three young sons, Ronald, Michael and Timothy.

The only son of Frederich Stockmann, Sr. was Frederich, Jr. who was born in 1907 and died in 1970. He worked for the Pepsi-Cola Company

Hi, Loretta,
Saw your entries on USGenWeb re: Mercer, Wood Co., OH. I was interested because of the Mary Ellen Robinson who married Pierce Mercer in 1864. Mary Ellen was the dtr. of Nancy Wheaton and Wm. Jordan Robinson. Although you are researching Mercers, do you have anything on the Nancy Wheaton, mother of Mary Ellen? Alos would like to know if you have anything on Pierce & Mary Ellen's chn: I have listed Burly W. b. ca. 1865, James F. b. 20 Apr. 1867, d. 1896; Nancy E. b. ca. 1870, Charlotte S. b. 1872, Stella A. b. ca. 1879. I would like to complete this line of descendants if possible. The reason I am so interested in the mother of Mary Ellen is : I am trying to place her as the dtr. of William Wheaton, b. 24 Sept. 1821. would appreciate hearing from you. Hi Lucy Reading your information has just added another generation to my information. It is great. Thank you very much for your posting.

Nancy WHEATON ROBINSON, the first child of William and Sarah WHEATON, is my direct ancestor. She married William Jordan ROBINSON as you know because I read your ROBINSON post. She died on 28 Oct 1872 and is burried in Portage, Wood county, Ohio. I have been to hers and William's gravesite. Nancy and William had 14 children. My line is from child #5, Eliza Jane "Jennie" ROBINSON BABCOCK BIGELOW KIRKHAM WILLIAMS; I understand she was quite a character.

William Jordan ROBINSON's father, William ROBINSON had an interesting beginning. In a nut shell he is illegtimate and his mother Martha ROBINSON FORD concocted a story to save face with the Quarkers. The Rev. Norman Adelbert BOWEN wrote a nice piece on the research he did to figure this out.

Where did you find the link to William's father being Jonathan WHEATON? I had made a LOF (leap of faith) that Nancy belonged to this family. I wasn't finding any WHEATON information in Seneca county, Ohio so I was going to start branching out to the surrounding counties. You saved me the trouble of doing that. Now I can go directly to Holmes county and Defiance county. I found it great that you have Sarah's maiden name; where did you find it? How long have you been researching this line?

I found it hilarious the naming that happened to Salinda SALSBERRY, the female that married

HENRY GEORGE BABCOCK
B 20 JUNE 1876
LIBERTY TWP.
WOOD CO OH
FA - AMOS BABCOCK
MO - ELIZA JANE ROBINSON
FHL 422269 1876-1885

Jonathan L. WHEATON, and her siblings. Do you know about it? All of her sibling's first names start with an S or S sound: Sibylina, Salinda, Salathiel, Cinderella, Stanilaus, Serenos, Sabina, Serena, Samaritan, and Salva. This made me wonder what was going through the heads of the parents Jonathan SALSBERRY and Catherine PLOTT.

I would be happy to correspond with you. JG

PS Yes, William Jordan ROBINSON came from Huron county, Ohio. His parents are buried in Fitchville township, Huron county, Ohio

Subject: Nancy WHEATON ROBINSON

Hi Lucy November 29, 1998

Did you have a nice Thanksgiving? The traffic on our trip down to Eugene extended the travel time by half an hour. I ate lots of food and drank lots of egg nog. The rain stayed away for the most part. We woke up to the first frost of the season Saturday morning. Leo, our cat, seems to have survived this his first trip since he moved in with us three years ago.

My mother's grandmother on her father's side, Sarah Louisa BABCOCK RHODES, wrote down some information which is how I came to know Nancy ROBINSON's maiden name was WHEATON. Sarah wrote in part:
"My Grandmother Nancy Wheaton Robinson
Jonthan (sic.) & Celinda (sic.) Wheaton my great aunt & uncle ...."

At another time Sarah wrote down her grandparents name but she has a different first name for her mother's mother. She wrote:
"... my great grandfather was Dr. Wm Robinson grandfather Wm Robinson grandmother Mary Wheaton Robinson great grandfather on grandmother's side was Wheaton my father's name was Amos Babcock
my mother's name was Eliza Jane Robinson Babcock
& born in state of Ohio at Portage, Wood Co. ..."

With this information I started checking censuses and the county mug books for Wood county Ohio. I located a biographical sketch of William ROBINSON the son of Nancy and William in "Commemorative Historical And Biographical Record Of Wood County, Ohio: Its Past And Present, ..." Chicago: J. H. Beers & Co., 1897. It said here "... William Jordan Robinson, also a native of Huron county, where he grew to manhood and married Miss Nancy Wheaton." I didn't locate my ROBINSON family or any WHEATONs in the 1850 Wood county census. I did find the ROBINSONs in the 1860 census. William and Nancy with nine children were located in Liberty township of Wood county. I also located a Jonathan WHEATON and a Sylvester WHEATON both located in Milton township. I knew that Jonathan was Nancy's brother, going by what Sarah had written down, and I suspected that Sylvester probably was a brother also due to families tending to live close to one another at that time period. In the 1870 census I located just Nancy and seven children in Portage township. Jonathan and Sylvester are still living in this same county. Jonathan in Liberty township and Sylvester still in Milton township. Three of Nancy's sons and a daughter are living near by to Jonathan; at least the three sons are on the same census page as Jonathan and the daughter is on the page before. The enumerator put the boys' last name as ROBERTSON. This daughter is Mary and she is Pierce MERCER's second wife. The census of 1880 has the ROBINSON offsprings married and with families of their own. Nancy wasn't listed at all; later I found out she was dead by this census. Sylvester is still listed in Milton township. I don't recall what possessed me to look in Paulding county for Jonathan in 1880 but that is where I located him and two houses over was his nephew's wife and four kids and her new husband. Nelson J. ROBINSON had died on March 19, 1877 at the age of 28 yeard, 6 months and 21 days and Susan DUCAT ROBINSON had married Frank WINDSOR.

I was bound and determine to locate Jonathan WHEATON in the 1850 census. Since I wasn't locating him in Wood county I wondered what else I could do. Then I remembered this Sylvester guy and looked him up in the indexes and there he was in Seneca county. Once I looked at the census page, I saw that right next door was probably his father, William, and with William's family is a Jonathan that fits my Jonathan. So I made a LOF (leap of faith) that William is the father of Jonathan, Nancy, and Sylvester. Also Reed township, Seneca county where the WHEATONs were enumerated is just west of Norwich township, Huron county. In the 1850 census, Nancy and William ROBINSON are enumerated in Norwich township, Huron county. I was pleased with what I had found but realized that I wanted at least two more sources that confirmed this LOF.

I looked through my papers and I didn't see where I have Nancy WHEATON ROBINSON's birth date like I thought. On the cemetery information I have on her it says she died Oct 28, 1872 and also inscribed on her gravestone is "aged 51y, 6m, 2d." Subtracting her age from her death date I get April 26, 1821 as her birth date. Her estate papers didn't reveal any other dates.

Have you figured out why the last name changed from WHEADON to WHEATON while Jonathan, William Anson's father, was in the Revolutionary War? What piece of detective work did you look at to know that the spelling of the last name had changed?

Jeanette

Lucy Weaver--My mother brought me your letter of November 5th on Thanksgiving Day. Your ancestors woke me up at 5:00 am Sunday morning insisting I look into my records. Mom doesn't have a scanner on her computer but does have a fax, if you can give her a number. There are 19 pages of stuff concerning that line; including some on James Orrick Robinson, who is probably related. The Family Group Sheets do not have notes on them but all of the info came from Census, Birth or Death or Marriage rocrds in Wood Co. (some probably in Lucas Co.). This was the first research I ever did. William J. Robinson and Nancy Wheaton are not direct descendents of mine(I didn't know that at the time) but there are a lot of common names running through both families--Nelson, William, Orric, etc. My third great-grandfather was Nelson Robinson b.1804 Vermont, son of Orrick Robinson. Family tradition says they came from Wales. No proof but Orrick is a name appearing in Welsh records. I've thought your William could be a younger brother or a cousin to my Nelson. Have not taken the time to search a connection. If you don't have a fax, let me know and send me your snail mail address and I'll send the family group sheets to you that way.

Lucy, the following is an e-mail I received from Dave Curliss. I had the information "stored" in word perfect. I don't remember now what I asked of him but you can get the jist of it from his response. I also don't recall where I "stumbled" across his information in the first place. Please note the date being over a year ago. I don't know if I ever sent him anything. I'm sending you this information because it is just a little bit more to round out the relatives. Besides you my want to write to him and get more information. JG
PS Crockett is my husband's last name. At that time we only had one account with our sever -- Teleport.

As for anything that you have regarding William

Jordan Robinson and Nancy Wheaton, it would be appreciated. My vitals for both are weak. I have no pedigree data for Nancy at all, and only the parents (William & Letitia) for William Jordan. This is a line that has been waiting for my attention for some time, but I have yet to give it the time it needs. In turn, if there is anything else that I can provide you, please do not hesitate to ask. Thank you for responding to my query and best of luck in your searches.

Subject: Nancy WHEATON ROBINSON's family

Wow Lucy, you're great. Thank you very very much for the information. Yes I am interested in the ancestors of Nancy. My "snail mail" address is: 2214 NE 51st Avenue, Portland, OR 97213-2508. Do you have access to the book COMMEMORATIVE HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF WOOD COUNTY, OHIO; ITS PAST AND PRESENT. Published in Chicago, by J. H. Beers & co., in 1897?

Will you please tell me if my interpretation about Anne SMALL HARVEY is correct? In parenthesis you wrote "(A servant girl who was married illegally to Sir Francis Harvey, a Frenchman. They did not receive permission to marry.)" Does this mean that Anne was illegally married to Sir Francis HARVEY? What sort of permission was needed back then? Did Anne marry Sir Francis in France? Did Thomas WHEADON elope with her? And you found all this information in the book "Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England", on page 496?

I saw one of your queries asking about Anne's maiden name and last name. What did you find that caused you to conclude her name was Anne SMALL HARVEY? That her maiden name was SMALL?

Below is the information I have so far on Nancy WHEATON ROBINSONs immediate family. Do you want any information on William Jordan ROBINSON's parents and siblings? He is from a family of 11 children.

Sarah Louise BABCOCK RHODES had written down a list of her mother's brothers and sisters and their children. Sarah wrote "Aunt Teania Robinson McCrory has one child, Kenneth." Sarah didn't list a husband for Teania. I suspect this Teania is Sarah but I need more information to prove it. Two of Nancy WHEATON ROBINSON's daughters married McCRORYs -- Sarah and Ella. It could be Teania is Sarah Louise BABCOCK RHODES' cousin because she listed a James ROBINSON as an uncle and I haven't found any information to bear this out. Several of Nancy WHEATON ROBINSON's sons had sons named James so I think that is who it could be. I think with all those cousins running around and if some are quite older it would seem like an uncle. I've observed in my Auntie Molly's family, my Mom's sister, that they called Mom and Molly's cousin and the cousin's husband Aunt and Uncle. In my family we never called them Aunt and Uncle because they weren't. One of my coworkers is called Auntie by her cousin's children. Soooo I rest my case.

April 6, 1997

Dear Vonadean,

Your letter was received by the church and forwarded to me since I am the clerk of the Baptist denomination. I have located some information from our church records and also other help from Mrs. Charles (Chloe) Genson, the grand daughter of Minerva Cole who was a sister to Mrs. James Orick Robinson who was Missouria Cole.

Betsy McNutt was a member of the church in January 23, 1868 and released from membership in April 4, 1874. But I have not found any death record. I will continue to search the county records for her record of death.

The following are Robinsons recorded in our records along with dates of baptism and any death record.

Robinson,	Owen	Baptized	Jan. 16, 1864
"	Mathilda	"	Jan. 16, 1864
"	Roxanna	"	Jan. 23, 1864
"	William	"	Jan. 23, 1864
"	Nelson	"	Jan. 9, 1864
"	Alden	"	Jan. 16, 1864
"	John	"	April 13, 1868
"	Mary	"	May 31, 1894
"	Mrs. Orick	exp.	May 2, 1886
"	Orick	exp.	May 2, 1886	Died	May 11, 1909
"	Ed	"	June 1899	Died	July 21, 1928
"	Belle	"	April 3, 1898
"	D.D.	letter	Feb. 2, 1928

Within our congregation is John Robinson, son of Gerald Robinson, grandson of Ross Robinson. John indicated that he is a descendent of Orick Robinson.

I hope this information is helpful, as indicated I will attempt to find more information about the McNutt family.

Sincerely,

W.H. Garrett

William H. Garrett, clerk

Dear Jeanette,

Enclosed are : Ancestor Chart for Nancy Wheaton Robinson(14 pages), a copy of the old document containing birth dates, etc. It was written June 8, 1890, shortly before Sarah Hall Wheaton, mother of Nancy died. I believe she asked someone to write those dates down for her, before she died. I believe I mentioned that after my great aunt Nettie died, her nephew took me to his storage room to look at her pile of books. While I was looking, one of the books fell to the floor and this yellowed paper fell out with the names of Wm. and Sarah Hall Wheaton's children on it. Talk about serendipity..I had goosebumps for days! I mean there were many, many books in that pile & to have this particular one drop out and offer this data!! Also made a copy of Wm. and Sarah Hall Wheaton's marriage license for you.

Do you have any photos of the Wheaton-Robinsons? I have a Wheaton Family Bible with tintypes in the back and of course they are all unmarked. I also have a photo of Anson Wheaton, brother to Nancy. He really was her "baby brother" since there are almost 25 yrs. age difference. My grandfather Wheaton had one droopy eyelid, so did Anson..and I believe one of the men in the tintypes also has..must be a Wheaton characteristic. Am still posting data. Will try to send you copies of other items as I think of them.

Where do you work? You mentioned having to work late, etc. I retired after working at the same place for 36 years. I am a registered nurse, and started out as a Public Health Nurse, then Supervisor, Director of Nurses..then went back to college and obtained a B.S.N. and then went back and obtained a master of science and education degree in Public Health and then was appointed Defiance Co. Health Commissioner in 1976. I loved my job, but my husband(who is eight yrs.older) had retired 3 yrs. earlier, so I thought I should be able to spend sometime with him. Everything happened to me at once..my mother died in Nov. 1990, I retired Dec. 31, 1990..and then had cancer surgery in April 1991(luckily I had radiation & am now a 7 yrs. survivor. My hubby wasn't so lucky, he was diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease in Feb. 1993...but is still ambulating. I still volunteer as a nurse for Hospice locally and find myself so busy at times that I wonder about people who say they don't know what they would do if they retired!

Enough yakking for tonight. Will get this into the mail as soon as possible. Hope you enjoy reading about Ann Small Harvey Wheadon. Thomas also show up in court several times, but I haven't typed all that onto his record yet. (My Mom, bless her heart, didn't like to read that about Ann Small, but I told her it made for interesting reading..and we really don't know her side of the story, do we...)

Let me know your comments on the data.

My best regards,

Lucy Weaver

Your just tops Lucy. Thank you very much. The packet arrived today. I took a quick read through it, most interesting. I want to touch upon your husband but I don't know what to say. I have a bunch of questions so I will ask them. Is he cheerful? Is he angry about what has happened to him? How are you getting along with his disease? Reading about Ann Small caused me to think that some things never change no matter what era one is talking about. You sure have accumulated a lot of information. Impressed the socks off of me. I can hardly wait to enter the info into my data base. I will probably be doing that instead of decorating the Christmas Tree. The only Wheaton picture I have is one of Nancy Wheaton's daughter, Eliza Jane Robinson. I haven't noticed any drooping eye lids in her pictures nor have I noticed any in my family.

Take care of yourself and I will "yak" with you later. Jeanette

Enclosed is my check to coover copies(1.20), postage (1.01) plus cost of manilla envelope..for a total of $2.75. Am in the process of posting the additional data. Dear Lucy,
Thank you for the offer to help me with the Wheaton family. It has been so long since I have been the one who is receiving information and not sending it, that I had to read the Email again. Thanks so much!

It is true that I start and end with Nancy on the Wheaton line. The only vitals or notes that I have on her is that she married Williamn Robinson (date unknown to me) and that she was probably born in Ohio about 1822. So obviously, your help with this family of ours would be a delightfull holiday gift for me.

Should you need a regular mailing address instead of Email, it is: Dave Curliss, 1227 Pawnee Trail, Carrollton, TX 75007-6212. Thanks again, and if there is anything that I can help you with in return, please dont hesitate to ask.

Happy holidays,

Lucy,
Dave sent me Curlis and Robinson information. The Wheaton information stopped at Nancy. I haven't learned yet to include a "snail mail" address when I correspond through the internet. Perhaps if I play with the internet enough I'll learn how to use it.

Happy New Year to you Lucy and to your husband. My mother-in-law called this afternoon from Warren county, Ohio; she said she can finally get to her mail box after three days. How much snow do you have. Here in Portland we are having just plain old rain.

I've been working at getting web pages set up for my genealogy. It's been taking a lot of my time. I figure I have 50 family group sheets to do still. And then to get all the information into the index. This evening I hit William and Sarah WHEATON. I'll include the draft here for you to get a look at it. I think it will be a couple of weeks before my information is actually on the Internet. When I did William and Nancy ROBINSON's page I see I left some information out on the stuff I sent you back in early December. Eliza Jane "Jennie" ROBINSON's birth date is 18 Nov 1851. Henry W. ROBINSON was born about 1858. Emma ROBINSON was born about 1862 and Allen CURTISS should have read Allen CURLIS. On my web page I decided not to do anything about Teania ROBINSON; she's the one I think is Sarah. I think if I look for her in the census I may get my answers.

Did you ever hear back from Joyce Faver? By the way Lucy, how much do I owe you for taking the copies and mailing them to me. You sent a lot of pages which must add up and since you are retired I hope your money isn't tight. I sure appreciate the information; thank you again for sending it to me.

Now for the draft of the William Anson WHEATON's and Sarah HALL's web page.

Charlie Weber leads Noble Township Fire Department

Firefighting in Weber's blood

By ANGELA WESTRICK
Lifestyle Editor

Profile

Charlie Weber says, "You can't force someone to be a fireman, he has to have it in his blood."

Weber does.

He joined the Noble Township Fire Department as a volunteer firefighter in 1974, a year after it was organized, and continues to dedicate his nights and weekends as a volunteer firefighter going on 27 years. He is currently the fire chief.

His father, Albert, and one brother, Bob, are active firefighters on the department, and two brothers, Jeff and Tim, are former firefighters.

"Some people get the idea that it's a bunch of glory," says Weber, "but for every hour of being out on an emergency, there is 99 percent work behind it. So when a call does come in, everything is functional and ready to go."

Noble Township Fire Department currently has 18 volunteers whose ages range from 19-70. Weber is 51.

To become a volunteer firefighter, there is an application procedure and review. Volunteer firefighters in townships are appointed by township trustees. Like Weber, they give of their time and effort in the absence of a monetary reward. A fire chief and assistant fire chief receive a nominal salary.

There is a required 36-hour, state-mandated basic firefighting course and continuous training through numerous opportunities, including in-house, local, regional and state courses. Weber and his fellow firefighters conduct in-house training two nights a month.

Volunteer firefighters are on call 24 hours a day. In addition to taking fire calls and responding to emergencies, they participate in specialized training on the weekends and come in for unscheduled work activities at the fire station.

For the past 19 years, Weber has been the assistant purchasing agent for Campbell Soup Supply Co., Napoleon. Over his 28-year career with Campbell, he has worked in a variety of positions, including quality assurance and the agriculture department.

He is a 1969 alumnus of Tinora High School and holds a bachelor's degree in agriculture from Ohio State University, Columbus.

After graduation from college in 1973, he returned to Defiance to find employment and shortly thereafter married his high school sweetheart, Beth Lymanstall. She works part-time as a dental hygienist for Bryan Dental Group and is a homemaker. The Webers have two children: David, 20, a sophomore at Ohio Northern University, Ada; and Jill, 15, a sophomore at Tinora High School.

Weber is a man of average proportions with a handsome, slightly angular face and steel blue eyes. He describes himself as quiet, constructive, "laid back" generally and "bossy" at times.

Of the many simple pleasures there are to enjoy in life, good food and good weather top his list. He considers digging in the garden and doing yard work his way of taking time to smell the roses.

He is involved with three of his brothers in operating the family farm that once belonged to their grandparents.

At work he is responsible for supplying fresh and frozen vegetables to the plant operation. He works directly with farmers from around the tri-state area, helping them to plan ahead for what is needed and scheduling the harvest.

Weber was born Oct. 4, 1951, in Defiance.

His father, Albert, farmed for a living and participated in local politics. He served as a township trustee for a number of years and was elected a county commissioner for two terms. His mother, Marnie, was a housewife raising 12 children — Weber, his seven brothers and four sisters.

Living on a farm and being the oldest, he says, "There were always jobs to do and that instilled a good work ethic in me." He also made the most of what farm life had to offer, spending the majority of his youth outdoors, camping, fishing and swimming.

Weber says he saw his father, not as a politician, but as a man "working in government to benefit the local community." That created in Weber the "desire to do what is correct, be helpful and be a participant," he says.

Like most everything else about Weber, his philosophy is a conventional one: "Keep busy."

Tinora hoping to come up big

By KIRK JONES
Sports Writer

The 2001-2002 edition of the Tinora Ram boys' basketball team already has one thing going for them.

Size.

The Rams feature one of the biggest teams in the Defiance six-county area with six players taller than 6-2 and three of those towering over 6-6. Senior Jeff Arps and sophomore Eric Weber stand at 6-2, junior Todd Pohlmann checks in at 6-3 while junior Jared Bailey and sophomore Ian Weber are 6-6 and junior Steve Farber stands at 6-8.

"Our size will be a help and a hinderance at times this year," explained Tinora coach Steve Ford. "I'm sure we will see a lot more zone defenses than we have in the past."

Despite having just two seniors on the roster in Jonathon Aschemeier (5-8, guard, 1.4 ppg.) and Jeff Arps (6-2, guard, 4.2 ppg.), their leadership will be valuable as both players have seen significant playing time in the past and give the Rams vocal leadership that can prove vital for a team's success.

"We will have great leadership from our two seniors," commented Ford. "Their work ethic and desire to succeed are going to be an asset to the younger players."

Offensively, the Rams will ride the inside presence of returning starters Ian Weber and Bailey. Weber showed promising signs of becoming a dominant player last season as a freshman when he was thrown right into the varsity mix. The sophomore averaged 7.3 ppg. while leading the team with 6.9 rpg.

"We have got to remember that Ian is still only a sophomore," noted Ford. "Any pressure that is put on him I think comes from himself but he has the potential to be a dominating force in the post."

Bailey's athletic ability can cause match-up problems in the post for opposing defenders, combining his size with quickness. However, the Ram junior who averaged 7.3 ppg. and 5 rpg. a year ago, will be slowed by a knee injury until mid-December.

Farber, who will be out until mid-season also with a knee injury, will look to replace the depth that was provided by graduated Jeremy Behnfeldt (5.5 ppg., 4 rpg.).

Tinora has many questions that still need to be answered in the backcourt as last year's point guard John Rethmel (3 ppg.) is gone as well as leading scorer Nick Smith (11.8 ppg.), Eric Leonard (5.3 ppg.) and Jay Hornish (8.9 ppg.) from the wing positions.

"We don't have a lot of experience at the guard spots," noted Ford. "We're optimistic heading into the season that we will have some guys step into those spots as we continue to improve."

Junior Scott Bostelman (5-10) and sophomore Kevin McCann (5-10) will look to fill the void that has been left due to graduation.

Despite all the size, Ford points to the play of the bench as a key to this season, especially with the early injury problems the Rams have experienced.

"We will need to overcome the offseason injuries to Bailey and Farber," ended Ford. "Our players that come off the bench do not have varsity playing time so it will be important for them to gain experience in the early going."

Subject: Wheaton Family Tree

Dear Lucy,
What a quick response. Glad to hear back from you so soon.
I am descended from Anson Joel Wheaton, son of Sylvester Wheaton. His daughter Lucy Anjalina Wheaton Sanford. Her daughter Ida Ruth Sanford Hill. I am the daughter of Earl Lloyd Hill and Ida Ruth Sanford Hill. I have four sisters and two brothers.
When my grandmother Lucy Anjalina Sanford died in 1980 she left over 300 descendants. I have been working on the family tree in all directions since 1984. I took over for my mother. When she died in 1991, I wanted to continue with it for her.
Is it true that my Great Grandmother Florence E. Ducat was a full blooded Cherokee Indian? I just had that question brought up to me by one of my cousins who is trying to find out. My Uncle Lawrence Sanford, Mom's brother, told me this. But he will be 88 this October. So I'm not sure if I can believe this or not. Is there any way you would be able to find out for me?
We have a big Sanford Family reunion every year. Would you like an invitation to it? It would be great to talk to you in person.
I hope I can answer some questions for you now.
Anjalina Vail - died on April 8, 1908 - where unknown
Children:
James M. Wheaton - born December 28, 1849 (you show 1850) - died June 7, 1865
William J. Wheaton - born February 9, 1852 - died June 5, 1911
Harriet Maria Wheaton - born September 27, 1856 - died February 22, 1892
Anson Joel Wheaton - born December 12, 1862 - died 1947 in Jackson, Jackson, MI- married December 23, 1884 in Bowling Green, Wood, OH - wife - Florence Evelyn Ducat
Sarah Jane Wheaton - born August 18, 1868 - died August 4, 1885

I'll stop for now. Please e-mail me back when you get this.
Would you like to correspond by e-mail or snail mail? Which would you be more comfortable with?
I have so much more to share with you. I have seven brothers and four sisters listed in Silvester Wheaton's family.
Which brother is your great grandfather?

Hope to hear from you soon. I can't tell you how happy I am to know I have relatives so close. I am looking forward to corresponding with you. I'm attaching a picture of my husband Joe and me. This way you know who your talking to. I can send you lots of information. I am soooo excited about this too.

Subject: Happy Holiday To You Too

We just received a call from our daughter, Christine. I would love to tell you what they're having, but I can't before they call my Dad and Joe's Mother. "Boy" are we excited.

Do you have any information about your grandmother's half brother. The date in the1940s he died in Eaton Rapids and where he is buried. Maybe we can trace a newspaper article from the Michigan Historical Museum here in Lansing. I have access to all of the old newspapers there on microfilm. Would be happy to check for you. Oh yes, I will need his name too.

We have plans for the holiday weekend and will be going to my sister Judy, and her husband Don's house for a cookout on Monday. Just got a e-mail from them with an invite. It sure does save on the long distance calls since we got on the Net.

I've been comparing information that I have against yours. My Grandmother's name is spelled Lucy Anjalina Wheaton Sanford.

Did the Wheaton family spell their name differently years ago? I see you have it spelled Wheadon in some areas.

Mom gave me quite a lot of funeral home visitation cards and newspaper articles that are very old. I will scan a few for you and pass them on to you, if you like.

I am so happy that we found each other.

Happy Holiday,
Talk with you again soon.

Hi Lucy,
Just to let you know, we had a very busy day today. We had our two year old granddaughter, Miranda, here all day. So needless to say, I haven't done anything with the family tree all day. Will get back to you later. Many, Many thanks for all the information you have given me so far. I don't want to overwhelm you with too much stuff all at one time. I know how that can be.
We are only about a hour and a half away. The reunion is at Napoleon, MI. That would be even closer for you. I know you would love our family. They are all down to earth people. I sure hope you can make it. Will get your address to my sister so you will be on the list to receive an invitation.
I should go for now. Our daughter and son-in-law will be calling us soon to tell us if the ultrasound is showing a boy or a girl.
Take care. Talk to you later.

Hi Lucy,
You'll never guess. It's a "Boy"! As if you didn't know already.
Just got an updated e-mail from my sister Judy. The cookout is tomorrow and not Monday. That should be fun with everyone not hurrying home to get ready to go to work the next day. We're retired so it doesn't matter to us.
I didn't think you received my e-mail last night. It doesn't show up in my sent messages for some reason.
I have to go call Chrissy, as I know she doesn't have her computer turned on. With a two year old you don't spend too much time working and on the computer when you get home.
Will try to find something on your family as soon as I can get to it.
Happy Holiday!

Dear Ida,

Enclosed are: Family Tree Chart for you to help figure out the Ancestor Report, also enclosed. Also census data for William and Sarah Hall Wheaton, their marriage record from Holmes Co.,OH., a copy of the certified death record of Sylvester Wheaton, and yes, I was brave and scanned a copy of our most recent photo taken in Jan. 1999. Lucy age 65 and Jerry age 73. My scanner leaves lines on the colored photos, and a copy of my gt. grandfather's photo...Anson William Wheaton, younger brother of Sylvester.

If I have it figured right, we are third cousins, once removed.
Our common ancestor: William A. Wheaton
Sylvester Wheaton- brother to- Anson W. Wheaton
Anson Joel Wheaton-first cousin to- Anson Elmer Wheaton
Lucy Anjalina Wheaton Sanford-second cousin to-Erma Arvilla Wheaton Rulman
Ida Ruth Sanford Hill-third cousin to-Lucy Marlene Rulman Weaver
Ida M. Hill Adams-third cousin once removed to Lucy.

Am anxious to see your data on Sylvester's family. Have you heard from any other Wheaton descendant? I forgot to ask you how you came across my name and listing...what website??

Feel so lucky to have found a new cousin.

By the way, when is the new grandson due?

Later on, I will send you a descendant text report on Thomas Wheadon.

I thought you would enjoy the Ancestor Chart, because it shows the Laceys and Sutcliffes and all the other New England families. I used to ask my grandfather where the Wheatons came from and he said, "They were Yankees". At that time I wasn't doing genealogy and I thought he was kidding. Turns out they were Conn. Yankees after all!!

You said you are retired. What did you do? We are both retired also. Jerry was the sales manager for a car dealership and I worked for the health dept...the last fourteen years as Defiance Co. Health Commissoner. Jerry worked for the same dealership for 25 yrs. and I worked for 36 yrs. at the health dept., starting out as public health nurse and then going back to school while working to get my masters degree in public health.

Talk to you later.

Best Regards,

From one Grandma to another. (Oh, what fun it is when they are babies and toddlers. They grow up so fast and mine are growing up in a suburb of Detroit! So enjoy them while they are young.)

Hi Lucy,
We have been extremely busy here. I don't know if I told you or not, Joe and I are very involved in our bicycle club. This is just the beginning of the bicycle season. Joe leaves next Wednesday for the SummerTour ride that our bicycle club puts on. You can check out the club web site at http://www.voyager.net/TCBA You can get an idea how involved we both are. Joe has an article in the July issue about the trip we are taking before the Labor Day Week-end. It's called DALMAC.
I've also been busy updating the Family Tree for the Family Reunion coming up the end of July. Just to let you know, a day doesn't go by that I don't think of you and your family. Please bear with me while I get everything sorted out and up to date. I know how anxious you must be to find out new things about the family.
Attached is a picture of my Great Grandfather Anson Joel Wheaton. I thought it might ease the waiting a little bit. This is on my mother's side of the family. My Grandmother "Lucy Anjalina Wheaton Sanford's" Father.
He was born December 12, 1862. He was married to Florence Evelyn Ducat.
Please keep e-mailing us. As we love to get e-mail from family. Take care and have a great 4th of July.
All our best to you and your family,
Joe & Ida

Hi Lucy,
My, you're up late! I should clarify the fact that it's Joe that does all the riding. I follow along with the van, but not on the route. We have a van with a bed, TV, VCR, Stereo. You know, really roughing it. This year we will be doing the DALMAC four day east route. Joe does all of the maps for the club. The computer gets quite a workout. I haven't ridden my bike since last year. I did a total of three rides with a total of 81 miles. I have done more previous to this year, but for one reason or another I haven't been able to ride.
I'm glad you liked the photo of my Great Grandfather. The next one is a picture of my Great Grandmother who is my Grandfather "John Calvin Sanford's" Mother. This is Sarah Catherine Brosius Sanford born on December 2, 1860 and died on January 25, 1946 in Jackson, Jackson County, MI. Oh and by the way Anson Joel Wheaton is buried in Woodland Cemetery in Jackson, Jackson County, MI.
Hope you like the picture.

Subject: Hello There

Hi Lucy & Jerry,

Just a few lines to say Hi and that Joe came through the SummerTour bicycle ride just fine. I picked him up on Sunday afternoon at 1:30p.m. It sure is great to have him home again. I really missed him. This Saturday is another ride called W.O.W. (Women on Wheels). Of course, men can ride too.

Christine is our beautiful daughter and Christopher is our handsome son-in-law. They'll be married eight years this coming October 19. That will be a busy time because the baby is due that day.

Christine works full-time and so does Christopher. So they are quite busy themselves.

I'm so glad you received the attachments ok. Are there any you need sent again?

We are cat lovers ourselves. We had a cat named Puffer for almost 15 years. We miss her. Then we had a cat named Scooter. We had her for six years. They were both black and white domestic long-haired cats. I don't know if we will get another one or not. It's so hard to lose them.

Take care, talk to you later.

Hi Lucy & Jerry,
Long time no hear from me. Just thought you might want to see the attached pictures. They didn't come out as clear as I thought they should have. It was rainy and the lighting wasn't that great.

Did you get the invitation to the Sanford family reunion? We hope you and Jerry can come.

Joe and I went to see the Lansing Lugnuts play ball at the Oldsmobile Stadium last Saturday. Christine and Christopher took Miranda. We had a great time. They even had fireworks after the game. They were terrific. Miranda just loved them. My sister Anna and her husband Dennis came to our house and we left from here and met the kids at the stadium.

I should go now. I need a break from the computer. Working on the family tree for the reunion.

Catch you later.

Hello!
Just to let you know the reunion went great. It rained, but it didn't dampen anyone's spirit. A great time was had by all. My pictures are still in the camera. Need to use up the film.
There were 35 families represented at the reunion. My cousin won the quilt. He gave it to his mother Dorothy Sanford Fleming. She was so happy that she cried.
The White Elephant Auction went well. We even had a white elephant to auction.
The tentative date for next year is July 29th. Not written in stone though.
I can't believe that the DALMAC bicycle tour is only two weeks away. Time sure does fly.
I received e-mail from my niece in California. She's a nurse in the military. Been in for 13 years now.
Attached is a picture of my Grandfather John Calvin Sanford Born May 22, 1885 in Armstrong County, PA
Died March 7, 1954 in Jackson, Jackson, MI Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Jackson, Jackson, MI. I believe the picture was taken around 1952.
Take Care Now.
Write when you can.

Hi Lucy,

I just sat down and was checking out our family website. We've got a new addition to the family. My cousin's daughter just had a baby girl last Friday. I just put their picture on the website. She is a cutie. Miranda is getting big and so is Cole. I'll attach a picture of them on this mailing. They used a filter on the pictue. That's why it looks so fuzzy. It really rained here last night. We just got back from Christine's house to get her mail and water her hanging plants outside. Of course, it rained right after we got home. They are visiting Christopher's folks this week. I'm sure his folks are enjoying the grandkids too.
Hope you like the pictures.

Hi Lucy & Jerry,
Just an update to let you know what's up in our family. We made it through another summer. Our grandson Cole turned one last October 23. Big birthday party!!! We had a lot of fun. My Dad turned 80 on Halloween. We had a big party for him. Invited a few family members. Pictures are still in the camera. Will send you an e-mail picture of him when I get the pictures used up. Miranda was a ballerina for Halloween. Pictures still in the camera. We watched Cole while Christine and Christopher took Miranda out trick or treating. Cole is walking now. What a cutie he is too.
Joe and I are doing fine here. We got a lot of outside work done before the snow fell today. We got a dusting. We are having my dad and his friend, the kids and grandchildren for Thanksgiving . That will be eight of us all together. I'll need to put another leaf in the table :-). We are looking forward to it.
Thank you for the picture of you, Jerry and your grandson Mark.
Do you think we should try to get together before this year ends?
I've gotta go now. Write back when you can.
Love,
Joe & Ida

Bloomington

In July of 1996, Bloomington will be celebrating their 125th anniversary. It was one of the oldest towns in the surrounding areas. It's population at one time was 600 people. Bloomington consisted of three grocery stores, two drug stores, a large clothing store for men, women, and children. Beside the clothing store was a variety store, along with other buildings like, Coles Real Estate and Insurance building, a large lumber yard, a telephone office, a jail house, barber shop, elevator and depot. There was also a big dance hall, pool hall, and two saloons, which were pretty lively on Saturday nights. There was an old mill named Prairie Rose that was run by a wheel in a pond. It made flour of all kinds, wheat, rye, graham and white.

The farmers would bring their wheat in full sacks and in return get a sack full of flour while they waited. This was located southwest of town by the railroad tracks. There also was a light plant running in the same manner for their electricity for the city.

Bloomington was at one time the Franklin County seat. It's court house was in the center of the square. In the 1920's it was voted to move the county seat to Franklin. At Franklin, the people built a new building which still stands today.

The main road was Golden Rod #3 which ran along the Republican River south of Bloomington into Alma. In later years Highway #136 was built which now runs north of the city.

Dust storms hit Bloomington hard in the 1930's. In 1935 a wall of water came down the Republican River and ruined lots of farm ground south of town. Water covered the railroad tracks and came to the steps of the depot.

Bloomington once a thriving town, is today a small village overlooking the scenic Republican River valley. The town is on the north side of the river on the gentle slope extending on to the "upland praire."

Just after the Civil War the goverment established a route for Fort Kearney and built Indian stockades at strategic points. The route followed the 99th meridian and was called the Brookline (or Brooklyn) Road, used by the stage-coach line, mail route and freighters.

The railroad surveyors staked out a right-of-way and a town site they called "Waterloo" in 1868. When the town was finally organized in 1872, one of the settlers, Sol Males, suggested the name "Bloomington" after his home in Illinois. A post office bearing that name was established in 1873. When the United States Land Office was moved to Bloomington from Lowell.

The town was thronged with land-hungry people eager to claim property and established businesses. The land office building used at this time has been moved and is now displayed at Pioneer Village in Minden.

The early settlers worshiped togerther in schools or homes. The Methodists were the first to construct a church. It still serves the community and the congregation held it centennial celebration in 1971.

The first school, built in 1874, was destroyed by fire but another soon replaced it. A Normal School was established and trained many teachers. The present brick school was built in 1925 abd still serves the elementary students, but the high school was discontiued in 1967.

The banker, Mr. McGraw, who had three Negro servants, would have lavish parties and dances. Stock companies presented weekly plays, summer Chautauquas were held on the courthouse square, and there were band concerts every week. The bandstand still remains at its location in the city park, along with the rock jail house. A city water system was installed in 1906 and city lights added in 1913. Streets were paved in 1928.

The America Legion and its auxiliary, organized in 1949, play an active role in the Memorial Day services as they honor the many veterans who have a final resting place in Bloomington Cemetery on the edge of the town.

Currently this dedicated community of 138 people is actively striving to keep the town alive and well, and to serve one another. It is the place they call "home."

CRANE TOWNSHIP. The only grist mill ever built in the township was erected on the Marie-DeLarme, in 1850. It was a small frame building and was built by Zachariah Ashton. It was in operation for only a few years and has long since rotted down (per the 1892 Paulding County Atlas). The early settlers got their grain converted into flour and meal at the mill in Brunersburg, Defiance County, erected by a Mr. Perkins, in 1828-29, and this was one of the first flouring mills built in the Maumee Valley. Up to the erection of this mill, the nearest one to the settlers of Crane Township was at Waterville, about 50 miles down the Maumee.

In those early days, transportation was generally done by means of pirogues on the river; but sometimes by ox teams, and the journey to and from often occupied several days and was full of hardships and danger. During these milling excursions, the wife and little ones of the pioneer remained at home alone, often with scanty fare, and with anxious hearts awaiting his return.

A story is told of an instance where the team of a pioneer perished on one of these trips, and he, himself, only escaped with feet and hands so badly frozen as to maim and cripple him for life. Such were the trials and hardships of the early settlers. We need to pay reverence to their memory and the difficult times they endured.

Rochester was the first county seat in Paulding County. Cecil and Knoxdale are the present villages of the township. Cecil was laid out in 1871 and was a thriving place of about 400 inhabitants in 1892. Cecil had a hotel, two story brick schoolhouse, three churches, a large stave factory, large general store of M.N. Utley, two depot buildings, a saw mill and tile factory as well as several other business houses.

The first marriage in Crane Township was that of Mr. Young and Miss Sherry in 1825 and was soleminized by Oliver Crane. The first school in the township was built in the village of New Rochester in 1836. It was a log cabin 20x24 feet in size. As there were no roads in the early days, the pioneers traveled on the Maumee. There were many Indians camped along the river then, too. It is said that they were usually peaceful, except when they were under the influence of whisky. The fish and game were very plentiful along the Maumee River. RE: 1892 Paulding County Atlas.

PAULDING COUNTY PEDIGREE

By Caroline Longardner

CRANE TOWNSHIP — The years 1841 and 1842 go down in the history of Crane Township as the years that the Wabash-Erie Canal was built. It opened up a trade route for the lumber industry, grain and farm produce, iron ore, as well as being the latest mode of transportation of anyone who could afford it. It was opened up in Paulding County on July 4, 1843.

It was about 20 years later that a Pittsburgh company by the name of Evans, Rogers and Co. decided to produce a metal process to reduce iron by a direct process. It was 1864 when Paulding County's "Cecil Furnace" came into being. It was located about 1½ miles south of Cecil near both the railroad line and the canal line. At one time, as many as 250 woodchoppers and sawyers were employed to clear as many as 1,000 acres of wood land annually.

The Evans, Rogers and Co. was donated six acres of land in Crane Township by George McCormick for the "farm" which consisted of 23 to 35 beehive shaped charcoal kilns of brick which were plastered on the outside. These kilns were 15 feet in diameter and 15 feet high. Each kiln was capable of producing 45 to 50 bushels of charcoal from each cord of wood after 4 days of burning. It took approximately 20 cords of wood each day to produce 45 tons of iron.

The iron ore was transported from the mines in the region of Lake Superior in Michigan, being taken by ships to Toledo and taken by canal boats down to Paulding County. and the Cecil Furnace. The processed or reduced iron was shipped out on the Wabash-Erie Canal to Toledo then shipped out all over the world.

Another mode of transportation was constructed through Crane Township in 1855 which was the Toledo, Wabash and Western Railway. It later became known as "the Wabash." Later, another, shorter, line was built from the Cecil site south to within one-half mile of Paulding. The Cecil Furnace needed this vital transportation link.

The town of Cecil was officially laid out on April 1, 1871. It was said to have been named after a man named Cecil who was at the time an engineer on the Wabash Railroad, making his first trip on the run between Toledo and Fort Wayne. By 1892, Cecil's population had grown to 400 persons. The schoolhouse (two-story) north of town was built in 1879. Also, the town boasted of a new two-story brick town hall, a fine hotel, two railroad depots, a tile factory, a sawmill, a large stave factory, a number of bars, stores and last but not least, churches.

On April 25, 1888, the Six Mile Reservoir in Crane/Carryall Township was blown, which ended the life of the Wabash-Erie Canal and the Cecil Furnace. (It was said that the insect population in that area of the county also took a nosedive.)

Not knowing what "the Dynamiters" were going to do next, the Ohio National Guard was called to the area by the Governor of Ohio. There was one casualty: a private on duty, Fred Reeves (19 years old) accidentally shot himself in the head and died while on guard duty in Cecil. One account says that the Guardsmen stayed in Cecil at the Mackinaw House (the boarding house) downtown.

QUERIES: Some of the early settlers of Paulding County included: GEORGE E. WOODRING (b. 7Sept 1850 in Fulton Co. Ohio); JONATHAN L. WHEATON (b. 16May 1827 Holmes Co. Ohio); COURTLAND W. STARKEY (b. 18Aug. 1846 Clermont Co. Ohio); EDWARD SPIESS (b. 28Nov 1862 Wood Co. Ohio). The 1892 Paulding County Atlas reprint, which can be purchased through the Paulding County Carnegie Library, carries some information. Any additional lineage information on these early settlers would be appreciated. You may respond to Paulding County Pedigree.

Did you know that you could purchase The Confluence, the new book on the confluence of the Maumee and Auglaize rivers in Defiance, and the history of the fort and Indians two hundred years ago? A bookstore in Antwerp has several copies available. Check out this store for local history as well as non-fiction historical books, classics and even some genealogical books.

Dear Caroline,

Don't know if you remember me or not. I was among the first members of the Defiance County Chapter of O.G.S. when you were the President. My parents Harold and Erma (Wheaton) Rulman were very active members of the Chapter also. They are both deceased now.

My Uncle Norman Rulman of Paulding brings the Paulding newspapers to me, so I read with great interest your article on Crane Township (October 19, 1994) and saw under queries that one of the early settlers was Jonathan L. Wheaton and that you would appreciate additional information on him.

Jonathan Lacey Wheaton was an older brother of my great grandfather Anson William Wheaton. Jonathan was the fourth child of William Anson and Sarah (Hall) Wheaton's thirteen children. He was born 16 May 1827 in Prairie Township, Holmes Co.,OH. In 1850 he was living in Reed Twp., Seneca Co., OH. with his parents. On 24 August 1851, in Wood Co., OH., he married Salinda Ann Salsberry. I believe they came to Paulding County in the 1860s, because his parents were living there at that time. He was a veteran of the Civil War. Jonathan and Salinda had 6 children: Sarah C. (1852-1873); William J. (1853-1922); George W.(1855-1911); Phoebe Ann (1858-?); Anise Sabina(1860-1881) and James E.(1862-1935). Sarah and Anise are buried in Colby Cemetery, Mark Twp., Defiance Co. on the Paulding-Defiance Co. Line Rd., not far from where they lived in Crane Twp. Jonathan and his wife were still in Crane Twp. in 1880, but sometime after that they moved to Bloomington, Franklin Co., Nebraska where Jonathan died 19 March, 1909 of pneumonia and Salinda Ann died 3 June 1912.
There are many descendants living in the Nebraska area with whom I have corresponded.
Incidentally, Jonathan was named after his grandparents Jonathan and Penelope Lacey Wheaton. His grandfather Jonathan was a veteran of the Revolutionary War and a native of Conn. He received land in Holmes Co., OH. from the Government following his war service.

If you have any other responses to your query, would appreciate knowing who the correspondents are.

Among Paulding Co. birth records I found: Nettie Wheaton, born 20 May 1873 in Brown Twp., parents Anson P. and Elizabeth (Baker) Wheaton, and a David Wheaton born 7 October 1874 in Brown Twp., same parents. Am sure they are related due to the Anson name which has been

Dear Caroline,

Don't know if you remember me or not. I was among the first members of the Defiance County Chapter of O.G.S. when you were the President. My parents Harold and Lizzie (Wheaton) Rohman were very active members of the Chapter also. They are both deceased now.

My Uncle Norman Hummel of Paulding brings the Paulding newspapers to me, so I read with great interest your article on Crane Township (October 19, 1994) and saw on the query that one of the early settlers was Jonathan L. Wheaton and that you would appreciate additional information on him.

Jonathan Lacey Wheaton was an older brother of my great grandfather Amos Wilkins Wheaton. Jonathan was the fourth child of William Amos and Sarah (Sally) Wheaton's thirteen children. He was born 16 May 1827 in Prairie Township, Holmes Co., OH. In 1830 he was living in Reed Twp., Seneca Co., OH. with his parents. On 23 August 1851, in Wood Co., OH., he married Salinda Jane Baldwin. I believe they came to Paulding County in the 1860s, because his parents were living there at that time. He was a veteran of the Civil War. Jonathan and Salinda had 6 children: Sarah C. (1852-1853), William L. (1855-1922); George B. (1858-1911), Phoebe Ann (1858-?), Annie Eliza (1860-1881) and James E (1862-1915). Sarah and Annie are buried in Lacey Cemetery, Mark Twp., Defiance Co. on the Paulding-Defiance Co. line rd., not far from where they lived in Crane Twp. Jonathan and his wife were still in Crane Twp. in 1880, but sometime after that they moved to Bloomington, Franklin Co., Nebraska where Jonathan died 19 March, 1902 of pneumonia and Salinda Jane died 3 June 1912.

If you have any other responses to your query, would appreciate knowing who the correspondents are.

Among Paulding Co. birth records I found: Abbie Wheaton, born 20 May 1873 in Brown Twp., parents Amos W. and Elizabeth (Baker) Wheaton, and a David Wheaton born 7 October 1874 in Brown Twp., same parents. Am sure they are related due to the Amos name which has been carried many generations through the Wheaton family. Also am wondering if there are any descendants in the area of Anna Wheaton and Alva Morris, who married 22 October 1885 in Paulding Co. Also there was an Elmira Wheaton who married Jacob H. Staley 21 November 1882 in Paulding Co. Are there any Staley descendants that have information on this Elmira?

Hope you can make sense out of this letter.

I do enjoy reading your column.

Sincerely,

Lucy (Rulman) Weaver

GSA FORM 6751 (REV. 8-71)

EXPLANATION OF ORDER FOR PHOTOCOPIES

Use this form to order photocopies of records of veterans who served in the United States or Confederate armed forces. These records include:

Pension application files based on United States (not State) service before World War I.

Bounty-land warrant application files based on United States (not State) service before 1856.

Pension or bounty-land warrant application files usually include an official statement of the veteran's military or naval service, as well as information of a personal or genealogical nature. If we find such a file, we send copies of the documents we think will be most useful to you.

Military service records based on service in the United States Army (officers who served before June 30, 1917, enlisted men before October 31, 1912), Navy (officers and enlisted men who served before 1886), Marine Corps (officers and enlisted men who served before 1896), and Confederate armed forces (1861-65).

Military service records rarely contain family information. The record of a man's service in any one organization is entirely separate from the record of his service in any other organization. We are ordinarily unable to accurately establish the identity of men of the same name who served in different organizations. If you know that a man served in more than one organization and you desire copies of his military service record, submit a separate form for the service record in each organization.

More information about these records may be found in our free Genealogical Information Kit.

Send the completed form to the address on the front of the form. When you send more than one form at a time, each order will be handled separately; you may not receive all your replies at the same time.

When we find numerous files for the veteran, we suggest that you visit the National Archives and examine the various files, or hire a professional researcher to examine the files for you. The Board for Certification of Genealogists, 1307 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036, can provide you with the names of persons in the Washington area willing to do research for a fee.

Included in her collection are her "Hot Dog" (shown here), a pair of hand carved, ivory shakers from Italy and shakers representing the 50 states — a collection she recently completed. In Remembrance

In Loving Memory of Mr. Ralph Eugene Wheaton

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Lucy,
I am also researching the family of the Wheatons. I am in Nebraska and have traced this batch to Holmes Co, Ohio also. I have little information on a William Wheaton ecept that he is married to a Sarah. This family caught my I because of th fathers name. The first of any of the Wheatons I can find is on Johnathan Lacy Wheaton. He was the Grandfather of my grandfather. With the maiden name of Lacy for the first Johnathan and a son William, I think that there might be a connection. I have no information on the siblings of Johnathan, but I do know that my Johnathan moved to Nebraska in th late 1880's or the early 1890's. If you think that there is a match, please write me back and I will be glad to share information with you. I have been stuck in Ohio and unable to go any farther. Also I have been incontact with a couple of other people tracking the Wheatons. One of them is in England. They are trying to find a connection. The one in England knows of one family member moving to Ohio in 1851, mine have been in the states longer than that. Maybe there is still a connection there also. She has decendents by the name of William also. Really common name, I guess. Please write back and let me know if you think there is a connection.
Thanks, maybe this is the break that I am looking for, it would be nice to find lost relitives.

Dear Kris,

Am enclosing an ancestor chart for you. Herb Brown of Omaha, NB had seen my Wheaton query on the Internet also and had sent me some of the James Edwin Wheaton materials. Hope you can sort it all out. Will try to get more out to you later.
Your Jonathan Lacy Wheaton was 19 years older than my gt. grandfather(who was born in 1846). One year when my husband and I were driving back from Denver, CO., we went off our route to Bloomington, NE. Jerry (my husband) was sleeping and I drove up a hill to a cemetery and stopped and right there was a wrought iron fence around Jonathan Lacy Wheaton's tombstone. Jerry woke up and asked "Where are we?" I laughed and said "We're in the cemetery." Some of Jonathan's chn. are buried in Defiance Co., along with his father Wm. Anson.. You have Geo W. Wheaton born in Wood Co., Iowa, but I believe it was Wood Co., OH., for that is where they lived for awhile.

Will get back to you later.

Best regards,

Lucy Weaver

Lucy,
This is great. I kept hoping that someone besides me would be interested in tacing our family. I am real thrilled to find you. Due to the fact that the last generation moved to Nebraska, this is all I could find. I have some paper clippings of this batch. My great Grandfather was James Edwin Wheaton.
I am not to good about getting this all into the proper order. Here goes with the information:
Johnathan Lacy Wheaton, born to William and Sarah Wheaton on 16 May of 1827 as you have. This information came from Franklin Co. Library. I am going to get a copy of marriage certificates. All Nebraska death certificates are evidently kept in Lincoln. Johnathan was married to Selinda Ann Selsberry. They are burried together. There children as near as we can find are:William J Wheaton,everything is unknown to me.
George W. Wheaton born 26 Sept 1855 in Wood Co Iowa. He married Callie E. Wentworth on 25 Dec. 1889. He came to Neb around that time. He died and is burried in Bloomington, NB. His death was in 1911. No on had the exact date. I saw the tombstone, it is not on it either
James Edwin Wheaton was born 31 Jan 1862 in Paulding center, Paulding Co, Ohio. He married Effie Lunetti League in Franklin Co, NB on 02 Sept 1894. They moved to Haigler in Feb on 1907. Here they had ten children. hey were Charles Leslie Wheaton, James Leon Wheaton, Stanley Ernest Wheaton, all decieced young. The other ones were Alta Catherine, Erma Sarah, Edna Bird, Anna Crystal, Lacy League, Louis Harley (my grandfather), George Walter (the only living one in this family, he will soon be 91), Ray Edwin, and Merle Austin.
Louis married Eleanor Gall, this is my grandmother, I will have to look up the dates at a later date. To them three children were born, Thomas Wheaton, Rae (Wheaton) White (my parents), and Patrica (Wheaton) Parker. Rae Wheaton was married to Leslie White on 25 Dec 1960. There are four of us. They are Christine(me), Shellie, Jerry, and Sherrie. I also have four children, they are Leslie, Michelle, Tony, and Gus. The later is all pretty rough information. I will take the time to put it all on paper with all the copies of Obituaries and any information I can come up with that you may be interested in. I am really interested on any information telling what these people were like also. If you have anything, I would be glad to pay for copies of any information you have. I know that it gets expensive. Thanks so very much, this has made my day, and I am sure that Uncle Dude will be thrilled, that is George's nickname, because there were so many miles between their families that he didn't even know what his grandparents names were. He said that they never reall got to know them, seeing them very rairly. Seems kinda strange, seeing how we can keep in touch with anyone now if we want to.

Will get busy and send you a few things...only problem is I am going to our daughter's house in Mich. for a few days this next week, so it may be a few days before I can get it to you. This is great! Our first common ancestor is William Anson Wheaton who married Sarah Hall
Your Jonathan Lacy Wheaton was a brother to my Anson William Wheaton
Your James Edwin Wheaton was a first cousin to my grandfather Anson Elmer Wheaton.
Your Louis Harley Wheaton was a second cousin to my mother Erma Arvilla Wheaton Rulman

Lucy,
Thank you for the information you sent me on the Wheatons. It is real interesting. I only have obituarys on James Edwin and my grandfather Louis Wheaton. I am going to go to Franklin and get a copy of the marriage liscense of James and Effie. I just have not found the time. I can send for it but no further than it is, I wanted to go back and spend some time there there are a lot of records there that I would like to research. I plan on doing this within the next couple of months. It looks to me that you have any information besides this that I might have. I do have a couple of corrections for your information. I am divorced and remarried. I married David Jardine on June 5th,1993. My grandfather Louis (Spot) Wheaton was born on May 24, 1906. He died on Sept. 15, 1951. Also I was wondering who this Herb brown was. And out of curiosity, since I am kind of knew to all these abbreviations, does twp stand fir township? Alsso how do you know that Jonathan Wheadon is the Father to Jonathan Wheaton, William's Father. Was there some kind of information that links the Wheadon's to the Wheaton's. I am just curious, because for these Wheadon's there is no connecting information. If you want copies of these obituaries, please let me know. Since your family went the other way. I don't know if you are connecting as many Wheatons as you can find or basically your direct family.
Thanks again

Hi, Kris,
Glad you received the information ok. Will enter the corrections that you sent. Herb Brown said he wasn't related, but that his bro-in-law was. He lives in Omaha, Nebraska and his wife's name is Kandi. Twp. stands for township. The proof for relationship of Jonathan Wheaton(the name Wheadon was changed during the Rev. War to Wheaten and then evolved to Wheaton)...From the Bible records of Russel Wheaton(son Of Jonathan) is entered Jonathan Wheaton was born in Branford, Conn. Jan. 26, 1755. From the town records of New Haven, Conn. Vol. 3
Jonathan, Son of Jonathan Wheadon & Anne his wife was born at Branford January 26, 1755 (pg. 147)

Same vol. pg. 122 Jonathan Whedon and Anna Cook, both of Branford was joined in the Covenant of Marriage at Branford, December 3rd 1749, by the Reverend Mr. Philomon Robbins, Minister.

Same vol. pg. 55 Jonathan Son of John Whedon & Mary his wife was born at Branford, July 7th A.D. 1721.

Same vol. pg. 40 John Wheadon of Branford & Mary Crowfoot of Wethersfield, were married at Wethersfield, Jan. 10th 1716/17.
Found in the Vital Record of the town of Branford, Conn. in a personal seearch of the records on 12 Sept. 1978 by Chester S. Dart. (Chet Dart and I correpsonded for many years, until his death. He was an airline pilot and was able to fly on a pass to almost anywhere such as England etc. Chet was a descendant of Almira Wheaton Hall, sister to our William Anson Wheaton . She was married to Reuben Hall, brother to our Sarah Hall, who married Wm. Anson Wheaton.) Would like copies of the obituaries. Yes, I like data on any Wheatons. I find that by branching out I always find data that leads to my direct line. I have the Civil War pension papers of Jonathan Lacey Wheaton if you are interested. Lucy

Lucy,
Have been spending the morning reading all the Wheaton forum, haven't paid much attention to it since I recieved your information. I want you to know though, we may have a lead as to finding information on the Thomas Wheadon born in Somersetshire, England. My sister-in-law is from that area, of kind of. She said it is about three hours away from where her folks live. When she talks to her folks next time she is going to ask them to find out for us what would be the best way to get the information we need. I will keep in touch, and am still working on the obituaries, have some of them copied for you, but am still waiting for information and some pictures from others. I have one living Great Uncle still living. His birthday is in Feb. and would like to have as much by them to share with him as possible, so maybe the info I am waiting for will come shortly. The one that is still living is George Walter Wheaton. His nickname is Dude, and has always been known to us as such. He will be 91, and even though he is slowing down a bit, he is still going on strong. He is quite an amazing man. I will keep in touch as I recieve the information, as you will know when you will be recieving it.
Talk to you later.

Alta received her lifetime membership pin as a c[illegible]er member of the Haigler American Legion A[illegible]iary. She was a member of the Haigler United Methodist Church, the Haigler U.M.W. and the Helping Hand Club.

She was also preceded in death by her parents, four brothers, a sister and a grandson.

Hi Lucy,
Just was thinking about you today. I am trying to get all this information together to get the pictures and obits that I have to you. I was wondering, do you have all the children on Grandpa Wheatons families. I am trying to get them all with birthdates to get a conclusion to the family. I know that without consent we are not supposed to post any of that on the forums, but was wondering how much information on this branch of the family you need to finish this end up. I am going to go to the courthouse one of these days in the next week or so an get copies of the marriage licenses and land records. When I get them, I will send you copies. With a little four year old around it kind of puts a damper on spending much time on that kind of research. So it has been easier to think that I could do that when he starts school, only that is a year away, and I am to the point that I want that information now, not later. The obituaries that I have are only of my Grandpa Wheaton, and his dad. I do have some copies of 50th wedding anniversaries that were in the paper, and some other things that I am making copies of for you. I am just not sure what information you have, and that is why I am wondering if I need to get birthdates, names, etc for you. If you have everything, then I won't need to double your information pile. If yours is like mine, it is stacked pretty high. Even though I have taken the information of the scraps of paper, I am afraid to throw them away as I may have forgotten something. You know the ones that you just scribble info on them, the ones that it is OK to part with. Well I am trying to take the time to double check the info to make sure I have it all. Well I better go and get supper for the kids. Let me know, and I will get this stuff out to you within the next coupla days. I almost forgot, I would like a copy of the civil war papers on Jonathan Wheaton if I might have one. Also would you by some chance have a picture of any of Jonathan's family, or of Jonathan. I would like to find one if there are any out there for Uncle Dude's copy of the family tree. It is coming up real soon, and have tabled the Wheatons for a while, as have found some new cousins on the Gall side. This was my Grandma's side of the family. Eleanor, the one that married Louis (Spot) Wheaton. Finding new family members is real fun, and I really enjoy talking about past information. One of these days you are going to get a strange letter from me. It will be one of those Hi, how are you ones, that have nothing about genealogy in it. Don't know when, but someday, I will just write to visit. For now I better go and get something done.

Hi Lucy,
I should go to bed as my typing is getting real bad tonight. Yes, maybe I did forget to tell you the rest of my family. I remarried on June 5, 1993. We have a son, his name is Gustava Lewis Jardine. My husbands name is David Dudley Jardine. His birthday is July 31,1960 and Gus' is Oct 26, 1994. I want to thank you for letting me know the package is in the mail. I haven't gotten you things sent to you as I have been waiting to see what else you need. I will try to get the obits in the mail to you tomorrow. As I recieve more information, I will send it to you. I can't believe how many piles I have trying to decipher through it all. I did the same thing several years ago, I guess Gus was just a baby, with pictures of the kids. I was going to sort through everything and make individual albums for them. Then Gus got older, and the pictures got put away. Now I am really into this, so the next thing on my list is to get back to the pictures. We live in such a small town that the field mice come calling in the spring and the summer. They do not make very good house pets, as they have been in the same place I have put the pictures. They must not be interested in the pictures, as they have left them alone, but I have to get back to them too, before they decide they do like pictures. It is kind of funny how mice are. My grandparents lived in the country on the farm when I was a kid, they moved to town in 1976. Everything in the attic got left there. One day several years ago, Mom and I decided to see what Grandma had stored there. I found a box of stuff with a mouse nest on top. Not that I wanted to go any farther, but I did. In the bottom of this box was several important papers and letters from when my grandma's dad had died and from when her little brother had died. The mice hadn't even been interested in that stuff. Sure was glad. Well I better get to bed, as I have created myself one swell of a headache. I think that it is these wonderful bifocals, the eye doctor thought I needed. I could see fine before, even if I had to make things up. Hah, Hah.
Since tomorrow is Saturday, I may not be able to get your things mailed, as the post office is only open for a couple of hours tomorrow. I will email you when I get them sent. My life is so confusing, I sometimes wonder why I make it more confusing by doing things like this genealogy, my answer is because it is challenging and I can't get a headache if I don't do things like that. Besides it is really fun looking into the past of these people that I like to think of as sitting in Heaven, watching us. I have a hard time thinking that any of my relatives or any other people were bad enough to go the other way. I would never make a good juror foe a murder trial, as I find it hard to believe that anyone, or anything God created could be so cruel. I live in a fantasy world where people are almost always good. Well not quite, but close. I guess I wish that all people would be as willing to help there neighbor or a stranger as everyone I have come in contact with doing Genealogy over the internet. You know these people are mostly friendly. The people here at our own court house are too busy to be bothered by people. If you want information there, you better have a clue as to where you are looking "cause they just don't have time" If you don't have a clue, "pay someone who does". I was on the phone to a county clerk in another county this morning, and she was willing to give me the information over the phone. Strange how strangers react to someone in need as to someone you know. Well I am babbling cause I am tired. I have got to email my sister yet, so I will let you go for now.

Hi Lucy,
Sorry that I haven't written for a while. I did something to my computer and it bit the dust. Actually my email bit the dust. When I was trying to fix it like I was told, I killed everything. Luckly, I was able to get most of the information I need off the computer before we had to completely reinstall everything. I did miss writting something down and was wondering if you would mind giving me the address to the Wheaton forum. I have several messages out there on other family sirname forums of the same one and can't remember how I got there in the first place, so have no idea how to get back. Whenever I find something I like on the internet, I just save it in favorites. Well since I forgot about that file, I lost them all. The loss of most of them was no loss, but some of them was. It's a good thing I thought to write the addresses of those I enjoy writing to down, or they would have all been lost too. Well that's the way it goes anyway. I have an address book floating around the house most of the time. When I find it I put it away, then I need a phone number out of it, go to whichever phone I am using, then leave it lay and can't find it either. I am so unorginized. I keep thinking that when my kids are grown, maybe I will learn about that nasty word, but I am not sure that I like the word enough to even consider doing it. My world is a scrambled mess, think how boring life would be if your life was orginized. Dave's sister has no kids, and is always preaching originzation. I told her the same thing. I would rather be confused than bored. I was going to tell you, I am sorry to here that you and your husband are both not in best of health. Cancer scares me. I don't know if you know tha my mom's brother, Thomas Wheaton died here a couple of years ago from it. We lost his daughter, Pam Macy first, then Uncle Tom. She had breast cancer and he had bone cancer. The sound of the word makes me nervious. Hope that it doesn't bother you me talking about it, cause I don't mean to make you feel bad. I told Mom that maybe it is a Godly desiese. After all, we can all go at anytime, but this way, like old age, we can plan things around so everything is in as good of shape as it can be. If we go instantly, there are so much things that we leave that needed done, even if it is saying goodby. I hope that you don't mind me talking openly about my feelings on this, if it does I am truely sorry. Well, I guess that it is time for something cheerful. The sun is shining here, and according to the weather, you are infor bad stuff. If the weather is yucky out there, think of me here in the sun. Hah, Hah. I really think that somehow we got moved to Arizona. Don't know when or how, but the weather here is nicer than it has been down there. People here go to Arizona in the winter because of the mild weather. It is nice enough this winter to start a fruit orchard. Maybe I should start growing flowers year around. My roses are going to start coming out early. Who knows, maybe we'll be able to decorate the church in real flowers for Easter.

Only kidding. It is between 50 and 60 most of the time, but everything stays dormant for the majority of the winter. The bad thing is it is usually late in April when we get our last hard freeze. Sometimes, it still freezes until Memorial day. If we have a mild winter, and a late freeze, everything is lost. The fruit trees just bloom and look pretty, but that is all. I learned last year, not to set the sprinkler on my peach tree to protect it from freezing, I almost killed the tree last year. I broke one of the main branches. I bet that by morning I had an inch in diameter covering the whold tree. I wanted to cry. I have a tendency of doing dumb things like that. It was the first year it had any blossems on it, and I wanted to have peaches. The rest of the town had peaches, but I only had three. On top of that I had to fight the sugar ants for them. Talk about being grouchy, here is my tree that I had babied along for five years (about), then I freeze it and try to kill it, then I have to fight the ants. It was interesting. Oh well, I better go for now, I was going to make some bread so we could have fresh homemad bread and homemade beef and noodles for supper, and I haven't even gotten started. I may put that off till tomorrow, who knows. I've been going to make bread for a week now, and keep getting side tracked and having to leave the house for a couple of hours in the afternoon. It really goofs up my bread making. Well I better go. We'll talk to you soon, you take care.
I almost forgot the names and years I was wondering about in Ohio.

I am looking for any information on James Jardine and his family. The information I have is this, James was born in Helensburg, Scotland on April 15,1837, he died in Sandusky, Ohio at the Veterans Home on 12/9/1922. At this time, it is believed that his wife, Jane was living in Cincinatti at the time. He had one son, Robert, living in Chicago, I have the address, and one, John, living in Lake City, CO. John, is my husbands ggrandfather. According to his records from the Home (which I have), there were three living children. We know nothing of the third child. Rumor is that at the time that Grandpa John moved out to CO, he had another brother that came with him. It is believed that if this was so, he settled around Colorado Springs. There is no mention of this other child in the files, asides the fact that there were three of them. Nothing else was ever mentioned about his wife Jane either. Anyway, James had three brothers, Peter, Robert, Graham, and one sister, Cathring. I know that Graham was in Ohio in 1916, as he signed a paper for James birthdate in Ross Co on 09/21/1916. I am assuming this was for his naturalization papers, as I am finding that this is the same year all the Gall's had to do their naturalization records. James father's name was Graham. I have a birth record of James. Dave's Grandpa Gus Jardine had a bunch of James papers with him. Dave's mom has them safely tucked away now so nothing will ruin them. We have looked at them and as I recall, I have copies of everything she has. I almost forgot to tell you that James lived in Toledo, Ohio after the Civil War, or at least in 1894. He was admitted into the Veterans Home in this year, the discharged a year later. He was readmitted in 1905. His address at this time was Cincinnati at this time. This is why we think that his wife was there at the time of death. Information that I recieved from the Veterans Home says that his death papers, and additional information was sent to his wife, Jane. I don't know, it is also possible that we are searching in the wrong direction, as when Daves Grandpa Gus died four years ago, there was an article put in a local paper, by whom no one has been able to find out, stating that James and Jane were in Lake City, CO. If they were, no one knows about it. I am searching in that direction too, but I can't seem to get ahold of the people who published the article to find out who wrote it. None of the family members did. It's a big mystery. Anyway, I think that I have given you all the information that I have, and I hope that I haven't completely confused you.

He fought in the 54th Reg, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. This last sentence was an after thought, if you hadn't already figured it out. I want to thank you for everything. Sure would love to meet you in person, but since you all aren't able to do all the traveling you would like, and we are always broke, as families are, it seems, this may never happen, but who knows, stranger things have happened.

You take care of yourself, and I want you to know that my prayers are with you both.

Love Kris

On 1 November 1860, Mary Ann WHEATON married Judson GILBERT in Seneca Co., OH. Is this Mary Ann WHEATON the daughter of William & Sarah (HALL) WHEATON ? Are their any GILBERT descendants? The Mary Ann WHEATON that I am seeking was born 6 September 1831 in Holmes Co., OH. Will gladly share WHEATON data with anyone researching this line. Lucy Weaver, Defiance,OH. north@defnet.com

Judson Gilbert married Fannie Ann Woodward on 1-14-1895. He was 61, she was 46. He was born Sherwood OH, she in Trent, MI. Witnesses were Herman & Kate Gilbert. Harvey McNitt, Justice of the Peace. From Muskegon County Courthouse Record, Book 4, Page 183, 2678.

He died on 1-19-1910 of organic heart disease. His parents listed as Isaac Gilbert & Betsy Bacon. I dont have the Record # for this but can get it.

Buried: Seamon Cemetary, Muskegon County, MI. Lot B4 L016 Gn1. Gilbert, Judson 1833 Apr 9 1910 Jan 16 cz CW VET As reported from Casnovia Township cemetary records.

The Woodard family history at the Hackley Museum, Muskegon, MI has Isaac marrying Fannie Ann, marriage & death dates as above, except they have place of birth as Williams County, OH. They have listed that he had a daughter, Julia, who died & is buried in Bailey, MI. She must have preceded him in death.

I copied his will off microfilm today. The following nieces & nephews are listed as his beneficiaries: Frank O. Benn of Huntington, West VA, Addie, wife of E. Ackley of Lovilla, Iowa, Dora, wife of Jerry Slaven of Hope, Idaho, and A. W. Bond of 127 E. Ave 52, Los Angelas, CA.

Hope this helps. Let me know if you need anything else or would like copies of what I

Dear Lucy,

Sorry for the time lapse....it has been forever since I've been near my computer. Life has a way of getting in the way of my favorite pasttime. AND you are correct. Your Judson, is my Judson. He was actually married 3 times: 1) Mary Holis. 2) Mary Wheaton. 3) Fannie Ann Woodard. The first two entries are listed in a family bible that was started with Judson's parents, Dr. Isaac Gilbert and Betsey (Bacon) Gilbert, and kept by the Folston/Vanduesen families. That line is from Charity Gilbert, Judson's sister. My husband's ancestor, Seth, was a brother to Judson. I found your info on the census' very interesting. Judson's father died in Bryan, Williams Co, OH about 1876 and we were wondering why he was there. Perhaps he was living with or near to Judson and Mary Ann. It has only been in the last few months, when I connected online with Margaret Folston, that I was able to verify that Seth & Judson were brothers. There were 9 children in the family, 6 sisters, 3 brothers. All 3 brothers ended up in Michigan eventually; however, only Isaac and Judson are buried here. I don't know where Seth died or is buried. Do you happen to know if Judson and Mary Ann had any children together? He had a daughter, Julia, but she died here in MI before Judson. When he died in 1910, he left his estate to his nieces and nephews.

It was wonderful getting your email. Hope to hear from you soon.

During their trip the group toured the Chicago Tribune, the Adler Planetarium, the Field Museum of Natural History, the Science and Industry Museum, and the Chicago Museum of Art.

Mr. Silliman commented: "Just being exposed to life in Chicago is a special learning experience. Across the street from my hotel was Grant Park. We saw people who slept on benches with newspapers as blankets. We had several poor people come up to us on the streets and in restaurants begging money off of us. Then to see expensive sports cars and people dressed in expensive clothes in the same area as the poor showed us both ends of the spectrum of finances.

At the art museums we saw some of the finest works of art in the cou try. It helps us with art to s various types and styles. It helps to improve our work."

Full bishop sleeves were of English net with a soft inset of lace identical to the bodice. The wide lace cuffs were closed with buttons and loops and tapered to bridal points over the hands. The full gathered all lace skirt fell from a basque waistline. A row of embroidered lace trim detailed the hemline, sweeping into a full chapel train. The waltz length mantilla was entirely edged and appliqued with coordinating lace completing the entire ensemble. She carried a colonial bouquet of white rosettes, white miniature carnations, stephonatis, and baby's breath.

Attending her as maid of honor was Caril Cherry, Antwerp. She wore a gown of nectar colored chiffon and knit with bateau neckline and spaghetti strap bodice. She carried a cluster of peach carnations, yellow daisy pom pons, purple statice, and baby's breath with peach streamers. Bridesmaids identically attired were Jill Rodocker, Youngstown, O., Amy Kreg, sister of the bride, Hicksville, and Pam Bailey, Hicksville. Flower girl was Katie Balser, niece of the groom and Toby Balser, nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Aces Are Fifth At State CC Meet

With over 100 local fans cheering them on, the HHS girls cross country team ran to a fifth place finish in the Class A state CC meet Saturday.

The Aces accomplished their goal, to beat defending state and district champs, Minster, but didn't count on such tough competition from Zanesville Rosecrans and Lancaster Fisher Catholic, according to veteran Coach Jerry Balser.

The Zanesville girls led the pack with a 45 point total while Lancaster was second with a 65. Pettisville, out of the Lima districts, placed third overall with 96 while Kirtland followed at 101. The Aces were right behind them with a 103 total for fifth place while Minster was sixth with a 105. Arcanum placed seventh with a 139 total.

Individually junior Sheila Balser was the Aces top finisher in ninth place with a 20:03 run. Missy Stout was close behind in 11th place with a 20:17 finish. Deb Meek also finished in the top twenty at 16th in 20:29.

In a field that began with over 300 Class A schools in the State of Ohio the Aces were very happy to place fifth in the final meet of meets. They are a young team with four freshmen - Missy Stout, Josie Laub, Jessica Welly and Teresa Boon among the top seven. We add our congratulations to the Aces, we're all proud of your fine season and state efforts.

Aces Balser, Wilson Qualify For State Cross Country Meet Saturday

When the Class A State girls cross country race begins at 2:15 p.m. in Columbus this Saturday, October 27, the Hicksville Aces will have two girls competing for individual honors.

Senior Sheila Balser and freshman Laura Wilson won the right to go on to Columbus when they finished ninth and tenth respectively, at the Lima districts this past Saturday.

Sheila, who will be going to the state meet for the third time in her three-year cross country career, placed as the sixth individual qualifier with a 20:50.8 finish in the Lima race.

Laura, who will be going to state in this, her first year of varsity competition, was the seventh individual qualifier finishing with a 20:51.9 race.

Three other Aces put forth fine efforts at districts. Missy Stout, who was racing on an aggravated stress fracture in her foot, placed 65th overall with a 23:06.8 race. Jessica Welly placed 83rd in 23:34.1 and was followed by Amy Hathaway who was 84th in 23:34.5.

CC Coach Jerry Balser said that taking two Aces to the state race is "just great! The girls are really looking forward to getting there and we feel all our girls did a fine job."

Although the Aces could not compete at the team level at districts Coach Balser noted that by figuring the five Aces placings in relation to the other 13 teams competing at Lima, the HHS girls would have finished fifth in team with only Pettisville (who placed fourth as a squad) from the Defiance sectional, finishing ahead of them.

Balser said that although times seemed slow Saturday, part of that was due to the fact that the Lima course has been lengthened to be 100 meters longer than the 3.1 mile regulation cross country course. He said that with all things considered the Aces did a fine job comparing them with other area runners such as Jodi Witte of Edgerton who finished 24th Saturday.

"Our girls did a good job this season," said Balser, "and we're happy to have two representatives at state Saturday.

State

With hard workouts scheduled for Monday and Wednesday and light workouts set for Tuesday and Thursday, Sheila and Laura will be gearing up to leave for Columbus Friday at 2 p.m. from the high school.

The public is welcome to attend the sendoff as the girls leave for Columbus and the Briggs Athletic Complex (Lane Ave. and Olentangy River Road) where they will be running at 2:15 p.m. in the Class A girls finals.

We would like to extend our sincere wishes for GOOD LUCK to Sheila and Laura this Saturday!

Lois Maugel Is "Life Master"

One of the area's most enthusiastic bridge players is Lois Maugel, R. 5, Bryan, who became a Life Master, along with her teammates when they won the Glass City Regional Flight B Swiss Teams event at Toledo. She started playing rubber bridge while attending Ohio State University, graduating as a dental hygienist. She is now retired from her profession.

Mrs. Maugel said that through the cooperation and understanding of her husband, Marvin, and four children, she has been able to devote a great deal of time to her favorite pasttime - duplicate bridge.

In 1968, while expecting her third child, she played her first game of duplicate bridge in the Defiance Duplicate Bridge Club, directed by Arthur Lundberg who later became one of her favorite partners. She won the club championship and earned a full master point, although she says at the time she did not even know what a master point was.

She joined the American Contract Bridge League in 1975, earning her first gold points four years later at a Dayton tournament.

She considers it fortunate that several weekly ABCL sanctioned games are held within 15 miles of her home. These include games in Bryan, Montpelier, and West Unity, all directed by Donna Forbes.

Lois graduated from Hicksville High School. She is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Wheeler.

Obituary

Hazel Wheeler Wonderly

Hazel (Wheeler) Wonderly, daughter of Hayes and Mary A. Wheeler, was born October 19, 1894, in Mark Township, Defiance County, Ohio, and died at the home of her parents, September 18, 1913, aged 18 years, 10 months and 29 days.

On July 29, 1913, she was united in marriage to Harry J. Wonerly, and in a short time was stricken with typhoid fever from which she never recovered.

She united with the M. E. church in the winter of 1909 and iived faithful till death.

Hazel was a kind and affectionate daughter and wife. She leaves a husband, father and mother, grand-parents, two brothers, seven sisters and many other relatives and friends to mourn her early departure to the better land.

We cannot know why it pleased the Almighty God to remove from our midst our dear friend, one who was so upright and worthy, who has spent the better part of her short life in doing for others, but we must remember God is Love and He knows best and does all things for the best.

Hazel will be greatly missed not only in the home and in the Sunday school, but in the whole community. To know her was to love her.

Think not of your loved one sleeping,
'Neath the green and mossy sod,
But of faithful watches keeping
In the City of our God.

She has joined the shining angels,
Whom God loveth, suffereth here,
Search ye then God's blest evangels,
Comfort find and words of cheer.

Where no earthly ties shall sever,
Ye shall enter into rest,
There to dwell with Him forever,
In God's City of the Blest.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. S. Pierce, at the M. E. church, Sunday, September 21, at 1 p-m. She was laid to rest in Hicksville cemetery. Six of her young friends, Misses Fern Wagner, Vera Booher, Charlotte and Laura Gillespie, Flossie Hane and Candas Slough, acted as pall-bearers. The young ladies of S. S. Class No. 8, showed their love for their departed class-mate, by attending in a body and acting as an escort into the church. Fully five hundred attended the services. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Hazel's graduating class, and her Sunday school class both sent beautiful sprays of lilies and asters.

Shelia Balser Heads For State CC Meet

10-27-1982

Shelia Balser will travel to Columbus this Saturday, October 30, to represent the HHS cross country Aces at their state meet.

A sophomore, Shelia, finished third individually at Saturday's district meet with a 20:15 finish for the rolling 3,000 meter course.

Also participating in the 91-runner meet at Lima were Aces Lisa Laub who placed 37th in 21:46 and Deb Meek who was 59th in 22:48.

"It wasn't the best time for any of the girls," said Coach Jerry Balser who is also Shelia's father. "There was a mental letdown in each of their races, but I was pretty pleased overall with their attitude for the race."

The teams heading for the 12 noon state meet will include Woodmore and Minster while Shelia will compete for individual honors.

"The course (the OSU golf course) will be similar to Lima's course," noted Coach Balser, "and Shelia knows she has to be up mentally for the whole race, no letdown. She has a good kick in the last quarter mile and so she has to be on top of the rest of her race."

Good Luck to Shelia as she makes her first state CC bid.

Subject: Balser Family Tree

Dear Lucy,
Thanks very much for your inquiry. Yes, I am the eldest son of Lynn and Estella Balser. Dad was the eldest son of Wandas (is it 'as' or 'us') Wheeler and Willis F. Balser [other two sons are Virgil (deceased) and Carl Dean Balser]. Kathyrn (Huber) and Henry Balser had three sons, Willis, Lewis, and Victor. Henry Balser was the son of Conrad Balser.

My mother and father, Estella and Lynn (deceased April 25, 1991), had eight children. They are Jeffrey Lewis (B. Jan. 27, 1945), Linda Kay (B. July 17, 1946), Wanda May (B. Feb. 26, 1949), Dennis Elroy (B. Aug. 7, 1950), Gregory Donley (B. Jun. 2, 1953), Mark Andrew (B. Feb. 24, 1955), Ken Milan (B. May 16, 1959), and Darwin Lynn (B. Mar. 3, 1961). Mom and all kids are still here. Mom and Dad presently have 12 grandchildren and 2 greatgrandchildren.

Can you tell me more about my grandmother and her side of the family including correct spelling of her name and birth/death dates?

Thanks very much for contacting me. Look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,
Jeff Balser

DRYS URGE BORAH HEAD THIRD PARTY

Chicago, July 1.—An appeal for prohibition forces to unite behind a dry third party with United States Senator William E. Borah, Repn., Idaho, as its presidential candidate was made today before a secret meeting of the drys' board of strategy, the United Press learned.

Thirty-two leaders of prohibition organizations heard Dr. D. Leigh Colvin of New York declare in an impassioned speech that Senator Borah would be willing to be a dry third party's candidate for president if assured of support by "the moral forces of America."

Dr. Colvin said, it was understood, that Senator Borah not only had been approached on his willingness to run, but that those who sought the interview interpreted his reaction as "receptive."

its own bone dry candidate to battle in the November election against any changes in the 18th amendment.

"Doubly betrayed," by the Democratic party, the south's moral forces will seek "a new leadership" in a conference soon, Bishop Cannon Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church south, declared later in a statement.

Dear Aunt Nettie. married (September 29) 1932 — Rice, Texas
Oct 4th/1935

Will answer your letter of one day this week, I cant remember just what day we got it. But it dont make any difference. Just so it gets answered.
How are you today. Fine I hope. We are all pretty well. Leland got up this morning not feeling so good but I guess he is alright now. We both have a cold. But are just about over them now.
I just finished washing the dinner dishes.
I was kind of slow about it. I wrote some letters that is the reason I didnt have them done.
And I was also trying to get my kids to go to sleep. Which they finally did when they took a notion to. I have to iron a few things this afternoon when I get thru writing to you. Ought to have washed but am out of soap, so I'll have to do that tomorrow. This week will soon be over again. Last sunday was our wedding anniversary
We were married 3 yrs. It seems longer than that though. Lawsy it will be 2 yrs the 7th of next month that I have seen any thing of Alice or you.
I wish I could or we could come up for Xmas
but it will be quite impossible this year.
We havent any car or any way to get around. I dont know when we will ever get one again. Some day I hope. Maybe we wont always be so financially low. At least I hope not any how. How much do you get where you are. What did you do with old Brown?. You didnt leave him out to your place did you?. You better watch out or some one will get all the jelly & stuff that you put up. Did you can lots of good things?. My girl friend from Bucyrus wrote & told me she canned a lot of good things. I think she said she had 75 glasses of jelly & about 900 cans of other things. And was getting 2 bushels of peaches to can yet. She will be well fixed for winter food wont she. Gee Aunt Nettie you have it easy. Every thing electric to work with.

when are you going to make up your mind & come down to see us?. Just never?. I'm running out of paper pretty soon.
This is all thats left. So I'll have to quit
The basket ball teams of Rice are having a carnival tonite
& tomorrow nite on the school grounds, but I dont guess we will go. Its right across the road. I have been sewing quite a bit but am laying off for a while now. Will go at it again next week if I get a notion to. I've got to make the kids some more clothes & myself some more.
I have 2 dresses to make & 2 slips. Then I'll be thru sewing for me for a time. I made Patty & Gene each a pair of pa jamas. Have another pair to make for Patty. Have started a quilt but dont know if I'll ever get it finished or not. You Got any scraps you dont need?. Well by by. Lots of Love
Marguerite & all.

Dear Ms. Weaver:

This acknowledges your $10.50 payment and the application signed by your mother, Erma Wheaton Rulman, authorizing us to send her personal census data to you. You have also requested information pertaining to your grandparents, Elmer Anson and Daisy Myrtle Wheaton.

Personal census information concerning individuals who were born approximately 100 years ago and undoubtedly deceased, can be furnished to a direct bloodline relative (such as grandchild). We should like to explain that full schedule entries are prepared for $2.00 for each person. However, in an effort to be of assistance, we are enclosing a full schedule of all of the personal data recorded for your grandparents and for your mother in the 1910 Census. A transcript of your mother's 1910 record is also enclosed. May we ask that you send $4.00 to this office to complete the processing fee. When you send the remittance, please refer to file Number 3-029-819.

We are not permitted to list the names of all persons residing in a household on the census date. The information we furnish is limited to the record of the person for whom the authority is received and may include the names of the parents, however, the names of other persons are not shown.

The date of marriage was not asked during any census. However, the number of years of present marriage was recorded for the 1910 Census. Please see column 9 on the enclosed full schedule.

Sincerely,

Francis N Allai

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Application on the reverse side of this sheet is for use in requesting a search of the census records and an official copy of the personal information found which includes age, place of birth, and citizenship. This application should be filled in and mailed to BUREAU OF THE CENSUS, PITTSBURG, KANSAS 66762, together with a money order or check payable to "Commerce – Census."

Birth certificates, including delayed birth certificates, are not issued by the Bureau of the Census but by the Health Department or similar agency of the State in which the birth occurred. In most Federal Censuses, the census takers obtained the age and place of birth of individuals. Copies of these census records often are accepted as evidence of age, citizenship, and place of birth for employment, social security benefits, insurance, and other purposes. Since the place of birth and citizenship were obtained only on a sample basis during the 1960 and 1970 Censuses, this information will not be shown on transcripts for those years.

Census records for 1880 and prior years have been transferred to the National Archives and Records Service, Washington, D.C. 20408, and are considered public records. Requests for information from these Censuses should be addressed to that agency.

If you authorize the Bureau of the Census to send your record to someone other than yourself, attention is called to the possibility that the information shown in the census record may not agree with that given in your application. The record must be copied exactly as it appears and will be sent as you direct regardless of what it shows.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM

▶ 1. Purpose

The purpose for which the information is desired must be shown so that a determination may be made under 13 U.S.C. 8(a) that the record is required for a proper use. The statement of purpose also provides a basis for determining which census records would best serve such purpose and thereby, save the expense of additional searches.

▶ 2. Censuses 1900–1920

A system for filing names by sound is available for these census years. Information can be furnished in many instances when only the following information is given:

The name of the person about whom the information is desired.

The name of the city or county and State where the person resided.

The name of the head of the household with whom this person was living on the various dates of these censuses.

Additional information such as the names of brothers and sisters is helpful if it can be furnished.

▶ 3. Censuses – years 1910–1930–1940–1950–1960–1970

If residing in a city at the time these censuses were taken, it is necessary to furnish the house number, the name of the street, city, county, and State and the name of the parent or other head of household with whom residing at the time of the census. If residing in a small town or a rural area, give all available information as to cross-streets, road names, township, district, precinct, or beat, etc. If the district or township is unknown, give the distance from the nearest town and the direction, also the rural route number.

▶ 4. Confidential information given to other than person to whom it relates

(a) Census information for the years 1900 and on is confidential and ordinarily will not be furnished to another person unless the person to whom it relates authorizes this in the space provided or there is other proper authorization as indicated in 4(b), 4(c), and 4(d) hereof.

(b) Minor children

Information regarding a child who has not reached legal age may be obtained upon the written request of either parent or the legal guardian.

(c) Mentally incompetent persons

Information regarding persons who are mentally incompetent may be obtained upon the written request of the legal representative supported by a certified copy of the court order naming such legal representative.

(d) Deceased persons

If the record requested relates to a deceased person, the application must be signed by (1) a blood relative in the immediate family (parent, brother, sister, or child), (2) the surviving wife or husband, (3) the administrator or executor of the estate, or (4) a beneficiary by will, or insurance. In all cases involving deceased persons, a certified copy of the death certificate must be furnished, and the relationship to the deceased must be stated on the application. Legal representatives must also furnish a certified copy of the court order naming such legal representatives; and beneficiaries must furnish legal evidence of such beneficiary interest.

▶ 5. Fee required

The $8.50 fee is for a search in regular turn, based on the date the request is received, of not more than two suggested censuses about one person only. The time required to complete a search depends upon the number of cases on hand at the particular time and the difficulty encountered in searching a particular case. The normal processing time would require from two to four weeks.

Not more than two censuses will be searched and the results furnished for one fee. Should it be necessary to search more than two censuses to find the record, you will be notified to send another fee before further searches are made. Tax monies are not available for the furnishing of this information. Accordingly, even though the information is not found, if a search has been made, the fee cannot be returned.

▶ 6. Additional copies of Census information

Additional copies of this information furnished will be prepared at a cost of $1.00 for each additional copy. Fill in the amount of money enclosed and the number of extra copies desired in the spaces provided.

▶ 7. Full schedules (For Genealogy)

Upon request, a full schedule will be furnished. There is an additional charge of $2.00 for each full schedule requested. The full schedule is the complete one-line entry of personal data recorded for the individual. The name of the head of household may also be shown, but the names of other persons will not be listed.

▶ 8. Signature

In general, the signature should be the same as that shown on the line captioned "full name of person whose census record is requested." When the application is for the census record concerning another person, the authority of the requester must be furnished as set forth in instruction 4 above.

▶ 9. 1960–1970 Censuses

Since the place of birth and citizenship were obtained only on a sample basis during the 1960 and 1970 Censuses, this information will not be shown on transcripts.

Ebenezer died December 21, 1807 in Laceyville, Wyoming Co., PA, at 80 years of age. AGE 81 The Lacy Family From Fairfield, Connecticut by Philip S. Lacy 1973 P.27 Ebenezer Lacey Jr. (s. of Ebenezer Lacey Sr., No. 9, and Jedidah (Jackson) Lacey); b. Stratfield, Conn. Apr. 19, 1727; d. Laceyville, PA. Dec. 21, 1807(g.s.); m. New Milford, Litchfield Co., Conn. Dec. 15, 1748 to Freelove Canfield, b. New Milford, Dec. 29, 1726, d. Laceyville Mar. 5, 1801 (g.s.); dau. of Azariah and Mercey (Bassett) Canfield of Milford, Conn, who were m. Feb. 17, 1719. Mercy Bassett was bapt. at Milford Oct. 24, 1703, and her parents were Thomas and Sarah (Baldwin) Bassett of Milford. In 1750/51 Ebenezer's father Ebenezer Sr. No. 9 removed with part of his family to New Fairfield, but it is improbable that Ebenezer Jr. accompanied them; for he had married in New Milford two years before that time, & had purchased land there on Mar. 14, 1750. This document of land purchase, owned by Charles L. Sanford, no. 3569, a descendant, of 723 Congress St., Neenah, Wis. mentions "Ebenezer Lacey of said New Milford", and locates this property with reference to said Lacey's dwelling house." Quoting from Ackley-Bosworth Gen. "He established himself as a blacksmith near his father-in-law's home in lower Merryall, on the west branch of the west Aspetuck, & afterwards apparently removed to New Milford village." New Milford was adjacent to Roxbury until 1856, when the part of New Milford nearest to Roxbury was established as the town of Bridgewater. Ebenezer Lacey Jr. served from 7 to 14 days in Aug. 1757 in the French & Indian War, in the company of Capt. John Hitchcock of New Milford,in Col. Ebenezer Marsh's Regt. at the time of the alarm for the relief of Ft. William Henry & places adjacent-65 of those named in the muster rode horses from New Milford, 18 from New Fairfiled.(Conn. Hist. Soc. Coll. 9:226). He served in the Revolution as a Sergeant in Capt. David Leavenworth's Company of col. Increase Moseley's Regiment of Colonial Militia, guarding the coastal area between Horseneck near Narragansett Bay & New Haven, Conn. on June 12, 1779 he was serving there as a member of the Continental Guards under his father-in-law Azariah Canfield (Conn. State Library, War, 7, 31). One of his daughters married in the New Preston Church, & it is possible that he became a resident of that parish which was partly in New Milford & partly in Washington. Among the early settlers of New Preston were people who adhered to the Episcopal Church. such was St. Andrew's Church. " At a meeting warned & held June 26, 1784, the inhabitants of New Preston & East-Wich(Warren) of the denomination of the Church of England so called parishes, having formed themselves into a lawful society according to the late act of the general assembly of the State of Connecticut: We, the subscribers whose names are underwritten, being desirous for the promoting religion & good order, do acknowledge ourselves to be & belong to the above said society, as witness our hands".(Signatures were from the towns of New Milford, Twps. of Kent, Washington, & Warren). Included in names from the Twp. of Washington were Ebenezer Lacey and Isaac Lacey, his son). New York land grants show that between 1760 & 1763 he was interesated in the purchase of lands there, his grant apparently being in Kingsbury(Washington Co., NY); but it is not until 1794, after his son Isaac had removed with his family from Tinmouth, VT. to Braintrim, Luzerne Co., PA.(later Laceyville, Wyoming Co.) that he removed to Pennsylvania to be with his son. Next is from ACKLEY-BOSWORTH GENEALOGY: Ebenezer Lacey, born @ Stratfield,Conn,, 19 Apr. 1727, died @ Laceyvile, Wyoming Co., Pa., 21 Dec. 1807, aged 81(gravestone); married @ New Milford, Conn., 15 Dec. 1748, Freelove Canfield, born @ New Milford, 29 Dec. 1726, died @ Laceyville, Pa. 5 Mar. 1801, aged 74 (gravestone), daughter of Azariah & Mercy (Bassett) Canfield. He went to New Milford as a young man, married there, & established himself as a blacksmith near his father-in-law's home in Lower Merryall, on the west branch of the West Asperuck, & afterwards apparently removed to New Milford village. New Milford was adjacent to Roxbury until 1856, when the part of New Milford nearest to Roxbury was established as the town of Bridgewater. Ebenezer had eight days of seervice in August 1757 in the French & Indian War as a member of the Company of Capt .John Hitchcock of New Milford. As one of his daughters married in the New Preston church, it is possible that he became a resident of that parish, which was partly in New Milford & partly in Washington. If so, he mmay have been the Ebenezer Lacy listed at Washington in the 1790 census with a boy under 16 & two females in his family. We do not find Ebenezer or his sons listed in Pennsylvania in 1790. New York Land Grants show that between 1760 & 1763 he was interested in the purchase of lands there, his grant apparenty being in Kingsbury, Wahsington Co., N.Y. but he may not have occupied the lands personally. He is said to have come "at an early day" from Connecticut to Braintrim Township, & his son Isaac to Laceyville, Wyoming Co., PA. ** *****************************

In 1750, Ebenezer Lacy, then of Stratfield, conveyed land to Ebenezer Hall of Stratfield, but in Apr. 1751, Fairfield Deeds shows he was of New Fairfield. "He was a householder in Stratford in 1730, but is supposed to have removed to Danbury."(F.O.F.Vol.11 p. 569). The town of New Fairfield lay immediately north of Danbury. Beyond doubt, they removed from Stratfield to New Fairfield in 1750/1. The new Fairfield Congregational Church & Parish Records show that on Dec. 1, 1756, Ebenezer Lacy was a member of the Society's committee; on Apr. 21, 1757, he was a moderator; he was appointed in 1760 to represent the Society. His son Seth also lived in New Fairfield & on Dec. 1, 1756, Seth was collector of minsterial rates & in 1759, Seth's wife Hannah was listed as communicant. These records show that Isaac Lacy, another son of Ebenezer lived there, that his children were born in New Fairfield & baptized in that church. It is clear that Ebenezer Lacy Sr. with his family with the exception of his son Ebenezer Lacy Jr., who was married & resided in New Milford, Conn,removed to New Fairfield & that his father Edward lacy Jr. & his third wife Rebecca(Grey) Lacy also removed there, for in 1758 Edward lacy & his wife were recorded as communicants in that church. It is about that time that Ebenezer Lacy Sr. & his descendants began to adopt the surname of Lacey. In the New Fairfield Church records, is is sometimes spelled Lacy & sometimes Lacey. Most of the descendants have since continued the use of the name spelled Lacey.

History of New Milford, CT. by Samuel Orcutt. incorrectly lists Mary Baldwin as his wife. ACKLEY-BOSWORTH GENEALOGY: Azariah Canfield, born at Milford about 1693, settled in New Milfrod 1727 and died there in 1679; married at Milford, 26 Feb. 1719/20, Mercy Baldwin, according to the Milford Record, but there is no doubt that she was the daughter of Thomas Basset.(f) If her mother was a Baldwin, as stated by the manuscripts of the late Nathan G. Pond and printed in the third report of the Bassett Family Association, the name may have been an inadvertence on the part of the recorder who wrote her mother's maiden name instead of her own surname. His will dated 26 Nov. 1766 gave the usual dower to his wife Mercy, lands to his son, Azariah, Jr. referring to his birthright, and to his daughter Freelove Lacey, six acres to his granddaughter Olive Lacey, lands to his two sons Oliver & Israel, the latter to have his dwelling house and half the barn. Edward Lacy, born probably around 1680, died after 1760; married first @ Fairfield(Stratfield), Conn., 23 July 1702, Abigail Gregory, born(say 1682), living at least as late of 1720, daughter of Samuel & Rebecca (Wheeler) Gregory; married second, perhaps 1728-9, Hannah (Beardsley) Parruck, born @ Stratford, 25 Oct. 1682, daughter of Samuel & Abigail (Clark) Beardsley, & widow of John Parruck; married third, @ Fairfield (Greenfield), 18 May 1748, Rebecca Gray, quite probably born about 1714, daughter of Jacob & Hannah (Seely) Gray. The last wife's identiy is not certain, but this Rebecca's branch of the Gray family lived in Greenfield where she married, & she had a brother who settled in Danbury. No probate of Edward Lacy has been found, & he appears to have removed late in life to New Fairfield, where his son Ebenezer had settled about 1750, for a "wife of Edward "Lacy is entered in 1758 as a church member in New Fairfield. However, in 1760, he is described as "late of Fairfield, now of Danbury". The birth of only the eldest child of Edward, Ebenezer, is recorded @ Fairfield, & @ Stratfield Church only Ebenezer & 2 other chn. were baptized, in 1704, 1705 & 1708. since the Stratfield Church records are very complete to 1718(after which there is a gap), & no baptismal rrecords of other churches in the vicinity of Stratfield relate to children of Edward Lacy, perhaps the three recorded children were all the children he had. Thomas died October 16, 1691 in North Branford, New Haven Co., CT. SOURCE OF THE FOLLOWING UNKNOWN: Thomas Wheadon, who died in 1691, was another early Colonial Settler of the general era of Henry Burt and Edward Lacy. The family name of Wheadon was changed to Wheaton later, about 1755. As Connecticut was first settled in 1631-1635, and had a population of only 3,000 as late as 1643, it is apparent that he was one of the early settlers. He settled in Branford, Conn., shortly after it was founded in 1644. Branford was, and is closely associated with the town of New Haven. Despite ambitions of its founders, the towns of New Haven jurisdiction were never more than small agricultural communities in a region not well adapted for agricultural purposes. There were tanneries and one iron works, but most manufacturing was done in the barns of the workmen. A man named Davenport remarked at a town meeting in 1662 that unless the town could do something to increase shipping " and so rayse manufacture" its inhabitants could not long subsist. We can see they worried about the balance of trade even in 1662. GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY OF THE FIRST SETTLERS OF NEW ENGLAND SHOWING THOSE WHO CAME BEFORE MAY 1692 (PG. 496) WHEDON, Thomas, New Haven, had been bound apprentice in England to John Meigs, just before coming to learn his art of tanner, took oath of fidelity 1657, married 24 May 1661 to Ann Harvey, had Thomas b. 31 May 1663; Sarah 23 Apr. 1666; Esther 26 Jan. 1668; removed to Branford where he had been propr. before 1667, there had John 1671, and Hannah 1675; joined the new compact of settlement in lieu of that which by those who went to New Jersey had govern. until then; and died 1691 leaving widow and five children.

FROM " WHEATON FAMILY" prepared by Earnest WHEATON: Note: Anne Harvey may have been a widow whose maiden name was Ann Small, daughter of Francis Small. NEW HAVEN TOWN RECORDS pp. 426, 427, Dec. 1659- Jan. 1659-60 At a Court held at New Haven the 3rd of Jan. 1659. Francis Harvey, a Frenchman, upon summons appearing, was told that he was to give answer concerning a treaty of marriage with a maid, carried on as its understood & as they both have confessed, to the engaging of themselves to one another, & without consent of parents or governor, contrary to a law here published, which was read, & they both were told that they had directly broke the law. To which he answered that there was no such law in the places where he hath been, nor did he know that there was any such law here; he was told that excuses him not, and that he must(if he live here) acquaint himself with the Laws established and submit to them. Ann Small was asked what she said to it having hired herself a serrvant for a year, she should within a month enter a treaty of marriage with a man, without consents of master, contrary to the Law. Ann Small pleaded that she was both ignorant of the Law & the breach of it, & that she intended to serve out her time with her Master; but Mr. Yale, her Master, said that she had within a short time after she came to him, moved to be free; to which it was said that was the fruit of such treaties, that having got a suit of clothes of her master, by and by she would be gone from him & engage herself to a man, without the consent of her mother, who she confessed was living, for ought she knew, to whom it would be a great grief to hear of her irregular proceedings. Mr. Yale informed that the carriage of Ann Small was very burdensome to them, not only in respect of that particular before spoken of, but also she was a notorious liar & unfaithful, concerning which he declared that there lodging a woman of Connecticut at his house, she left a small scarf behind her, which sometime after was inquired for by John Benham; to which Ann Small presently answered that thee was none left there; but upon that occasion he asked his maid where she had that scarf which she wore; to which she answered that she had it when she lived with her master Tompson but she did not wear it because she thought it would be trouble to her dame & that she left it with Goodwife Mallery, who since sent it to her by John Wakefield's daughter; whereupon he inquired of Goodwife Wakefield & Goodwife Mallery, growing suspicious of Ann Small, asked him if he brought any children's gloves out of England; he told her, yes; she told him that his maid had given her a pair of children's gloves, which gloves upon inquiry at home he found that she had stolen from him; besides other things are gone, but how he knows not. Ann Small was asked if this that was spoken by her master was true; she said yes; she was told that she had the more cause to be ashamed: she was asked what else she had taken from her master, being other things are wanting; she said that she had nothing else but the gloves..Page 428 Francis Harvey was told that he had broken the law by his irregular proceeding in this treaty of marriage with Ann Small, & thereby he falls under the fine of 40, that must forthwith be paid & that the court had little encouragement to give liberty for him to settle here. Ann Small was also reproved for her impudency & insensibility under such miscarriages, & sentenced to pay 10 as fine for her lying; as for stealing the scarf, she is to pay 2, and 12, for the gloves; for her other miscarriages, it was declared that she deserves corporal punishment, which the Court will take their time to consider of, which she must expect unless her better carriage prevent it. Mr. Yale desired that he might be freed of Ann Small, who has carried it so unsatisfyingly in his family; but no place being propounded to the satisfaction of the court, she left with Mr. Yale until further order. NEW HAVEN TOWN RECORDS FEB. 1659-60 Francis Harvey & Ann Samll, who were both fined the last Court, their fines being demanded; they were told that the Court approved not their going on in that league which had been witnessed against; Francis was warned to remove out of town this spring; he said he was sorry for what he had done, & desired that he might stay.

The wife of Thomas was Elizabeth ___, who was admitted to the Church of Milford in 1669. The will of Thomas Sr. dated 9 May 1694, gave to his eldest son Thomas the west end of the lot in the new field & other lands; gave lands to his sons Stephen & William; to his daughters Elizabeth Simkins & Alice Canfield, L10 apiece in movable estate in addition to what they had received;"my sister" Mary Lane, if she stay not with my son Samuel, but part from him should have L5 given to her; son Samuel sole executor, to have my dwelling house & certain lands. The inventory taken 15 Mar. 1697/8, amounted to over L234. The sister Mary Lane provided for in the will has not been identified. Some have supposed her to be the Mary who was wife first of Edward Camp & second of John Lane of Milford, but that Mary Lane died in Feb. 1680(1680/1) according to Milford church records and the inventory of her estate was taken Feb. 1680/1, so she was not living when Thomas Hine made his will in 1694. Possibly she was an unmarried sister of Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Hine, & both Elizabeth & Mary Lane may have been sisters of John Lane of Milford. The children of "Sister Hine"-Thomas, John, Elizabeth, Stephen, & Alice were baptized together 21 Nov. 1669. 92 Thomas BASSETT: He married Goody. first marr.

Thomas was born 1598. Thomas immigrated, 1635. Destination: destination unknown. Came on ship " Christian"

He resided in Windsor, CT 1641. He married Joanna UNKNOWN after 1655/6. Thomas became the father of Thomas BASSETT in Fairfield, Fairfield Co., CT, circa 1660. Thomas died 1668 at 70 years of age. Thomas Bassett, aged 37, came on the Christian in 1635, hence was born about 1598. He is credited with service in the Pequot War (1637), though without authority and probably mistakenly. On 9 Apr. 1640 he was made a freeman as an inhabitant of Windsor, Conn. He was still there in 1644, but moved to Fairfield, leaving scarcely a record of himself at Windsor. On 19 May, 1659, Thomas Bassett of Fairfield was freed from military training. That was doubtless because he had passed the age of 60. Presumably he was married while living in Windsor, but it is doubtful that he had surviving children, as no mention of children is found in either the vital or church records of Windsor, nor in the record of children born at Windsor made by Matthew Grant. The wife may have been a woman of peculiar and unsocial temperament, for we suppose she was the "Goody Bassett" who was accused of witchcraft at Stratford in 1651, tried, found guilty, and executed. It thus appears that Thomas sojourned for a time at Stratford, but in August 1653, he received a homelot of 2 1\2 acres in Fairfield. Whether he had any family at that time, we are not informed; but he married second after 1656, Joanna, widow of Thomas Beardsley of Fairfield; a woman much younger than himself, as she was born about 1634. On 25 Nov. 1661, he sold the house of Thomas Beardsley as his "successor". In May 1666, he testified, aged 68, as did his wife Johanna, aged 32, in the trial of the wanton Mary Benfield. This statement of his age identifies him with the immigrant on the Christian. He was one of the four "poor men" whose debts were forgiven by Dr. Pell in his will in 1669. He died prior to 14 Jan. 1669'70, when the inventory of his estate was taken. A widow and children were mentioned but not named. His administrators sold an acre in "Concord Field", 4 May 1678, and Thomas Dickerson acknowledged next year that his father had given the acre to Bassett. New Eng. CD Rom: Thomas Bassett, Windsor, 1641, had come in the Christian 1635, aged 37, & prob. first sat down @ Dorchester, tho, not ment. there, & bef. 1653, rem. to Fairfield, d, 1668, leav. wife & ch. but their names are not heard.

iii. JACOB, bapt. 14 June 1626
iv. JEREMIAH, bapt. 29 Dec. 1636
v. JOHN, bapt. 18 May 1639 There were probably other children, not found in the Minsden registers, but no complete account can be offered here, as probate & other sources have not been consulted. John Burwell of Milford came from Minsden & entries concerning his family appear there. Several other Milford surnames are found in the Minsden registers. Thomas Canfield was not an original settler, but a later comer. He joined the Milford church in 1656 & then had 3 children baptized, of whom the eldest was born probably not later than 1650. He would therefore be of suitable age to identify with the Thomas baptized in 1623 above. We think the identification probable, because the distinct connection of Minsden with Milford colonists suggests that the young Thomas of Minsden may have followed relatives to the New World & that would explain why he selected Milford for his home. Furthermore, the Minsden Thomas bestowed those names on children. The surname in Minsden records, as in New England, was variously spelled Camfield, Canfeild, etc., and in one entry the elder Thomas was called " of Hill ende."
